Known by Deed and Truth

This weekends' Second reading begins with, "let us love not in word or speech, but in deed and truth." This brings to mind the saying, "actions speak louder than words". I can tell my kids that I love them, but they know it is true when I spend time with them. On the reverse side, when someone says they are sorry, and then turns around and repeats the same action again and again, the sorry becomes an empty word. It is through the action of one truly trying to change that the sorry finds true meaning. This weekend we are being challenged to live our faith in the same way. We can say that we believe in God and that we are faithful people, but do our actions reflect that? I n the First reading we hear about the disciples being afraid to let Paul join them because he was known for persecuting Christians. It was the actions of Paul that finally warmed the others to let him join them. His words without action would not have held up. Paul's message was respected because he truly lived what he talked about. Those he challenged were drawn to faith not by Paul's words, but by the way he lived the faith. Even in times of adversity we see Paul praising God.

The Second reading also tells us that we can know we belong to the truth if we follow God's commandments: believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ and love one another. That doesn't sound like a lot to ask, but some days it can be hard to put into action. At the end of a long day we may have a short fuse for our child, spouse, or sibling. When someone has treated us poorly or injured us in some way, it can be hard to turn around and treat them with love. Yet, that is what we are called to do.

The Gospel gives insight to how we can accomplish this and how we can tell whether or not we are succeeding. If we are acting in accord with God we will bear fruit. These fruits, as we learn in Galatians, are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self control. In order to bear these fruits, we must be rooted in Christ. When we come to the table and share in the Eucharist we remain united to Christ. Only when we are in union with Christ can we be a branch that bears fruit. That fruit will draw others to ask about our life and then we can point to the vine.

This week, focus on going beyond words and be sure our deeds match what we say. The truth of our belief lies in our actions. If we say we love God, but don't take time to pray or attend Mass, then they are empty words. It would be like saying I love my husband then not spending time with him. Watch for the fruits that will come from letting the Holy Spirit guide you this week to help your actions match your words. Let your faith be known by your deeds! '

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Adults: When has God pruned me so that I could grow and give life?

Children: When have I felt good because I did something to help someone?

"The ordinary acts we practice every day at home are of more importance to the soul than their simplicity might suggest." St. Thomas More

Joseph Cherney is a seminarian for the Green Bay Diocese. He has been participating in the Kairos Year of formation in preparation for seminary over this past year. He will be staying here at the parish getting a taste of parish life and the life of a priest through this week. He will be with us Tuesday through Friday of this week. So if you see him around, please introduce yourself to him! You can learn more about him by checking out his profile at gbvocations.org/seminarian-profiles .

Chapel of Divine Mercy Returns to 24-Hour Adoration

The adoration chapel in Chilton will return to continuous adoration on Sunday, May 9th, after the ten o'clock Mass. Thereby the first hour will begin at 11:00 AM. The chapel closure left a great void in the tremendous spiritual opportunity that the chapel provides. It is the most wonderful gift to be back for all to answer the call of Jesus, I thirst. ….And, to receive His gifts, Come to Me and I will give you rest.

More adorers of all ages are needed to fill the hours of Adoration. Please call Kathy Schneider at 849-9266 to sign up for an hour. You will be greatly blessed!

JESUS & COMPANY

PAY ATTENTION! It may be time for us to pay closer attention to the activity going on around the parish office on Wednesday nights and lights on later in the evening. That could lead you to believe the Upper Room is back in motion. By this time next week we may have a lot more to say about our upcoming future. There was a recent meeting in the Room where a representative from Spiritus came to explain and outline their organization to our young adults all around us. We wrote about it in this space a couple of weeks ago. Basically it gives young people around the age of 19-26 to keep their faith alive by bringing it to others. You might look at it as a continuation of RE… to J&C and then staying in the world of Jesus with Spiritus. We will go on and on with this and believe it or not, we have a list of you already started because you are already living the life that they promote in their Spiritus lifestyle. They will hopefully be providing us with on-going information to get a good look at all of it. The general outline of what is being attempted makes it sound rather exciting and keeping us close to Jesus. Why not give it all a look and listen and then make your own decision.

OUR TWO NEWEST displays of Christmas and Easter are now safely stored away in our History book. We have a year to decide if we want to continue on with these new ideas. There were not a lot of people who viewed our scenes but we attempted t think ahead of ourselves a little bit and took a pile of pictures of both. We hope the pictures will do it all justice. It was a totally different look at both events and we actually feel that these scenes depicted the events. We don't know if the pictures will show it but there is a conversation - item in the view of the tomb and one shown on one of the soldiers. We were so attracted to both of these displays we even considered to expand both scenes. There is room to expand them by putting our imaginations to work and then truly study the stories of both events in the Bible. Would that be a different approach to these Holy Days for some of us?

KEEP WATCHING this space. We don't know what's happening or when it will be here but be ready… how is that for a warning??

JESUS - help us look for all of those we an share your name with.

Covid 19 Safety Precautions in Church

Questions are beginning to be asked: When are things going to open up more in church? When are we going to return to normal? People are being vaccinated and case numbers are extremely low. Why do we still have to wear masks and social distance? I've discussed some options with the staff and parish council. The Diocese of Green Bay is proceeding cautiously and has maintained their call for face coverings and social distance for the time being even after the governor's mandate was struck down in court. After deliberation, the following changes will be made starting this weekend, April 25th:

- One quarter of the church will have the rope barriers removed allowing people to situate themselves more flexibly while still maintaining the protocols of mask wearing and social distancing.
- The parish library attached to the adoration chapel will be open.
- Implementation of new CDC guidelines regarding surfaces mean that we will no longer need to sanitize pews after every Mass. They will be sprayed once a day.

As I'm sure you have noticed attendance is going up at weekend Masses. We surpassed 400 in attendance each of the last two weekends. We hadn't done that since the COVID shutdown a year ago, with the exception of Christmas and Easter. This means that it is harder for people to find seats. In fact, some families have been forced to split up seating because there just wasn't room in one pew. Therefore, I'd like to ask people who are coming on their own or as a couple, if you could please fill the shorter side pews first, that would help our larger families to be able to sit together.

Anyone interested in becoming a prayer minister can contact Sandra Buhl or Jean Kasper, for more information.

Blessed Michael Giedroyc – Feast Day - May 4

A life of physical pain and mental torment didn't prevent Michael Giedroyc from achieving holiness.

Born near Vilnius, Lithuania, Michael suffered from physical and permanent handicaps from birth. He was a dwarf who had the use of only one foot. Because of his delicate physical condition, his formal education was frequently interrupted. But over time, Michael showed special skills at metalwork. Working with bronze and silver, he created sacred vessels, including chalices.

He traveled to Kraków, Poland, where he joined the Augustinians. He received permission to live the life of a hermit in a cell adjoining the monastery. There Michael spent his days in prayer, fasted and abstained from all meat and lived to an old age. Though he knew the meaning of suffering throughout his years, his rich spiritual life brought him consolation. Michael's long life ended in 1485 in Kraków.

Five hundred years later, Pope John Paul II visited the city and spoke to the faculty of the Pontifical Academy of Theology. The 15th century in Kraków, the pope said, was "the century of saints." Among those he cited was Blessed Michael Giedroyc.

Many people today face a life of suffering and discrimination due to physical handicaps. Let's ask Blessed Michael Giedroyc to pray for them that their situation might be addressed by society at large.
