OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

From the Pastor

The Name of Jesus

Every Christian should exalt the most Holy name of Jesus, our Savior, and Redeemer. This is the sacred name announced by the angle Gabriel to both Mary and Joseph, given by God Himself. "Thou shalt call His name Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins" (Mt 1:22). Man can be saved only by the name of Jesus, "For there is no other name under heaven whereby we must be saved" (Act 4:8-12).

Jesus is the mediator between God and man. He is the mediator because He is the true God, and at the same time a true man. These two natures are not merely juxtaposition, but they embrace each other, united in one person of the word Incarnate, Jesus Christ. He is the image of the invisible God. He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Let our prayer be, "Imprint Your name on my heart and mind, so that we may always love You".

St. Joseph the Worker Committee

Will be working on Tuesday, February 9 from 9:00AM-11:30AM. Your help is always appreciated whether you can work all or part of this time. Thank You!

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. - Mk 1:32-34

Liturgy & Music Notes from Jan

Lent will begin on Ash Wednesday, on February 17, and the deadline to bring your blessed palms to be burned is next Sunday, February 14.

Another note about Ash Wednesday— on that day we will resume receiving Communion at its correct time during the Mass. We will then need two Eucharistic ministers (in addition to Fr. Louis) at each Mass. Instructions will be emailed to all Eucharistic ministers.

Stations of the Cross will be held during Lent on Tuesday evenings (after our Lenten 6:00PM Mass), after 8:45AM Mass on Wednesday (children's format, led by the school), and on Thursday after 8:45AM Mass. We will be using a new Stations booklet called "Mary's Way of the Cross". If you'd like to have your own Stations prayer booklet, please see Tracy in the office or Jan after a weekend Mass. A donation of $2 is appreciated.

Next Sunday's bulletin will include an insert with all of our Lenten opportunities for prayer. It will also be posted on the parish website and Facebook page. In response to requests, an extra Mass will be added on Tuesday's at 6:00PM, followed by Stations of the Cross—for people who work during the day. Please help to share the word.

Call the office at 453-2878 to register, noting if you would prefer a morning, afternoon or evening session. Books have been ordered, and a $15 donation towards the cost of the book is greatly appreciated.

From the Parish Nurse

Mental health problems are similar to other health problems, some can be prevented, others will go away on their own with a little care and home treatment, and some need professional attention. Because mental health problems have both physical and psychological causes, both self-care and professional care are often needed. It is a good idea to seek professional help when:

- A symptom becomes severe or disruptive.
- A disruptive symptom becomes a continuous or permanent pattern of behavior and does not respond to self-care efforts.
- Symptoms become numerous and affect all areas of your life and do not respond to self-care or communication efforts.
- You are thinking of suicide.

There is a wide range of professional and lay resources to choose from for help:

- Your family doctor can review your medical history and medications for clues, provide counseling, prescribe medications or refer you to other resources.
- Psychiatrists are medical doctors who specialize in mental disorders. They also counsel patients, prescribe medications and order other treatments.
- Psychologists, social workers and counselors receive special training in helping people deal with mental health problems. They help patients identify, understand and work through disturbing thoughts and emotions.
- Pastors are often sought out for counseling and advice in times of emotional distress. Many pastors have formal training in counseling, many do not.
- Support groups offer the time to talk with others who are coping with the same problems.

How do you find the right therapist? Ask!!! Ask people you trust for a good referral or ask a health professional to help you identify the real problem and develop a self-management plan to resolve it. Ask about group therapy options, cultivate special friends, join a support group or look for peer counseling opportunities. Understanding and acceptance can help you resolve the problem.

May God Bless You, "To the world you might be one person, but to one person you just might be the world" (Unknown).

2021-2022 Registration

Open registration for the 2021-2022 School Year begins on Monday, February 15. If you are interested or know someone who is interested in finding out more about enrolling at St. Mary's School, please call the school office for information. Many of our classes still have room for the next school year.

Catholic Schools Week A Huge Success

Our school had a wonderful Catholic Schools Week celebration last week. From the kick-off Mass on Saturday all the way through Friday, we enjoyed celebrating what makes our school special. Although the events may have looked a little different this year, we still had a lot of fun. Check out our Facebook page for pictures of some of our events. Thank you to everyone who supports our school financially, volunteers or prays for us. The great things that happen at our school would not be possible without the parishioners in our cluster!

Ancestor Projects

Our 4th and 5th graders are studying Wisconsin history. As part of their studies, they researched what brought each of their families to our beautiful state and they created some pretty incredible presentations.

Reflection

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If I only knew then what I know now, how different life would be. This sentiment, expressed in myriad ways, is found on every human being's lips at one point or another. Life may have brought us to a vulnerable place where we see some of the poor choices we made and the effects they are having. Perhaps we fell into some destructive and dysfunctional relationships or behaviors and are finding how they held us captive. Our zeal and passion for life may have drifted away and we are waking up to the reasons apathy has taken hold. Life can be hard. In fact, some would describe their lives as a drudgery. They walk through each day with an anxious unsettledness, wondering when their restlessness will cease. There is a temptation to believe that what I see is all I will get. Mortality and hopelessness await the dawn. If I could only have known what would come in the future, I could have made better choices and avoided all of this misery!

Really? While we can certainly give into weakness, sin, impulsiveness, and idiosyncrasies that cause us to stumble over ourselves, life is really a journey. If we don't make the mistake of wallowing in the mire of self-pity and realize the new life God is calling us to, then there are thrills, adventures, surprises, and soul-searching graces we can surely miss. We are not tethered to our past nor are we bound to the ills life can bring upon us. We are never hopeless or helpless. The problem is that our myopic vision only allows us to see the misery and misfortune that is before us, not the potential that can come from choosing healthier and more life-giving options. Jesus came that we might have fullness of life. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet.

We need to allow God into our pain and heal our past. We have to wrestle with our histories, agonize and search and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope and love. Job could not see how his story would end or trust the guidance of the God who called him. We live in that same blindness and suffer from the same lack of confidence. Once we allow ourselves to be touched by God's healing power, we begin to see that all of the pieces of our lives are necessary parts of a greater whole. Along the way of our lives, God uses our omissions and failures to create new things and possibilities. When doors close, others open and we can be amazed by the joyful and unexpected surprises we receive. Once we know the power of God's creative, healing, life-giving, forgiving, and dynamic presence, it is no wonder we want to put ourselves at the service of others and show them what life can be.
