This weekend we celebrate the 2nd Sunday of Easter, known as Divine Mercy Sunday since the proclamation by St. Pope John Paul II on April 30, 2000 during his homily at the canonization Mass for St. Maria Faustina Kowalska. She was the Polish nun who recorded apparitions and messages received from Jesus in the 1930s in her Diary. God wants us to understand that no matter what we have done, no matter how far away from Him we have strayed, He wants us to return to Him, to rely on His constant love and forgiveness. Pope Francis has expressed the importance of recognizing God's infinite mercy, telling us that now more than ever is the time for us to receive, to live, and to share that mercy. We can do that by immersing ourselves in the Scriptures (particularly the Gospels), by learning more about the writings of St. Faustina and the devotion of Divine Mercy (see, for example www.thedivinemercy.org and praydivinemercy.com.), and by frequent reception of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation. May we continue to grow in our understanding of God's mercy and learn to be merciful with one another. Jesus, we trust in you!

THE YEAR OF ST JOSEPH December 8-2020- December 8, 2021

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
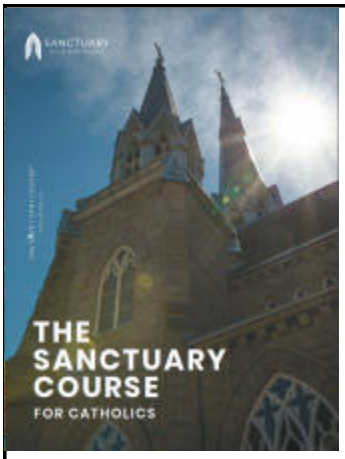
To you God entrusted
his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.
Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy
and courage,
and defend us from every evil.
Amen.



INVITING ALL PARISHIONERS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE Sanctuary Course for Catholics

Sundays
6:30pm-8:30pm
April 11—June 6, 2021

One in four people will be affected by a mental health problem at some point in their lives, yet the stigma surrounding mental illness silences many and prevents faith communities from responding compassionately and effectively. This eight-session course—designed for use in small groups— explores the realities of mental health and illness, as well as the vital need for faith-based community conversations about these topics. The sessions are accompanied by compelling films that feature the stories of Catholics living with mental health challenges, along with the insights of archbishops, theologians, and psychologists.

This course will be facilitated by Monica Rodrigues and Catherine Tangen.
There is no cost.

If you are interested in participating in this course and would like to register or would like more information, please contact

Catherine Tangen, 206-565-4529 or

YEAR OF THE FAMILY March 19,2021 - June 26, 2022

Pope Francis' Amoris Laetitia means "The joy of love" and explores the beauty of joy found in family life, and it will inspire you and your family to live this joy more fully in your everyday life.

Sign up for At Home with Faith and get a short excerpt from Amoris Laetitia every week.

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

In paragraph #317 of Amoris Laetitia, The Joy of Love, Pope Francis tells us:

> "If a family is centered on Christ, he will unify and illuminate its entire life … moments of joy, relaxation, celebration, and even sexuality can be experienced as a sharing in the full life of the resurrection. Married couples shape with different daily gestures a 'God-enlightened space in which to experience the hidden presence of the risen Lord.'"

After Jesus' resurrection, the disciples found an empty tomb. Jesus patiently worked with the disciples to help them understand what had happened. In doing this, he was teaching them how to recognize his presence in places they might not expect. He was preparing them to teach others about experiencing the hidden presence of the risen Lord in every part of our lives.

God's plan from the beginning was for us to share in his ongoing work of creation, and his joy. Over this Easter season, let's pay close attention to what Jesus does with the disciples so we can be more prepared to discover how Jesus brings joy to our families.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

About the feast day Divine Mercy Sunday, Jesus said "...tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon the souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet.... Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy". (Diary 699)

Our Lord said "When you go to confession, to this fountain of My mercy, the Blood and Water which came forth from My Heart always flows down upon your soul..." and "Every time you go to confession, immerse yourself entirely in My mercy with great trust, so that I may pour the bounty of My grace upon your soul. When you approach the confessional, know this, that I Myself am waiting there for you. I am only hidden by the priest, but I Myself act in your soul. Here the misery of the soul meets the God of mercy" (1602) Make your confession before Me. The person of the priest is... only a screen. Never analyze what sort of a priest that I am making use of; open your soul in confession to Me, and I will fill it with My light." (1725)

It is required of all Catholics to confess their serious sins at least once every year. If you haven't yet met this obligation then take advantage of this outstanding opportunity to receive an outpouring of an ocean of graces that Jesus promises on this day.

The Church allows for one to go to Confession for up to about 20 days, before or after Divine Mercy Sunday.

Join us for the chaplet of Divine Mercy today, April 11th, following the 11:00am Mass.

PRAY THE ROSARY!

Please join the Knights of Columbus on Tuesday nights from 7:00-8:00am to pray the holy rosary for our nation and our world. All are welcome so don't forget to bring your family!

EASTER SEASON

For Catholics, Easter isn't just a day, it's a whole season. The Easter season stretches all the way to the feast of Pentecost. Why do we celebrate Easter for 50 days? Theologian Nathan Mitchell writes: 'The great fifty days of Pentecost is ... an invitation to explore more deeply "the weather of the heart," to awaken our memory of God's presence and power in our lives...'

One way the church pursues this goal of seeing God present in the world is through the reading of the Acts of the Apostles. At Masses all through the Easter season, our usual practice of reading from the Old Testament is replaced be reading from the Acts of the Apostles. These readings tell the story of the church's earliest days, and the beginnings of our faith's spreading throughout the ancient world. These stories of heroism, controversies, persecutions and miracles all testify to the continued presence of the Risen Christ in the world, through the lives of his disciples, and the actions of the Holy Spirit.

God has not abandoned us, nor left us to our own devices. The Risen Savior is still with us. These 50 days of Easter ask us to reflect on His presence, and to live with joy.

JOB OPENING—CCHD INTERNSHIP

Attention social-justice minded Catholics, the Archdiocese of Seattle has an opening for a paid Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) Intern! This intern will assist local CCHD archdiocesan staff in promoting CCHD in the archdiocese. Tasks will vary but may Include: providing anti-poverty education to schools, parishes, and community partners; creating digital and physical CCHD promotional materials for the Archdiocese; and connecting with potential local CCHD Grant applicants and confirmed CCHD National Grant applicants. Internships will run for 24 weeks beginning this Fall, with 15-16 hours/week.

For more information, contact Annual Campaigns staff at Elijah.morgan@seattlearch.org or 206-382-3484.

April is child abuse awareness month.
Please pray for healing for the victims of abuse.

PRAYER FOR HEALING

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just: You gave your only Son to save us by His blood on the cross. Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them. Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them. Soothe their restless hearts with hope, steady their shaken spirits with faith. Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth. Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness. Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace, to act with justice. Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors. Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
