Gloria
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory.
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

1st Reading Ez 17:22-24
Thus says the Lord GOD: I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar, from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot, and plant it on a high and lofty mountain; on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it. It shall put forth branches and bear fruit, and become a majestic cedar. Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it, every winged thing in the shade of its boughs. And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom. As I, the LORD, have spoken, so will I do.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 92:2-3, 13-14, 15-16
R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

2nd Reading 2 Cor 5:6-10
Brothers and sisters: We are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

Gospel Mk 4:26-34
Jesus said to the crowds: “This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come.” He said, “To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade.” With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

The Nicene Creed
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
[bow]
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

For Your Marriage

"We walk by faith, not by sight." (2 Cor 5:7)
How is your faith these days? St. Paul reminds us that at the heart of the Christian faith is trust, even when we can't see the road ahead. Pray with your spouse for that kind of faith today.

Family Matters

That all families embrace the faith of the sower and the hope of the mustard seed, willingly planting "seeds" of gospel hope and compassion resulting in the rich harvest of God's life and love, we pray to the Lord:

OTHER AREA EVENTS:

The Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus happens/happened on June 11th. It not only happens on a particular day it is something we should celebrate all month. When we hear the name, "Most Sacred Heart of Jesus," most of us probably think of the image where Jesus stands with his heart, burning with joy and love for us, exposed to all. Many of us probably don't think any deeper about this image, and yet we are called to more. Pope Francis said in one of his homilies, "It is more difficult to let God love us than to love Him! The best way to love Him in return is to open our hearts and let Him love us." Every time we see these images we are reminded to open ourselves to the love of Christ and give ourselves completely over to him as he does for us. He lays his heart open before us as an example of how we should live our lives.

Please join me in praying this prayer to the Sacred Heart all throughout the month of June.
Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus
I. O my Jesus, you have said: 'Truly I say to you, ask and you will receive, seek and you will find, knock and it will be opened to you. ' Behold I knock, I seek and ask for the grace of..... (here name your request) Our Father... . Hail Mary... . Glory Be to the Father... .
Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.
II. O my Jesus, you have said: 'Truly I say to you, if you ask anything of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. ' Behold, in your name, I ask the Father for the grace of..... . (here name your request) Our Father... Hail Mary... . Glory Be To the Father... .
Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.
III. O my Jesus, you have said: 'Truly I say to you, heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away. ' Encouraged by your infallible words I now ask for the grace of... . . (here name your request) Our Father... . Hail Mary... . Glory Be to the Father...
Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.
O Sacred Heart of Jesus, for whom it is impossible not to have compassion on the afflicted, have pity on us sinners and grant us the grace which we ask of you, through the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, your tender Mother and ours.
Say the Hail, Holy Queen and add: St. Joseph, foster father of Jesus, pray for us.
-- St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

Who is involved in preparing people for the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist? What would we say? As St. Peter reminds us, "Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope" (1 Peter 3:15). Beginning with the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens and continuing all the way to the Mass with the Neophytes, we can support those preparing for Baptism or full communion by participating fully, consciously, and actively in the rites and prayers the Church offers for them. But there is more. If we let our minds wander during the Rite of Acceptance, we might miss a very important question: the priest asks the entire assembly ("all who are gathered here with us"), "Are you . . . ready to help these candidates find and follow Christ?" (RCIA, 53). We answer that question not just with the simple words, "We are," but by praying for those in preparation for Baptism, even if we do not know their names, and by reaching out to them in other ways—dropping a note, saying hello, stopping for conversation.
