Sophia's Kitchen News

One year ago on March 23, Sophia's Kitchen did not open as usual. The COVID pandemic shut down stopped the world. In solitude, the Little Free Pantry was filled throughout the day so those who depend on Sophia's Kitchen would still have something to eat. As the days stretched into weeks, a few volunteers came back to help fill bags of groceries for a weekly pantry. As soon as we were able, skeleton crews came back to open our kitchen again. Vaccinations have started, and we look forward to one day being able to return to a full service. We've found support with other organizations as we work together to be sure no one goes hungry. We grieve the volunteers who can't yet return, and those who died from COVID-19.

We are so thankful to those who have been able to continue financially supporting our mission, but it's been a painful year in the checkbook. Fundraisers weren't able to be held, and that has affected our bottom line. If you would like to donate, checks can be mailed to Sophia's Kitchen, 504 Fulton St., Peoria, IL 61602, or online donations can be made either on Facebook, or at CatholicPeoria.com. It's time to begin again.

Snickers & Giggles
Lesson in Patience

A mother and her two sons were heading to the church's gathering space after Mass when the boys began arguing over who would be first in line to get a doughnut. Their mother saw the opportunity for a moral lesson.

"If Jesus were here," she told them, "he would say, 'Let my brother go first. I can wait.'"

The younger boy turned to his brother and said, "You be Jesus."

Stewardship

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When Our Own Hour Comes

We parents know that it's tricky, tackling the topic of fear with our kids. We want them to know that it's okay to be scared, that it's something we all feel from time to time. We want them to understand that bravery isn't the absence of fear, but the choices we make in persevering despite that feeling.

Most of all, we want to model the right kind of behavior for our kids. Whatever our scary situation is — illness, a job loss, life changes — we want them to see us make a choice to face that fear head-on.

Jesus seems to be the parent who is gently broaching the topic of fear with his children. A great sense of foreboding hangs over these readings. Jesus knew what was coming. He knew it was going to be hard, both for him and for his followers, who did not have his courage. Even he admits to being "troubled" and he speaks of "the time of judgment." There is the dramatic raising of Lazarus, the talk of how a grain of wheat must die in order to bear fruit, the depiction of Christ as an obedient student of his own suffering.

"Yet what should I say?" he asks them. "'Father, save me from this hour?' But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour."

This week, Christ gives us a very parental gift: He shows us his fear, and he shows us how to conquer it. He challenges us to embrace the purpose for which we came to this hour — whatever that hour may hold.

Question

Why Kneel?

Question:
Why do we kneel at Mass?

Answer:
Since the beginnings of the Church, kneeling has been a key posture of prayer. We see Sts. Peter and Paul in the Acts of the Apostles kneeling in prayer. Early in the 4th century, the Council of Nicea prohibited kneeling on Sundays and special feasts. Kneeling began more as a posture of penance for our sins, but in the history of the Church, it has become more a posture or reverence and solemn prayer.

You will notice that the times we kneel at Mass are tied to the consecration of the holy Eucharist. We kneel in both anticipation of what will occur and then in awe of what has taken place: Jesus Christ becomes truly present to us under the guise of bread and wine. The profoundness of this event has over time led the Church to mandate in the current General Instruction of the Roman Missal that kneeling is the only posture allowed during this time. The sheer awesomeness of the holy Eucharist leads us to fall to our knees in wonder and thanksgiving.

Spalding Scholarship & Peeps

Easter comes on Sunday, April 4. As we prepare for that glorious day, there is one thing we need to do: Look for Peeps, because, well, we need to get those Easter baskets ready. Last year, GASP, the company that makes Peeps said they couldn't make them during the pandemic. What?! But, thankfully, this year those delightful marshmallow (or whatever they are) treats are back. Yay!

"¡Lázaro, sal de allí!" Y salió el muerto, atados con vendas las manos y los pies, y la cara envuelta en un sudario" (Jn 11; 43)

Querida familia, la frase del Evangelio que elijo para reflexionar esta semana es: "¡Lázaro, sal de allí!" Y salió el muerto, atados con vendas las manos y los pies, y la cara envuelta en un sudario" . Hoy Jesús dice: "Lázaro, sal de ahí", es una orden a "un muerto" y Lázaro, amigo de Jesús– sale de la tumba caminando. ¡Que loco!. Pero nos estamos enfrentando a la realidad de la Voluntad de Dios que quiere que todos sus hijos se salven. Recordemos que Lázaro era amigo de Jesús y junto con sus hermanas (Marta y María) compartían mucho y la casa de ellos era un lugar para Jesús. Es por eso que hoy el mismo Jesús lloró cuando sabe de la muerte de Lázaro, claro, era su amigo. Hoy en la resurrección de Lázaro vemos la anticipación de nuestra Vida Eterna, lo que nuestro Padre del cielo a soñado para nosotros y lo seguirá haciendo porque quiere que todos nos salvemos, pero no lo puede hacer sin nosotros. Nos ama, pero no nos salvará sin nosotros. Hoy el "sal de allí" debe ser parte de la invitación de Dios para salir de la esclavitud de la muerte, la muerte que nos lleva al abismo de nuestras vidas en medio de tanta confusión. El "Sal de allí" debe ser para cada uno un imperativo que Jesús nos hace para volver a tener nuestro centro. Hoy en el Evangelio Jesús llora, llora porque su amigo había pasado por la muerte y Jesús que lo amaba con todo su corazón deja correr las lagrimas por su rostro, aun sabiendo que lo resucitaría. Jesús llora por nosotros cada vez que nos alejamos de Él. Sufre nuestra frialdad a la entrega que Él hizo por nosotros, y el grito que el nos hace: "Sal de allí", se transforma en vacío si no respondemos a su llamado. Dios siempre quiso que nosotros respondamos a Él, no porque el necesite de nuestra respuesta, si no porque es tanto el amor que el tiene por nosotros que no puede dejar de manifestar, en lagrimas, nuestra frialdad para con su regalo. ¿Qué podemos hacer?, ¿Cómo devolverle a Dios todo lo que nos regala?, simplemente estando con El, buscando un momento para estar es su presencia Eucarística, estando en gracia, luchando día a día para conservar mi Fe y solo dejándome abrazar por el Amor Eterno.

En este Evangelio una de las tentaciones es pensar que Jesús llega tarde, pero ¿Jesús llega tarde?, el Evangelio dice que ya habían pasado cuatro días de la muerte de Lázaro. ¿Jesús no era tan amigo de Lázaro como para dejarlo morir?, lo cierto es que "Dios jamás llega tarde", si algo sucede es porque Dios lo permite, muchas veces no querido directamente Dios deja que sucedan algunas cosas, para que luego se manifieste su poder sobre lo sucedido. Aquí estamos frente al poder de Dios que ordena todo de una forma increíble, muchas veces, incomprensible para nosotros, pero que son parte del camino providencial de Dios y suceden para Gloria de El. Aquí está la clave. Los tiempos de Dios son increíbles y el nunca llega tarde, jamás llega tarde pero responderá en el momento oportuno, cuando nosotros clamemos, El responderá. si nosotros no clamamos, Dios no responderá, este es el gran desafío al cual nos enfrentamos día a día. Tenemos que clamar a Dios y dejar que el nos resucite como a Lázaro de todas las resistencias que ponemos a los brazos que nos resucitan. Y recordemos, Dios jamás llega tarde, el responde en el momento justo y en un tiempo excelente para nosotros.

Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma. –Lecturas del Año A por los escrutinios a realizar-Jn. 11, 3-7. 17. 20-27. 33b-45

En aquel tiempo, Marta y María, las dos hermanas de Lázaro, le mandaron decir a Jesús: "Señor, el amigo a quien tanto quieres está enfermo". Al oír esto, Jesús dijo: "Esta enfermedad no acabará en la muerte, sino que servirá para la gloria de Dios, para que el Hijo de Dios sea glorificado por ella".

Jesús amaba a Marta, a su hermana y a Lázaro. Sin embargo, cuando se enteró de que Lázaro estaba enfermo, se detuvo dos días más en el lugar en que se hallaba. Después dijo a su discípulos: "Vayamos otra vez a Judea".

Cuando llegó Jesús, Lázaro llevaba ya cuatro días en el sepulcro. Apenas oyó Marta que Jesús llegaba, salió a su encuentro; pero María se quedó en casa. Le dijo Marta a Jesús: "Señor, si hubieras estado aquí, no habría muerto mi hermano. Pero aun ahora estoy segura de que Dios te concederá cuanto le pidas".

Jesús le dijo: "Tu hermano resucitará". Marta respondió: "Ya sé que resucitará en la resurrección del último día". Jesús le dijo: "Yo soy la resurrección y la vida. El que cree en mí, aunque haya muerto, vivirá; y todo aquel que está vivo y cree en mí, no morirá para siempre. ¿Crees tú esto?" Ella le contestó: "Sí, Señor. Creo firmemente que tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios, el que tenía que venir al mundo".

Jesús se conmovió hasta lo más hondo y preguntó: "¿Dónde lo han puesto?" Le contestaron: "Ven, Señor, y lo verás". Jesús se puso a llorar y los judíos comentaban: "De veras ¡cuánto lo amaba!" Algunos decían: "¿No podía éste, que abrió los ojos al ciego de nacimiento, hacer que Lázaro no muriera?"

Jesús, profundamente conmovido todavía, se detuvo ante el sepulcro, que era una cueva, sellada con una losa. Entonces dijo Jesús: "Quiten la losa". Pero Marta, la hermana del que había muerto, le replicó: "Señor, ya huele mal, porque lleva cuatro días". Le dijo Jesús: "¿No te he dicho que si crees, verás la gloria de Dios?" Entonces quitaron la piedra.

Jesús levantó los ojos a lo alto y dijo: "Padre, te doy gracias porque me has escuchado. Yo ya sabía que tú siempre me escuchas; pero lo he dicho a causa de esta muchedumbre que me rodea, para que crean que tú me has enviado". Luego gritó con voz potente: "¡Lázaro, sal de allí!" Y salió el muerto, atados con vendas las manos y los pies, y la cara envuelta en un sudario. Jesús les dijo: "Desátenlo, para que pueda andar".

Muchos de los judíos que habían ido a casa de Marta y María, al ver lo que había hecho Jesús, creyeron en él.

PRAYER TO ST JOSEPH

Joseph, strong and gentle saint, dear to God and his faithful shadow, remember me in all my spiritual and material needs. Be my advocate before the Father.

To you I bring my heart and soul and all my longings, sanctify them with your burning faith, your unfaltering hope, and with that great, self-sacrificing love that was the secret of your hidden sanctity.

Christ was your peace: give Him to my heart, then by his light I will see the way that I must walk to stay with Him. Give me the courage not to turn back because of darkness, sorrow, or sufferings.

Teach me the joy of loving God's Will, and help me to live, as you have done, within its calm and peaceful depths. Amen.
