October is the month of the Rosary

October is Respect Life month. Please join us Thursdays at 7:30 AM (or at home if you are unable to attend) as we pray for the protection of the unborn and the dignity of all.

The Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 17

Today we hear Jesus ask James and John, "What do you wish me to do for you?" Their response betrays their self-centeredness. We ought to remind ourselves that what Jesus has already done for us exceeds all we could possibly ask. Rather than following the example of these two disciples, let us look to the author of the Hebrews, who called us to approach Jesus to receive mercy and to find grace. Let us do so as we receive him in the Eucharist.

-Pastoral Patterns Autumn - 2021

First Reading

Isaiah 53:10-11

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity.

If he gives his life as an offering for sin,
he shall see his descendants in a long life,
and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

Because of his affliction
he shall see the light in fulness of days;
through his suffering, my servant shall justify many,
and their guilt he shall bear.

Second Reading

Hebrews 4:14-16

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Brothers and sisters:
Since we have a high priest who has passed through the heavens,
Jesus, the Son of God,
let us hold fast to our confession.
For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way,
yet without sin.
So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Gospel Reading

Mark 10:35-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him,
"Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."
He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?"
They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."
Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking.
Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?"
They said to him, "We can."
Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized;
but to sit at my right or my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared."
When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John.
[Jesus summoned them and said to them,
"You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles
lord it over them,
and their great ones make their authority over them felt.
But it shall not be so among you.
Rather whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant;
whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.
For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."]

[Shorter: Mark 10:42-45 (see brackets)]

Bible Study Questions Jesus Asks

Join us for a Threshold Bible Study, Questions Jesus Asks written by Stephen Binz and facilitated by Terri Schiller. Terri has led Bible studies for over 20 years in area parishes.

One of the most striking characteristics of Jesus' ministry is the way he continually asks questions of those he encounters. From the simple, "How many loaves do you have?" to the challenging, "Could you not stay awake with me one hour?" and to one that inspires inward searching, "Who do you say that I am?", each chapter invites us to new ways of encountering Jesus in the gospel, to better understand who he was for his original disciples and who he is for us today.

The scripture study will be held on Wednesday, November 10, 17, 24, December 1, 8, 15 from 9:00 – 10:30AM at Holy Trinity (location TBD). To register please call Katie at the Parish Office (262) 675-6256 or stop in the Narthex to sign-up.

GOSPEL MEDITATION Encourage a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.

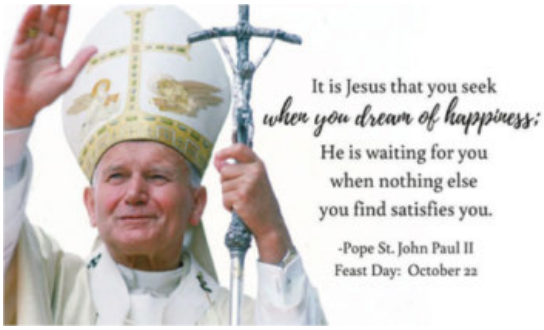
SAINT JOHN PAUL II Feast Day October 22



St. John Paul II was born Karol Wojtyla in the small Polish town of Wadowice. During World War II, when the Nazis invaded Poland, Karol secretly studied for the priesthood in an underground seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1946, appointed Archbishop of Krakow in 1964, and three years later he was made a cardinal. In 1978, he was elected the 264th pope, where he took the name John Paul II.

St. John Paul II made evangelization a key part of his papacy and made pastoral visits to all parts of the world. In 1981, he was shot twice in an assassination attempt. Following Jesus' example of compassion, he later met with his would-be assassin in his prison cell, where he forgave him for what he had done.

St. John Paul II was well-known to be an active sportsman throughout his life, hiking and skiing well into his 60s. In 1992, his health began to decline, and it was later discovered that he suffered from Parkinson's disease, a degenerative disorder of the central nervous system.

Near the end of his papacy, it became difficult for him to speak, and his poor health and physical suffering made public appearances difficult. Still, he continued his pastoral work. He died April 2, 2005, and he was declared blessed on May 1, 2011. He became a saint on April 27, 2014.
