He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled ... You are witnesses of these things." - Lk 24:44, 48

Después les dijo: "Lo que ha sucedido es aquello de que les hablaba yo, cuando aún estaba con ustedes: que tenía que cumplirse todo lo que estaba escrito de mí en la ley de Moisés, en los profetas y en los salmos ... Ustedes son testigos de esto". - Lc 24, 44, 48

PRAY THE ROSARY
REZA EL ROSARIO

3rd Sunday of Easter

We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively, and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented. Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News.

3er Domingo de Pascua

Ser testigos del Evangelio es el pedido de Jesús en este tercer Domingo de Pascua. ¿Qué significa esto? ¿Cómo hacerlo? De hecho, no es sencillo este pedido, ya que implica la propia vida de cada persona. Por esa razón los apóstoles al ver a Jesús, quedaron atónitos y asustados. Comprometerse con el Evangelio asusta, e implica un cambio radical del modo de vivir y de comportarse. Para lograr esto, el Señor insiste al presentarse ante ellos y darles el saludo de paz. Ya lo decíamos en el domingo anterior, la paz de Cristo quita cualquier susto y miedo. ¿Has experimentado esa paz? ¿Qué sentimientos afloran en tu corazón al tenerla?

El Papa Francisco insiste en: "Ser testigos de Cristo donde estamos, con una nueva vida transformada por su amor". (Angelus 6-1-2020). Continúa diciendo el Papa: "La experiencia de Dios no nos bloquea, sino que nos libera; no nos aprisiona, sino que nos pone de nuevo en el camino, nos devuelve a los lugares habituales de nuestra existencia. Los lugares son y serán los mismos, pero nosotros, después del encuentro con Jesús, no somos los mismos de antes. El encuentro con Jesús nos cambia, nos transforma. Toda experiencia del encuentro con Jesús nos induce a emprender caminos diferentes, porque de Él proviene una buena fuerza que sana el corazón y nos separa del mal". Esto es ser testigo de la Resurrección. Que, de discípulos asustados, seamos discípulos alegres y generosos en cualquier lugar y circunstancia, como nos lo indica el Papa Francisco.

Nebraska Kids Need You: Urge Your Senator to Support LB364!

The Opportunity Scholarships Act (LB364) will soon be debated by the Nebraska Legislature, and Senators need to hear from you! LB364 increases scholarship opportunities for low-income families to attend the private school of their choice by enacting a tax credit for donations to nonprofit scholarship granting organizations.

There are many families in your community and across the state who want the choice to send their kids to private or parochial school, but can't because of financial obstacles. LB364 would help to transform the lives of students and families in Nebraska. As Catholics, we believe that parents have the right to choose a school for their children which corresponds to their own convictions and should have true liberty in their choice of schools. LB364 would give parents the freedom to choose faith-based education if they so desire.

Please consider contacting your state senator to personally convey why private or parochial education was the best fit for your child or to simply encourage them to support opportunity scholarships (LB364). For more information or to contact your senator visit this site: https://www.votervoice.net/NECATHOLIC/Campaigns/83801/Respond

Los niños de Nebraska lo necesitan: ¡Inste a su senador a apoyar a LB364!

La Ley de oportunidad de becas (LB364) pronto será debatido por la Legislatura de Nebraska, y los senadores necesitan saber de usted! LB364 aumenta las oportunidades de becas para que las familias de bajos ingresos asistan a la escuela privada de su elección mediante la promulgación de un crédito fiscal para donaciones a organizaciones de concesión de becas sin fines de lucro.

Hay muchas familias en su comunidad y en todo el estado que quieren la opción de enviar a sus hijos a la escuela privada o parroquial, pero no pueden debido a obstáculos financieros. LB364 ayudaría a transformar la vida de los estudiantes y las familias en Nebraska. Como católicos, creemos que los padres tienen derecho a elegir una escuela para sus hijos que corresponda a sus propias convicciones y debe tener verdadera libertad en su elección de escuelas. LB364 daría a los padres la libertad de elegir la educación basada en la fe si así lo desean.

Por favor considere ponerse en contacto con su senador estatal para transmitir personalmente por qué la educación privada o parroquial era la más adecuada para su hijo o simplemente alentarlos a apoyar becas de oportunidad (LB364). Para obtener más información o para ponerse en contacto con su senador visite este sitio: https://www.votervoice.net/NECATHOLIC/Campaigns/83801/Respond

How to Fail Your Way to Heaven

You know what are some of my favorite moments in Scripture? The little "Easter eggs" of Jesus' humanity, things like Jesus falling asleep, Jesus drawing in the sand, Jesus playing with kids. And how about Jesus rising from the dead, appearing to his disciples and saying, "So, have you got anything to eat?"

It's right for us to always keep in mind that Jesus is God. But we also have to remember that he was man. He got hungry. He cried when he felt sad and laughed when he felt happy. He got tired. He got bored.

Because he was God, none of those feelings ever led him into sin, like they do us. He never spent a car ride trying to pass the hours by seeing how annoyed he could make his older sister. He never smacked Peter over the head for saying something really stupid. But he did unleash some Biblically righteous anger on those traders in the temple, didn't he? And he wasn't shy about calling Peter "a Satan" when his friend tempted him to take the easy way out.

It's the tightrope walk we all try to balance every day, honoring our human emotions while still answering God's call to be better. Being perfect isn't the domain of the Christian — that's the domain of Christ only. Trying and failing, then trying again (and failing again) and again and again? That's the domain of the Christian.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Cómo Fallar En Tu Camino al Cielo

¿Sabes cuáles son algunos de mis momentos favoritos en las Escrituras? Los pequeños "huevos de Pascua" de la humanidad de Jesús, cosas como Jesús durmiendo, Jesús dibujando en la arena, Jesús jugando con niños. ¿Y qué hay de Jesús resucitando de entre los muertos, apareciendo a sus discípulos y diciendo: "Entonces, ¿tienen algo de comer?"

Es correcto que tengamos siempre presente que Jesús es Dios. Pero también tenemos que recordar que Él era un hombre. Le dio hambre. Lloraba cuando se sentía triste y reía cuando se sentía feliz. Se cansó. Se aburrió.

Debido a que Él era Dios, ninguno de esos sentimientos lo llevó a pecar, como a nosotros. Nunca pasó un viaje en auto tratando de pasar las horas viendo cuanto podía hacer molestar a su hermana mayor. Nunca golpeó a Pedro en la cabeza por decir algo realmente estúpido. Pero él desató un poco de ira bíblicamente justa sobre esos comerciantes en el templo, ¿no es así? Y no tuvo reparos en llamar a Pedro "un satanás" cuando su amigo lo tentó a tomar el camino más fácil.

Es la caminata por la cuerda floja que todos tratamos de equilibrar todos los días, honrando nuestras emociones humanas mientras seguimos respondiendo al llamado de Dios para ser mejores. Ser perfecto no es el dominio del cristiano, ese es el dominio únicamente de Cristo. ¿Intentar y fallar, luego intentarlo de nuevo (y fallar nuevamente) una y otra vez? Ese es el dominio del cristiano.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
