ORACION PARA PEDIR POR LLUVIA

Tú, Padre Bueno, que haces brillar el Sol sobre todos y haces caer la lluvia, ten compasión de cuantos sufren durante la sequía en estos días.

Haz que caiga del cielo sobre la tierra árida, la lluvia tan deseada, para que renazcan los frutos y se salven los seres humanos y los animales.

Que la lluvia sea para nosotros el signo de tu gracia y bendición.

Por Jesucristo, Tu Hijo, que nos ha revelado tu amor,
Fuente de Agua Viva que brota hasta la vida eterna. Amén.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

There's an ordinary pine grove located on a tree farm not too far from town where life's stresses and demands seem to melt away. It is here that all that seemed so important out there no longer is and one can get lost in the rows of trees and majestic beauty. God is here and all is good. We need to connect with the Divine Source of all that is in order to understand what it is we are doing and why we are doing it. Otherwise, things stop making sense and bitterness can overcome one's spirit. It's okay to play once in a while and to discover that place of profound life and peace. People always have needs and there is constantly something to do. And while all of that is necessary and we are needed, there is also that inner solitude within that needs to be celebrated and released. We all need a pine grove. It's that little place we can go and leave all that consumes us behind. It's a place where technology can be set aside and wonder, and awe given some time. We don't have to text, calculate, or orchestrate anything in the pine grove. It is a somewhat deserted place where all of that can be set aside and we can just be. The anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and occasional apathy, all can fall to the ground like all of those pine needles that once held their place on the branch of a Frasier Fir. The needles can let go. We can let go. We are beings connected with Being and we all need to remember what really matters, who really matters and what life is truly all about. We need to find that place where we can rest and let go of all of the barnacles we accumulate. Rest, breathe, seek, and love. The world will need us again when we leave the pine grove. It will all be waiting for us, beckoning for our attention. But we will have prayed and will have marveled at the silence and the beauty of goodness. We can go back, ready, and eager to listen, to help, to heal, to cry, to embrace, and attend to all that is asked of us. But, having let go of the distractions in that deserted place we will have a renewed sense of purpose. We will know better Who it is we serve and what we are meant to do. It will all be clearer now that we have been Divinely touched and refreshed.

REFLEXION BIBLICA

Meditación del Papa Francisco.

El Evangelio de hoy nos dice que los apóstoles después de la experiencia de la misión, están contentos pero cansados. Y Jesús lleno de comprensión quiere darles un poco de alivio. Entonces les lleva a aparte, un lugar apartado para que puedan reposarse un poco. "Muchos entretanto los vieron partir y entendieron... y los anticiparon". Y a este punto el evangelista nos ofrece una imagen de Jesús de particular intensidad, 'fotografiando' por así decir sus ojos y recogiendo los sentimientos de su corazón. Dice así el evangelista: "Al desembarcar, Jesús vio una gran muchedumbre y se compadeció de ella, porque eran como ovejas sin pastor, y estuvo enseñándoles largo rato".

Retomemos los tres verbos de este sugestivo fotograma: ver, tener compasión, enseñar. Los podemos llamar los "verbos del Pastor". El primero y el segundo están siempre asociados a la actitud de Jesús: de hecho su mirada no es la de un sociólogo o la de un fotoreporter, porque Él mira siempre "con los ojos de corazón". Estos dos verbos: "ver" y "tener compasión", configuran a Jesús como el Buen Pastor. También su compasión no es solo un sentimiento humano, pero es la conmoción del Mesías en la que se hizo carne la ternura de Dios. Y de esta compasión nace el deseo de Jesús de nutrir a la multitud con el pan de su palabra. O sea, enseñar la palabra de Dios a la gente. Jesús ve; Jesús tiene compasión; Jesús enseña. ¡Que bello es esto! (S.S. Francisco, Angelus del 19 de julio de 2015).
