30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Son of David, have pity on me!" Has the cry of Bartimaeus ever escaped your lips? Today's Gospel tells the story of a blind man with a difficult lot in life. He made a living by begging coins off passing travelers. When word reaches him that Jesus will be passing by, this is when he begins his shouts for mercy. Jesus hears Bartimaeus' cry and beckons him forward.

"What do you want me to do for you?" Last week, Jesus asked a similar question to James and John. Their response was a clutch for fame. Bartimaeus' response is much humbler. "Lord, I want to see." How strange this interaction must have seemed to the onlookers. The man is blind! Of course he wants to see! But Jesus is always teaching us. By asking us what we want, Jesus reveals the dispositions of our hearts. God already knows them, but do we? By asking James and John to name their ambition, their selfishness is exposed to them and to the other disciples. By asking Bartimaeus to name his longing, his faith is exposed to the entire crowd. Jesus invites participation in our own redemption. He doesn't save us without us!

Take some time in silent prayer today. Place yourself in this story of Bartimaeus. Imagine yourself there on the dusty, crowded roadside. Jesus is calling you! When you stand before him, his focus is on you and you alone. "What do you want me to do for you?" he asks. Search your heart. How would you respond? What part of your heart is Jesus asking you to expose? He has come to heal and to restore. May we, too, be sent! "Go ... your faith has saved you."

Birthday Blessings

Welcome to the 30th Sunday of Ordinary Time!

LITURGICAL FOCUS

Every Sunday, we are invited anew to follow Jesus. No matter what our limitations or impediments may be, Jesus calls us to follow Him. Sometimes, even when we don't realize it, we are being called in the Gospel. Today, we hear Jesus cure Bartimeaus, the blind man who begged at the side of the road. But Jesus calls Bartimeaus as well. After receiving the gift of sight, Bartimeaus responds to Jesus' call and follows Him. As we gather in Jesus' name today, let us consider how He is calling us.

THE WORD FOR US TODAY

In the first reading today, Jeremiah recounts how God has gathered together the people of Israel. God rescues the most vulnerable, "the blind... the lame... mothers... those with child." All are brought to safety in the Lord. God smooths their path and quenches their thirst. God guides them and consoles them. Rejoice! As we look around today, note how God has gathered all of us together.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How would I answer the question Jesus has asked the last two weeks: "What do you want me to do for you?"

WELCOME TO A NEW MONTH THIS WEEK!

The month of November is the month we remember all of our beloved dead. Please pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory to reach the halls of Heaven in the communion of the Saints for eternity.

Remember to VOTE on Tuesday, November 6th. Voting is open from 7 am to 8 pm.

Peace,

Fr. Tony Cirignani, OFM.
