In the November 2021 newsletter it was mistakenly reported that the Knights of Columbus organized and hosted Hospitality Sunday and Fr. Jerry's 30th Ordination Anniversary cake & coffee. Holy Family's hospitality committee was responsible for those events. We apologize for the error.

MANY HANDS….

There are many ways our talents and time can be shared collectively as we come together as the Body of Christ. Many hands DO make light work when celebrating Mass or other liturgies and services. Having an ample number of ministers keeps our church community healthy and well-rounded. The Pandemic has changed the number of ministers we have serving in these needed ministries. Is God calling you to a special task?

Do you enjoy preparing the dinner table in a special way? Perhaps you might be called to be a Sacristan.

Do you feel a special calling to be a minister who offers the Body and Blood of Christ? Eucharistic Ministry may be your place to serve.

Do you enjoy meeting people and making them feel welcome? Hospitality and Greeting is the ministry for you.

Perhaps you like to help keep organization during the liturgy in the way our assembly moves about and be on hand to help with questions during Mass. Usher/Hospitality Ministry might suit you.

Are you good with technology? Consider Video Ministry.

Do you sew or are you gifted with decorative skill? Art and Environment Ministry would love to have you. DECORATING FOR ADVENT IS HAPPENING SOON! WE NEED YOU!

Do you have a musical gift? Music Ministry is open to all. Pray about it!

Have you felt called to be an integral working member of the liturgy? What a great way to work on our call to holiness as we come together to serve in the ministries of the liturgy!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

St. Ambrose shares some wisdom on our need to prepare the way and open the door for Christ. "You see that when the Word of God knocks hardest on your door, it is when his hair is wet with the dew of the night. In fact, he chooses to visit those who are in tribulation and trial, lest one of them be overwhelmed by distress. So, his head is covered with dew, with drops, when his body is laboring hard. It is important to keep watch so that when the Bridegroom comes, he is not shut out. If you are asleep and your heart is not keeping watch, he will go away without knocking; but if your heart is alert for his coming, he knocks and asks for the door to be opened to him." When life gets overwhelming and difficult and we find ourselves feeling a bit downhearted and miserable, these words can bring great comfort.

We sometimes choose to remain stuck in our uncomfortable darkness and being stuck becomes our norm. In this time of self-focus our hearts are closed to the graces and life God desires to give us. Wrapped in the robe of mourning and misery, we fail to see the mercy, justice, and love the Bridegroom wants to bring. If we take seriously the need to prepare the way for Christ and open our hearts in preparation for his visit, we can hear God's gentle voice calling us deep within. It beckons us to seek out its source and discover the inner calm and peace that can prevail over the darkness of despair. Sometimes our darkness is so dark that it may seem unsurmountable. Trusting in the spiritual friends who journey with us, and God's promise may bring a glimmer of light even when it is most difficult to keep our hearts' doors open. Sometimes, the only light in the darkness is found in trusting the faith of others both past and present.

We have to trust that God has already begun the accomplishment of good work in us and that humanity is on an incredible journey to something wonderful and awesome. God is not done. When we open the doors of our hearts, straighten the paths of our lives, and prepare the way, Jesus can come with God's simple gifts of peace, grace, and joy. Life throws a great deal at us. It is easy to get tired and confused. We have to train our hearts to keep watch, discern what is of value, and forge ahead. Not allowing ourselves to become so weighed down by things and brought out of focus is a tremendous goal to achieve this Advent season. God is knocking. Answer the door. You will see and understand life in ways you never thought possible before.

NEW YEAR'S EVE AND DAY RETREAT | December 31, 2021 - January 1, 2022 | Presented by Fr. Tom Zelinski

"When we do not know how to pray, the Spirit prays within us." (Romans 8:26-27) The turn of the year often stirs thoughts of reflection on our life journey. We will reflect on behaviors of our lives parallel the actions of God within us. We will do this by considering different "stories" that occur in our lives. Retreatants will be invited to look back over their own experiences of personal growth, spirituality, and life in the Church. This retreat is open to participants who are fully vaccinated at least two weeks prior to the event.

LEARNING TO LIVE AND LOVE BEYOND BIAS: Anti-Bias Training Workshops | Jan 25, Feb 1, Feb 8, Feb 15 | Tuesdays: 6:00 - 8:00pm | PRESENTED BY REV. CHRISTA FISCHER

Each of us is genetically and culturally predisposed to bias. Our ancient ancestors utilized bias to maintain the safety and preservation of their tribes; bias was integral to our country's justification of a free and enslaved labor force; bias enabled legalized segregation and Jim Crow laws; and our own unconscious bias perpetuates our alienation from each other and the fragmentation of our society.
