THE COMBINED BULLETIN OF

SAINT PATRICK
SAINT MARGARET MARY

First Reading:
I myself will gather the remnant of my flock
from all the lands to which I have driven them
and bring them back to their meadow;
there they shall increase and multiply.
(Jer 23:3)
Psalm:
The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)
Second Reading:
In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. (Eph 2:13)
Gospel:
When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd,
his heart was moved with pity for them,
for they were like sheep without a shepherd;
and he began to teach them many things. (Mk 6:34)

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We only have so much psychological and spiritual energy. We easily get tired. Responding to life's demands and people's needs can really zap us of all of our energy. Anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and even apathy can run wild. We can find ourselves bitter and irritated by the fact that we have to do it all again. We need to rest, connect, and focus. Deserted places, free of unnecessary distractions and demands, are great places of refreshment and we all need them. Desiring to be alone for a bit and rest does not indicate selfishness. Rather, it radiates wisdom. God is the source of all we do and the satisfaction of every human heart. If we are going to use the gifts God gave us well, then we have to make sure our batteries are recharged and replenished. Jesus invites us to go to a desert place to rest and pray. Where is yours?

The following is a prayer/reflection I wrote as a daily consecration for priests. I'd like to share it with you as my column today.

One day within Your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.
Lord Jesus Christ, on the day You ordained me a priest,
On the day Your consecration was my consecration,
On the day Your priesthood became my priesthood,
On the day Your hands and the hands of the Bishop were truly one,
Truly on that day You decreed:
You are a priest forever.
Yes Lord, a priest forever, but a priest on that day, and still a priest today.
I say yes to the priesthood today.
My hands are Your hands today.
My life is Your life today.
Lord You promise that tomorrow will take care of itself. All I need be is a priest today.
If today I would hear Your voice, Your call.
Just for today.
Help me today, to be holy, to pray with fervor, to be gentle and kind.
To be patient, to be free of anxiety, to be strong, to be ready to serve.
May today I take up the Sacred Host and Saving Chalice and know that they are unmarredeven by all the world's troubles.
May I this day befriend sinners, extending pardon and peace.
May I this day bring hope and grace to the sick, to the poor, and to the weary.
May I know this day what life and joy I can bring to my little flock, for they are Your gift to me.
May I know peace and simple joy this day, and not miss the little miracles You send me.
May I know that I am not the Savior, that I will fail again and again - yet still today You call me.
Lord, no one can make a perfect Yes. But today I renew priesthood once more, I say Yes again.
For today I dwell in Your courts, and it is better than thousands elsewhere.

Blessings,
Fr. Ben

Now Hiring!

St. Patrick School of the T.H. Deanery is currently looking for two part-time custodians to help with general janitorial and maintenance needs. Position is strictly part-time (between 20-25 hours per week) and may require lifting of objects up to 50 lbs. If interested, please contact Steve Eilbracht, Facility Director at: steve.eilbracht@saintpat.org

Our loving Father streams his love through us. Please know that his continual presence is a guaranteed promise and so is our promise to you. If you have any concerns or needs please contact the parish office.

Update on White Violet Farm Store:

It turns out they are stretched too thin on their schedules and will not be able to locate a pick up for produce at St. Pat's this summer. Please visit the Farm Store at www.https://farm-store-at-white-violet-center.mybigcommerce.com to see what is available and what other options will be offered for your organic shopping. You will also find them at the Farmers Market on Saturday mornings in the Meadow Center parking lot!

"Be sure to put your feet in the right place, then stand firm." (Abraham Lincoln)

I remember way back when I had an earth science project in high school. A group of us built a stream table. We built a long plywood box with a hinge in the middle. Then we lined it with plastic and filled it with sand. At one end we attached a hose. At the other end was a drainage hole. After assembling all of it, we raised one end of the stream table, turned on the water and watched as it created a path directly to the hole at the other end. The next part of the experiment was to place a rock in the stream and watch how it changed the path of the water.

This project taught me as much about life as it did about science. I learned that I can't change the direction things are going if I am standing on the bank of the river of life. I have to step into the stream of life and stand there to divert the flow.

That what Jesus did. God place Jesus in the stream of history to change its course. St. Paul says Christ is that rock of salvation. He changed everything for us and gave us hope for eternal life. God uses us to change people lives so that they may have the same hope as we do. As Abe says, be sure to put your feet in the right place and stand firm, God is counting on you to change lives!

Together through prayer and service,
Deacon Mike

Perpetual Adoration Chapel

We know how busy summer can be for all of us, but please don't forget your chapel time you signed up for, we need your prayers!

O' come let us adore Him!

We are currently seeking a new director to step in and be in charge of the Adoration Chapel and schedules. Please contact the office or Roni Schmidt if you would be interested and willing to guide this important ministry.

Thank you to everyone that came out and brought food for the pitch-in-dinners at both parishes. What a way to welcome Fr. Ben!

A big shout out to all of the volunteers that helped with set up and clean-up! We appreciate you very much!
