Pastor's Corner

"The quality of mercy is not strained: It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven upon the place beneath. It is twice blest: It blesseth him that gives and him that takes."
(William Shakespeare, The Merchant of Venice)

Dear Friends,

When Jesus appears after the Resurrection, the first word is PEACE and and the first action is pointing to his wounds. On this Divine Mercy Sunday, both word and action give wonderful witness that the divine plan for broken humanity is mercy.

How can we not acknowledge after the kind of year we have had that healing mercy is absolutely necessary, not only in the many ways we need to be healed, but also in the may ways we are called to be healers. The great spiritual writer Henri Nouwen wrote a powerful book called The Wounded Healer, a wonderful challenge to all of us, wounded each in our own way, but empowered by Christ to bring amazing healing.

Have a blessed healing week—both in word and action. Blessed be the Wounded Healer!

Sincerely, with love,

Fr. Tim

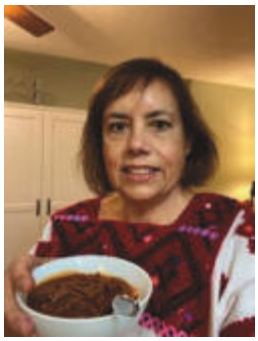
Global Solidarity - Sister Parish News

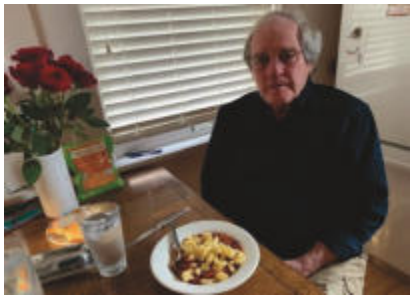
Padibe, Uganda

Deacon Gary and his wife, Dr. Cindy, recently spent three weeks at Three Holy Women's sister parish in Padibe, Uganda. Among their many adventures, they had a chance to visit one of the cassava farms that Three Holy Women parishioners helped to support. There are now 85 acres of cassava being grown by various farmers in the Padibe community. The plants are resistant to drought, floods and locusts and have brought food security to many of our brothers and sisters in Uganda. The cassava project joins our education program, the medical clinic and the sun flower press in making a big difference in Padibe. Three Holy Women's Global Solidarity Committee thanks you for your continued support.

Chiapas, Mexico

Thank you to everyone who participated in this year's Virtual Chili Cook-off! Enjoy these wonderful pictures of people enjoying some good chili to benefit our sister parish in Chiapas!! If you'd like to support the ministry in Chiapas, please either write a check out to SS Peter & Paul Parish and put "Chiapas" in the memo line, or use this convenient link for online giving: https://spof-mke.givingfuel.com/parroquia-de-san-ildefonso-chiapas





Pastoral Care

Grief Work Series

The loss of a loved one forever changes our world. We find ourselves in a new environment both personally and socially. An ending has occurred that demands a new beginning. Before this can happen, though, a period of transition has to take place. While working through the third task of mourning, we need to examine closely what has been lost and what has been gained as a consequence of our loss. What experiences, roles, expectations, values, opportunities and dreams are to be abandoned? What new ones are to be assumed?

Where Can I Find Healing?

Prayer: O God, above us and within us, look upon me with loving tenderness. I am bent over with the pain from my loss. It never seems to stop. Grant me, I pray, the strength to reach out to you. I know you'll reach out to me.

With my whole heart, I cry; answer me, O Lord. Psalm 119:145

Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years; and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one could cure her. She came up behind [Jesus] and touched the fringe of his clothes, and immediately her hemorrhage stopped. Then Jesus said, "Who touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds surround you and press in on you." But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; for I noticed that power had gone out of me." When the woman saw that she could not remain hidden, she came trembling. Luke 8:43-47

Reflection: It's difficult to remember, but I was once emotionally healthy and whole. Life wasn't perfect, but I was in control and could handle the problems that came my way. I was confident in my ability to judge situations and work out reasonable solutions.

Now, since my loved one has died, it seems I can't do anything right. Somehow my "wholeness" has been drained. My cherished one was an intricate part of my daily life, and that is no longer true; I feel cut in half, inadequate, at a loss.

I yearn to be well again, to resume the life I knew before. I seem to have few options left and yet there is something I can choose to do. I can, as the woman in the Scripture story, reach out and ask for support. Will I find that difficult? I know I will! Just like the suffering woman, I may tremble at the thought of asking for help. But just reaching out may be a first step toward healing.

Questions: What kind of healing do I feel I need at this time? Who can I ask to help me?

Closing Prayer: Jesus, you sensed the pain of the woman who was hemorrhaging just by the way she touched you. Help me in my pain to reach out and touch you. Heal me, Lord; heal me.

It is in the quiet of your heart that God's healing grace will be felt. God will be with you on your journey from grief to healing. Please contact Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care, if you need assistance at 469-6173 or tbalash@ffpmke.org

Creating Memories and Goals

Family Ministry

What is SPRED?

SPRED (Special Religious Development) is a small faith community which includes children or adults with special needs. SPRED integrates people with developmental disabilities more fully into the mainstream parish life: it offers faith formation, gives volunteer parishioners an inviting place and opportunity to connect with persons with disabilities, and offers ways to more fully include persons with disabilities into the liturgy. The SPRED method creates an awareness of God while giving our SPRED friends a sense that they are loved by God and are persons of honor and dignity.

We are grateful to have a SPRED community at Our Lady of Divine Providence, SS Peter & Paul, and Three Holy Women. Throughout this past year our SPRED friends have still been able to meet through Zoom gatherings every single month, thanks to the dedicated SPRED volunteers for their creativity and perseverance throughout this pandemic.

If you are interested in learning more about becoming a trained SPRED volunteer, please contact Anh Clausen, Director of Family Ministry and Religious Formation, at aclausen@ffpmke.org.

Parents & expecting parents: Congratulations!

We would like to help you celebrate the new life in your family as we welcome your child into our family of faith through the Sacrament of Baptism. First time parents are invited to register for our next Baptism Preparation class, which will be held on Monday, April 26 from 7:00-8:00 pm on Zoom. Please use the following link: www.tinyurl.com/baptismprep and sign up by Sunday, April 25. If you want more information or have any questions, please contact Anh Clausen at aclausen@ffpmke.org.

The annual Mass of Atonement will be held on Thursday, April 15 at 6:00 pm at St Monica Parish (5681 N Santa Monica Blvd, Whitefish Bay). This Mass is one of the ways that the current leadership of the Archdiocese publicly atones for the clergy abuse crisis and scandal. Mass will be available for in-person attendance and will be live-streamed. We invite you to join us in support of the survivors, family members and communities who have spoken or unspoken stories of survival and pain.
If you are unable to attend, we would ask that you please remember all those who suffer from the wounds of abuse in your prayers for peace, healing and justice.
Please visit www.archmil.org for more information.

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic @Home with Jon M. Sweeney

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic offers women and men of all ages a casual opportunity to explore the Catholic faith. We hope to provide space for intellectual, relational and spiritual growth as well as some real community building. Our hope is that at the end of each evening, individuals not only know more but are inspired and empowered too. The format ranges from speakers and group discussion to movies and music. On Wednesday, April 14 at 7:00 pm, we will welcome author and parishioner, Jon M. Sweeney. Jon will discuss his new book, Nicholas Black Elk: Medicine Man, Catechist, Saint, in light of our theme, "From Social Distance to Encounter." To RSVP, contact Chad Griesel at cgriesel@ffpmke.org.

Becoming Catholic

Every year adults are welcomed into the Catholic Church through the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA). RCIA invites those who have never been baptized, those who may have been baptized in another Christian tradition, and those who were baptized Catholic but have not received the sacraments of first Holy Communion or Confirmation. Please pray for all those who were baptized and received into the Church as they continue to celebrate and live out the faith they professed at Easter!

This week, the group is exploring Catholic Social Teaching:

"Our moral framework does not easily fit the categories of right or left, Democrat or Republican. Our responsibility is to measure every party and platform by how its agenda touches human life and dignity." (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in Faithful Citizenship)

If you or someone you know is interested in exploring the process of becoming Catholic, please contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, for more information at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6180.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

On the first and third Mondays of each month, we invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and who God is calling us to be. For further information, contact Chad Griesel, Pastoral Associate of Formation and Justice, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6180.

Love Thy Neighbor

Please join our Family of Four parishes on Tuesday, April 27 at 6:30 pm for a virtual discussion hosted by our Racial Justice & Healing Committee. We ask participants to watch "Race: The Power of an Illusion: Episode 2 - The Story We Tell" before we gather. A free link to the video will be shared a week before the session. Parish facilitators will lead the conversation, with opportunities for both large and small group discussion. Come, join your fellow parish members in learning and praying about the history of racism in our country.

Please email Laura Hancock at lhancock@ffpmke.org by Friday, April 23 to receive the Zoom information.

St. Vincent De Paul
Serving those in Need

During the Month of March, through your gifts, the Six Saints Society of St. Vincent DePaul was able to bring the mercy of Jesus into the hearts of the poor by assisting 27 families, providing 19 full beds and 22 twin beds, where they had been sleeping on floors. We also provided 7 stoves and 6 refrigerators, 18 sofas and dressers, and baby clothes for two newborns. We will also be helping two families that were displaced by the large fire in January at 29th and Burnham that displaced over 100 families. We will be helping with rent, household items and furniture. Our District Office is coordinating this with the Red Cross. Thanks for all that you do to help those in need in our community.

For more information about our Conference or to donate, please call Laurie Jacobs at 815-861-4645.

Community Ministry Connection

April's Community Ministry Connection is our very own Hospitality Center at St. Hedwig! This ministry center has been open since 2005, providing a safe space on Friday morning for neighbors of the Brady Street area to come in to enjoy a meal, some conversation and prayer. Neighbors are also able to access some basic services through our community nurse, as well as our food and clothing closets. After a break for the pandemic winter, we are very happy to be re-opening this week! Our neighbors often ask us for the following hygiene items: body wash, body lotion and individually wrapped rolls of toilet paper. If you're able to donate these items, please drop them off at the Three Holy Women Parish Office (1716 N Humboldt Ave) during our current business hours … or have them shipped to the parish office from your favorite online store!

Thank you!
