unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies,

The author of Hebrews teaches us that Jesus learned "obedience" from his suffering. What have been some fruits from the suffering in your life?

GOSPEL READING
We hear today of Jesus' own struggle with his impending death. During this Lenten season, what has been a struggle for you?

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Jesus knows about the troubled world around us. It is very hard to live the life that we want to live. But it is possible to change and transform our lives through the Divine Mercy Devotion He offers. It is for bot those who are actively practicing their faith to receive the graces to renew themselves; and it is also for those inactive Catholics who have been hesitant to return to Him because of many years of absence. Our Lord speaks of Divine Mercy Sunday;' "On that day all the floodgates through which graces flow are opened. I will pour out a whole ocean of graces so that no soul fears to draw near to Me." The soul that will go to Confession 8during Lent) and receive Holy Communion on this day (Divine Mercy Sunday) will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. Refresh yourself. Uplift yourself. Invite others to come and be renewed. We will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday here at Queen of Peace Church from 3-4pm on April 11th.

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA

On Good Friday, 1937 Jesus dictated intentions for a novena he wanted St. Faustina to pray before the Feast of Mercy. By means of this special pray, she was to bring to His Heart a different group of souls each day. You will find at the entrances of the church the Chaplet of Divine Mercy prayers. The novena is to begin on Good Friday and continue for nine days until Divine Mercy Sunday, April 11th

Faith FORMATION

Making disciples at Queen of Peace

At Queen of Peace we are working to build a culture of discipleship. We want it to be normal for every member of our parish community to be connected to some form of discipleship group. Supporting and equipping the faithful of our parish to form small groups where relationships are strengthened is at the heart of our Discipleship Formation. Over the past year we have been developing resources and training leaders to fulfill our mission of making disciples.

Only the beginning

As more members of our parish begin to take part in our mission, we will begin to see more people being lovingly drawn deeper into their Catholic faith. We will become a parish where people feel more welcome and connected when they walk through our doors and we will have people in every state of life who are actively reaching out to our wider community and sharing their faith confidently within their circle of influence.

Current Discipleship Groups that you can join for Lent

Men's Group—Wednesdays at 8:00 pm at KC Hall
Women's Group—Wednesdays 6:30 pm at QOP
A Lent Like No Other for Adults—Sundays 6:00 pm at QOP

If you are interested in starting a discipleship group or would like more information about these or other groups, please fill out one of our small groups surveys, which can be found in the parish gathering space and drop it in the offering basket or contact Rebekah Swanson.

Eucharistic Living with Fr. Mike Joncas - Tuesday, March 23, 7:00pm - 8:30pm. Register for this St. Frances Cabrini Tegeder Talks: https://cabrinimn.org/tegeder-talk-signup

"I will be their God and they shall be my people."
Jeremiah 31:33

What does it mean to be God's people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts and our lives to care for our family, our neighbors and for people we don't know, just as God cares for each of us.
