5th Sunday of Easter

"Spiraling out of control," is a phrase that can easily describe the current display of human existence. In addition to the violence, unrest, uneasiness and turmoil that are common elements of our daily news, other essential pieces are misplaced or missing. Many lack an objective center around which to order and structure their lives or a clear set of definable goals or mores to act as guideposts and life directives. It appears that "feelings" have become a "new god" and traditional structures and ideals set aside. It is almost as if history only shows that we got this whole thing wrong and many are determined to finally set things right. The real truth, however, is that while wrongs and errors are certainly a part of our often-checkered past, it is hardly the case that all was wrong. It is not our task to rewrite the history of our lives, but to learn from mistakes that were made, and preserve the perennial wisdom at the root of our successes. Learning is an essential part of being human.

The question becomes, however, from whom do we learn? Some have such a hard time placing God in that position, but that is precisely where God needs to be. God is the Master Teacher from whom all of humanity learns and gets its cues. It is in and through this relationship with the Gardener of Life that we are fashioned and pruned into the people we are intended to be and can be. It is only in God that we are able to find our best selves. Sadly, many think that religion too, as well as history in general, has also gotten all this wrong. Yet, our resurrection faith tells us differently. We are reminded, today especially, that we are meant to remain in Christ as Christ remains in us. We are also reminded that Jesus, the Incarnate God, is the vine upon which we grow, the branches that flow from the source of God's life.

Giving up our will to God's can be a painful endeavor. It is not easy to set our own desires and wants aside and allow God to step in and direct and guide our growth. But this is the only way to prevent deadly weeds from overtaking us and bringing us to a place of self-destruction. God's commandments are the very guideposts and benchmarks we need, yet many seek to remove them from all public view because they appear to limit self-expression and suppress what is considered by many to be "human freedom." They are the only way we can find freedom, however. And, until we learn this fundamental lesson, we will continue to spiral out of control, never really knowing who we are, what our potential can be or how life really can be lived. We will not know peace.

5° Domingo de Pascua

El domingo pasado, el Señor Jesús se presentaba como el Buen Pastor, y ahora nos da la imagen de la vid y los sarmientos. "Yo soy la vid verdadera y mi Padre es el labrador. Toda rama que no da fruto en mí, la corta. Y todo sarmiento que da fruto, lo limpia para que dé más fruto". (Juan 15:1-2). La vida del cristiano es de un constante cambio de limpieza y permanencia. Todos los días se presentan oportunidades nuevas de crecimiento humano y espiritual. Aquí se trata de crecer en Dios y dar fruto, y darse cuenta que sin Dios no se hace, ni se es nada. Es la prueba del discípulo, dar fruto en las cosas ordinarias, en las cosas sencillas. Haciéndolas extraordinarias por el amor.

¿Cómo estamos vinculados a Jesús en el mundo actual? ¿De qué manera doy fruto en este tiempo? Muchas veces, es difícil permanecer unidos, hay tantas cosas que nos separan de Dios. La frialdad hacia el que sufre, el enfermo, el pobre y desamparado. Nos urge un cambio radical en el amor y en la confianza, de que unidos podemos movernos hacia el amor cristiano. Debemos esforzarnos día a día en hacer el bien, especialmente para dejar algo provechoso a las generaciones venideras. Jesús lo afirmó claramente, al permanecer en él podremos pedir lo que queramos y sea de provecho para la salvación, y se cumplirá. Ese es el testamento. No hay vuelta de hoja. ¡Padre Santo, ayúdanos a permanecer muy cerca de Jesús siempre! Especialmente, en tiempos de prueba. Te pedimos fe y esperanza.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Branching Out Isn't Always What It's Cracked Up to Be

"That's a really beautiful tree branch. Man, would you look at the bark on that thing? The others are real duds, but that low-hanging branch has really got it all together."

I've never heard anyone say this. Maybe I just need to hang out with more arborists, but I can't recall ever hearing someone admire the particular beauty of a single branch. When someone comments on a tree, it's usually the whole tree — perhaps a visual element of it, like the color of the leaves or its height. But people don't usually zero in on one branch.

Maybe that's because usually, if one branch is looking a little weak, chances are every other branch is, too.

The Bible tells us that when we bear fruit as good everyday stewards, it is for the Father's glory. We are the branch on His magnificent tree. What we have is from Him, and what we do likewise points back to Him. We also tend to reflect how well the other branches around us are incorporating the nutrients coming their way. That's all fine and good in theory. In practice, it can be an arduous exercise in humility.

When I do something virtuous or charitable or kind, there is a part of me that wants to stand out for it. I think that's true for all of us. We've given of ourselves in some way or overcome some human temptation to accomplish a little bit of good in this world, and even though we know God sees us, we'd really love for everyone else to see it, too.

It's a struggle, for sure. But we need to remember that our fruit belongs to the whole tree.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA:
RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

La Ramificación no Siempre es lo que Parece Ser

"Esa es una rama de árbol realmente hermosa. Hombre, ¿podrías mirar la corteza de esa cosa? Las otras son verdaderos defectos, pero esa rama baja realmente lo tiene todo."

Nunca he escuché a nadie decir esto. Tal vez solo necesito pasar tiempo con más arbolistas, pero no recuerdo haber escuchado a alguien admirar la belleza particular de una sola rama. Cuando alguien comenta sobre un árbol, generalmente es todo el árbol, tal vez un elemento visual del mismo, como el color de las hojas o su altura. Pero la gente no suele concentrarse en una rama.

Tal vez se deba a que, por lo general, si una rama se ve un poco débil, es probable que todas las demás también lo sean.

La Biblia nos dice que cuando damos fruto como buenos corresponsables diarios, es para la gloria del Padre. Somos la rama de Su magnífico árbol. Lo que tenemos es de Él, y lo que hacemos también apunta a Él. También tendemos a reflejar qué tan bien las otras ramas que nos rodean están incorporando los nutrientes que les llegan. Todo eso está muy bien en teoría. En la práctica, puede ser un arduo ejercicio de humildad.

Cuando hago algo virtuoso, caritativo o amable, hay una parte de mí que quiere destacarse por ello. Creo que eso es cierto para todos nosotros. Nos hemos entregado de alguna manera o hemos superado alguna tentación humana de lograr un poco de bien en este mundo, y aunque sabemos que Dios nos ve, nos encantaría que todos los demás también lo vieran.

Es una lucha, seguro. Pero debemos recordar que nuestra fruta pertenece a todo el árbol.

Nebraska Kids Need You:
Urge Your Senator to Support LB364!

The Opportunity Scholarships Act (LB364) will soon be debated by the Nebraska Legislature, and Senators need to hear from you! LB364 increases scholarship opportunities for low-income families to attend the private school of their choice by enacting a tax credit for donations to nonprofit scholarship granting organizations.

There are many families in your community and across the state who want the choice to send their kids to private or parochial school, but can't because of financial obstacles. LB364 would help to transform the lives of students and families in Nebraska. As Catholics, we believe that parents have the right to choose a school for their children which corresponds to their own convictions and should have true liberty in their choice of schools. LB364 would give parents the freedom to choose faith-based education if they so desire.

Please consider contacting your state senator to personally convey why private or parochial education was the best fit for your child or to simply encourage them to support opportunity scholarships (LB364). For more information or to contact your senator visit this site: https://www.votervoice.net/NECATHOLIC/Campaigns/83801/Respond

Los niños de Nebraska lo necesitan:
Inste a su senador a apoyar a LB364!

La Ley de oportunidad de becas (LB364) pronto será debatido por la Legislatura de Nebraska, y los senadores necesitan saber de usted! LB364 aumenta las oportunidades de becas para que las familias de bajos ingresos asistan a la escuela privada de su elección mediante la promulgación de un crédito fiscal para donaciones a organizaciones de concesión de becas sin fines de lucro.

Hay muchas familias en su comunidad y en todo el estado que quieren la opción de enviar a sus hijos a la escuela privada o parroquial, pero no pueden debido a obstáculos financieros. LB364 ayudaría a transformar la vida de los estudiantes y las familias en Nebraska. Como católicos, creemos que los padres tienen derecho a elegir una escuela para sus hijos que corresponda a sus propias convicciones y debe tener verdadera libertad en su elección de escuelas. LB364 daría a los padres la libertad de elegir la educación basada en la fe si así lo desean.

Por favor considere ponerse en contacto con su senador estatal para transmitir personalmente por qué la educación privada o parroquial era la más adecuada para su hijo o simplemente alentarlos a apoyar becas de oportunidad (LB364). Para obtener más información o para ponerse en contacto con su senador visite este sitio:

What Next?

God was talking to one of his angels and said, "Do you know what I have just done? I've just created a 24-hour period of alternating light and darkness on Earth. Isn't that great?"

The angel said, "Yes, but what will you do now?"
God said, "I think I'll call it a day."
