Julianne Stanz, Director of Parish Life and Evangelization for the Diocese of Green Bay, shared a beautiful reflection on suffering in the Compass Newspaper last month. Perhaps her words will touch your heart as you journey in faith this week.
Blessings, Becky VanKauwenberg – Discipleship Coordinator

Excerpt From: In the Midst of Our Suffering By Julianne Stanz | Special to the Compass August 24, 2021 www.thecompassnews.org

Many Hebrew words for grieving, weeping and lamentation actually mean "to distill," which involves separating and converting in order to change one substance to another. The distillation process involves conversion of a liquid into a vapor that is then condensed back into liquid form.

Let me give you a simple analogy and one that is a part of my daily life: making a cup of tea. When the kettle boils, the water evaporates and when that vapor hits the cool part of my cupboard, it leaves little drops of distilled water on the surface. It separates & there is conversion from water to steam.

Distilling can be a beautiful description of God's renewing work in the midst of our suffering. In any distillation process, separation and conversion occurs. During times of suffering, we go through our own distillation process and our attitude and behavior are refined and purified. With time and God's grace, we may come to understand that this particular suffering, while not pleasant, was a gift, for it allowed something new to emerge. Conversion has taken place and resistance and grief give way to acceptance & new life.

…This brokenness caused by suffering is a touchstone of God's grace. Through suffering, our heart is expanded, we see more clearly and we understand more deeply. Through these intense periods of suffering God is continually transforming us to be more compassionate, more hopeful, more merciful and more loving — all attributes of Christ. The Scriptures tell us that God "will wipe every tear" from our eyes (Rv 21:4). God's distillation process takes our tears and turns them to joy. We might not realize it in the moment, but with time we may come to understand and appreciate it.

Rosary Service - Sat, Oct 2nd

At St Jude we have a beautiful unique display of rosaries handmade by a new parishioner, Mr. T. Mr T created the rosaries to financially help the church. You can choose a rosary and donate whatever you can afford. The proceeds will benefit St. Jude. Mr T has a great devotion to Our Lady and the reciting of the rosary. In our troubled times the rosary is a great powerful prayer that Our Lady hears and grants grace to those who pray it especially in a group setting. Join us for a rosary service at St. Jude, 10 am the 2nd Sat of ea month. (Note: Oct moved to 1st Sat, 10/2)

St. Joseph Fall Fest

It is not too late to volunteer to organize a Fall Fest for St. Joseph Parish. If you would be willing to plan something, it doesn't have to look like it has in the past, please call Carol Kittell at the parish office 496-2160. The profit from Fall Fest goes a long way in helping cover operating expenses, especially as we head into the winter months when we have additional heating and snow plowing expenses. Thank you for considering this important volunteer opportunity.

Annunciation Mission Society

The Annunciation Mission Society is still active and in need of new members. We make quilts, pillows, rugs, and lots of different knit or crocheted items. All of these items are sold and the proceeds go to support various Missions in Wisconsin, India, Haiti and the Philippines. We meet every Wednesday afternoon from 1:00 to 3:00. Our first meeting will be the second Wednesday after Labor Day, September 15, 2021. We are located in the basement of the Rectory at Annunciation Parish. Enter through Door #5 in the back of church. You can either come down the stairs to the right of the door or you can come down on the elevator. For those of you who are "Not" able to attend our meetings, you are free to sew strips for rag rugs, sew fabric squares together for quilt tops, knit or crochet in the privacy of your own home and we will supply the strips, squares and yarn to you. Please join us, you do not have to be a member of Annunciation Parish. Everyone is welcome. If you need additional information or have any questions, please call Joann Vaile at 920-737-7723. We are looking forward to seeing some new faces this year. Thank you.

PAPER DRIVE NOTICES

- The busiest days at the dumpster are early in the week, if you can wait to put your paper in the dumpster until later in the week, it will help us a lot.
- If it is difficult for you to put your paper in the dumpster, please feel free to set it on the ground in front of the dumpster. Anyone who sees paper sitting on the ground, please throw it in the dumpster if you are able. Working together, this will continue to be a valuable fundraiser for all of us. Thank you for your support!

Let's keep turning your trash into cash!

Bible Study with Sr Pat

Bible Study is being offered every Monday, 6:30-8:30 pm and every Wednesday, 9-11 am. All sessions are held at Annunciation in room 105.

The new Bible study, Letter to the Romans, begins the week of September 27 and September 29. This study consists of 8 sessions. Romans reveals that salvation is not merely the removal of a guilty verdict; it is about entering into Christ's life, death, and resurrection and sharing in his divine life. This study will also help you to make sense of the difficult passages regarding faith, works of the law, and justification. Most importantly it will help you have a deeper appreciation for how much God wants to be in an intimate relationship with us, God's sons and daughters!

To register, please call the Quad-Parish Office at 496-2160.

Attention Movie Lovers

Our first movie for this year will be shown on Thursday, September 23 at 1:00 pm in room 105 at Annunciation. Letters to God is the story of 8 year-old Tyler as he faces his daily battle against cancer. Tyler discovers he can pray by writing letters to God. Who gets these daily letters to God? And how do they impact the community? Join us to find out the answers to these questions.

Book Club - Thursday, Oct 14

We will be discussing "The Extraordinary Life of Sam Hell" by Robert Dugoni.

Sam was born with red eyes. His Mother promised he'd have an extraordinary life. It's time he finds our for himself.

We have already placed the book order. If you would like to join us, please obtain your own copy of the book.

If you wish to have lunch with us, please bring your own lunch and join us at 12 noon. We will provide water and coffee. If you do not come for lunch, join us at 12:20 pm.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel Jesus called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around the child, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me." Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will help children feel the arms of Jesus around them. Thank You.

Lakeshore Retrouvaille weekend coming soon!

What is Retrouvaille? Pronounced retro-vi (long I), this faith-based ministry is a three-part program that starts with a weekend retreat, Nov. 5-7, 2021, at the Norbertine Center for Spirituality in De Pere. It is a way for married couples to reconnect when they might be experiencing sadness, anger or separation in their lives. It is not counseling; it is not group therapy. It is, for tens of thousands of couples, an answer to prayer. More information: call (920) 288-2043 or visit helpourmarriage.org.

Support for Empty Nesters

Join other parents and coach Joanne Clark to identify ways to rediscover purpose and joy in this new chapter of our lives.

Joanne Clark has a BA in Psychology, a certification through Coach Training Alliance, and two decades of experience in Training & Development. If you have questions or would like more information about this event, contact Joanne at (920) 265-4964.
