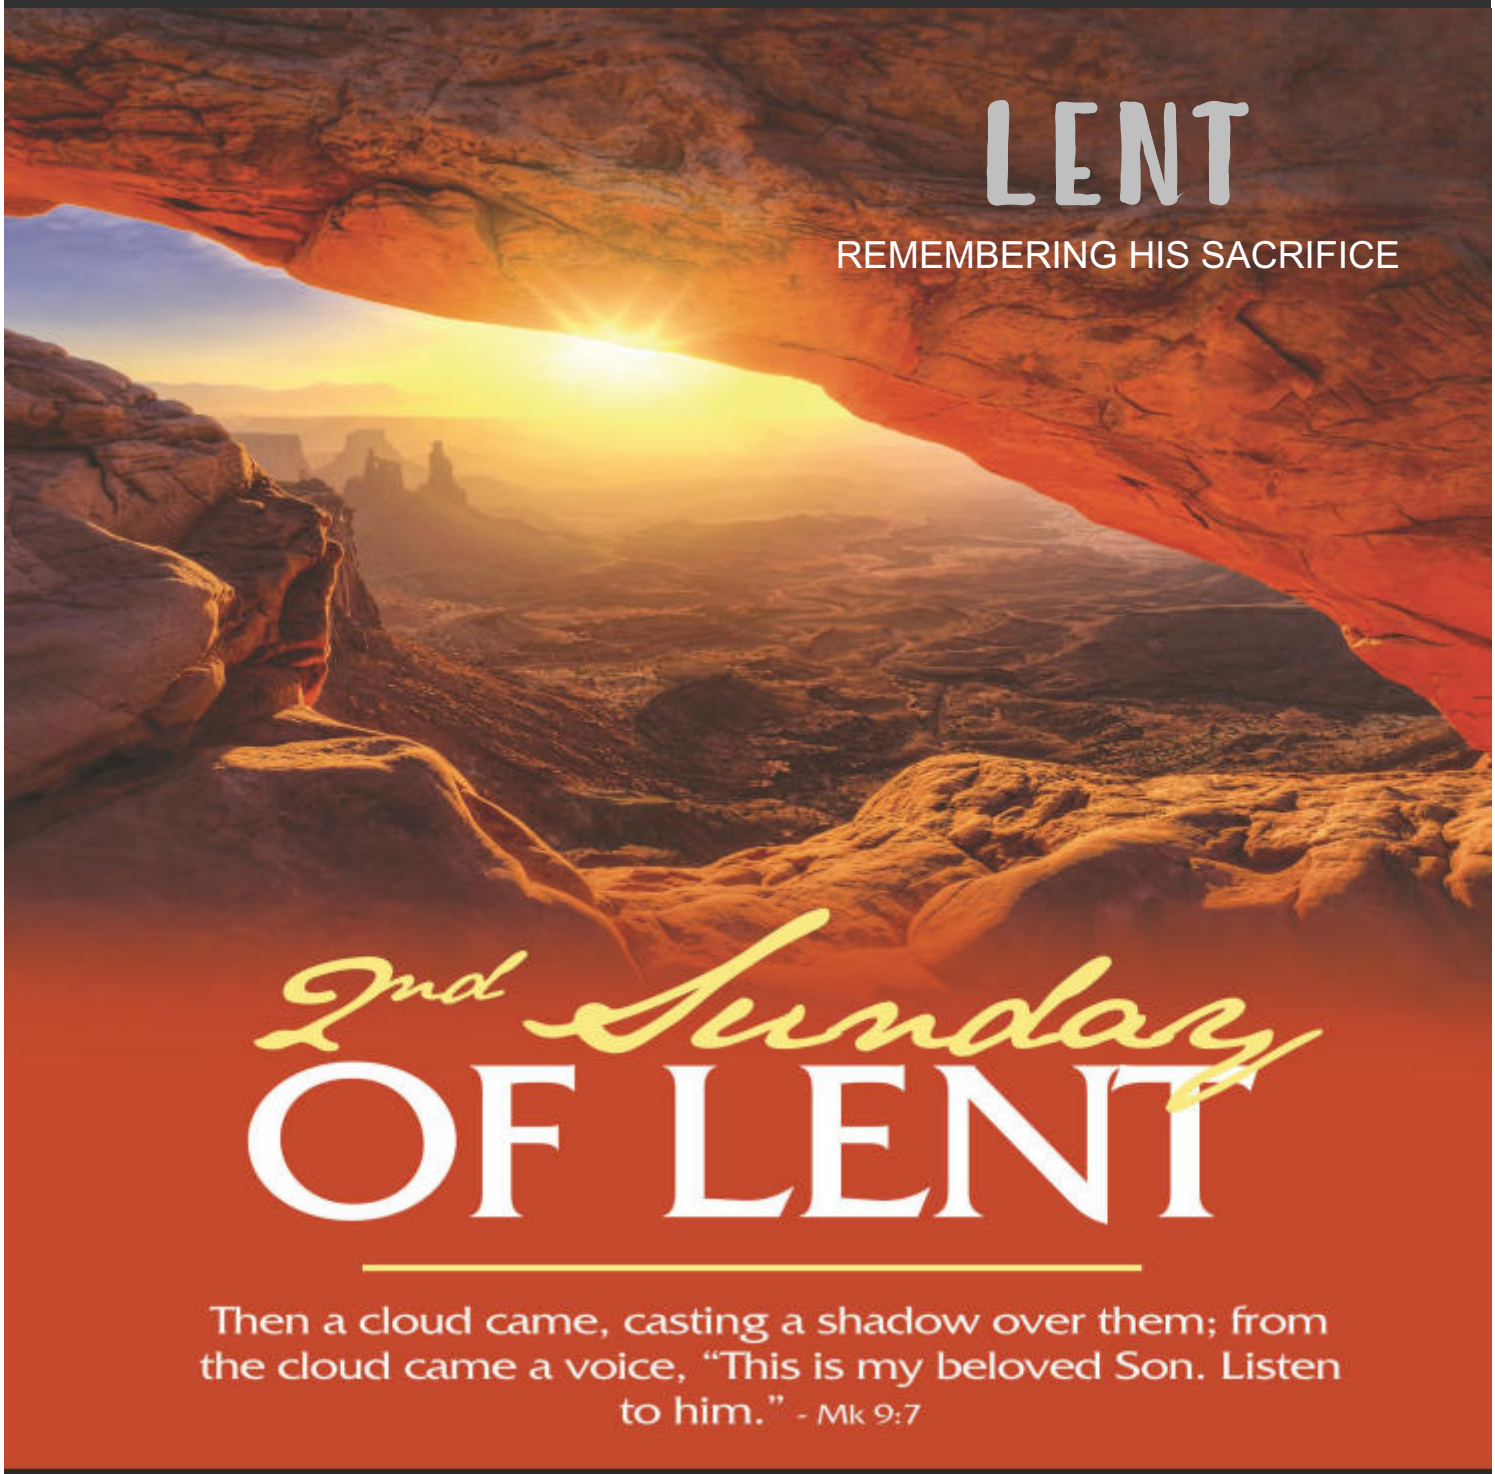
BURLINGTON/LYONS TRI-PARISH CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

ST. JOSEPH, LYONS– ST. CHARLES & IMMACULATE CONCEPTION ST. MARY, BURLINGTON

Very Reverend James Volkert, Pastor | Reverend Sergio Rodriguez, Associate Pastor | Deacon Anton Nickolai



Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Mission Statement:

St. Charles Borromeo, St. Joseph, Immaculate Conception, (St. Mary), united in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His saving death and resurrection, by calling, forming and sending disciples to go out and make new disciples. As a people, we are called to encounter Jesus, and grow as disciples through the sacramental life of the church.

A Message from Father Jim . . .

Transfiguring Moments of Grace

1) On this Second Sunday of Lent we are once again reminded of the transforming experience of the Transfiguration. Not only was it such an experience for our Lord, but also for Peter, James and John who were fortunate enough to be up on that mountain with Jesus. Witnessing the transfiguration of Christ was a moment that strengthened their faith in a remarkable way. It was a moment they never forgot as long as they lived. For these chosen apostles, this was a moment of grace. This was a moment when they felt the presence of God in their lives in an unmistakable way.

This season of Lent is a good time for us to open our hearts and minds to such moments of grace. One way we can do this is to set aside a little time each day for prayer. It is in these moments of prayer that we open our hearts to God and invite Him to enter them so that we can in turn receive His gifts to strengthen and inspire us on our Lenten journey.

2) I want to offer a word of CONGRATULATIONS to the young people of our Tri-Parish Community who were recently confirmed. It was a privilege to welcome Bishop Jim Schuerman who presided at the celebrations. I pray that the gift of the Holy Spirit that these students received will continue to grow stronger in their lives each day. May they have the strength to live out their faith and be good examples to those who will follow.

Father Jim Volkert

Did you miss Religious Education this year? Join us for our Summer Program!

Registration is beginning for our Summer Religious Education on June 14 - 18 and June 21 - 25 from 8:30 - 11:30 am at the St. Mary campus. These two weeks can be used to replace the previous school year. If your student missed religious education for 1st grade, this will count and First Communion preparation can begin in the fall. All students who are currently grades K-7th for the 20/21 school year are welcome.
High school students can volunteer to help and we will sign for 25 service hours for the full two week commitment.

Lenten Study

Lent is a special time Church in her wisdom has set apart for us to grow stronger spiritually. She sends forth us with the message "Repent, and believe in the Gospel", on Ash Wednesday. What does it mean to be truly repentant? What does it take to believe in the Gospel? Do we take this seriously? Does it produce a change of heart even when we make a sincere effort? Please consider joining an on-line Lenten study as we delve into this deeply. Lessons will be offered on Mondays from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. through Zoom, beginning February 1st. Contact Soly Johns at solycjohns@gmail.com or (262) 581-0055 with questions.

Prayer Intentions for Lent 2021

February 28

This week let us pray for those who experience malnutrition and hunger throughout the world. We pray that through our fasting and almsgiving we can help those in need, especially expectant and new mothers and their children, have access to the resources they need to stay healthy and thrive. We pray that all children may grow and reach their full God-given potential. We pray that our family and Catholic community may be thankful for the gifts we have and realize that by sharing them with others we are sharing them with Christ himself. Amen.

Calvary Launderer

Though not even mentioned in the Bible, most Catholics remember the saint who wiped the face of Jesus. She is Veronica, and her statue finds its way to most churches through the ancient stations of the cross. Yet, we honestly do not know what happened after she met Christ. Some say she cured the emperor with the face cloth, others say she preached in France.

Whatever happened, Veronica was certainly different after meeting Christ; and so should we. For we Christians see Christ when we wipe the face of another, and Christ is exciting. When we are annoyed and frustrated with another, especially family, we must see that the other is carrying a cross. The other is another Christ, whose face needs to be seen.

Let us love one another,
Steven Weller

CCHS CELEBRATING 100 YEARS!

"Eighteen students, along with chaperones Michael Mikulasch and Trish Kallaher, enjoyed a trip to Germany. The first stop was Colonge, then a boat ride to Heidelburg. Easter Sunday was spent driving through the Black Forest, seeing Switzerland's Rhein Falls and going to church. Two days were then spent in Munich and Berlin. Optional trips were available to visit Salzburg, Austria and Dachau Concentration Camp. The biggest highlight of the trip was seeing history in the making, the tearing down of the Berlin Wall. Students were able to pick up abandoned pieces, or chip off their own." Marian 1991

UPDATES AS OF AUGUST 29/30

35% Capacity
35% = St. Mary – 190 St. Charles – 140 St. Joseph – 78
Even though Archbishop Listecki has reinstated the Sunday obligation for all Catholics to attend Holy Mass, all of those who as defined by the health department as more vulnerable (60+ years of age, those with compromised immune systems, those with underlying health conditions, those who are anxious about being in a large group, etc.) as well as children under the age of 7, are encouraged to stay at home. The Archdiocese at this time asks that Holy Communion be received in the hand.

Cleaning of Facilities
Frequently touched surfaces such as pews/pew tops, doors handles as well as bathrooms will continue to be cleaned and sanitized by CDC recommendations after every Mass. All ushers/greeters will wear masks and gloves while taking up the collection. At this time, Archbishop Listecki has mandated that masks must be worn in church. Masks will continue to be available at the entrances.

MINISTERIO HISPANO

SEGUNDO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

Génesis 22:1-2, 9-13, 15-18; Salmo 116:10, 15-19; Romanos 8:31-34 Marcos 9:2-10

Hermanos, hoy comenzamos la segunda semana de Cuaresma, y en este domingo al igual que en cada año leemos la escena de la transfiguración de Jesús ante sus discípulos, este año el evangelio según San Marcos, nos presenta esta Hermosa escena la cual es muy importante en el evangelio, ya que es la revelación solemne de Jesús como Hijo de Dios, como el predilecto, como el Maestro.

En las lecturas de este segundo domingo de Cuaresma encontramos que nos hablan de muerte y de vida. Abrahán, el hombre fiel y obediente, a Dios no se reservó a su hijo Isaac; al igual que Dios Padre entregó a su Hijo único, el predilecto, por todos nosotros; en el relato de la transfiguración se esconde también el misterio de la muerte de Jesús.

En la primera lectura del libro del Génesis Dios prueba la fidelidad de Abrahán. El relato ofrece la historia de un sacrificio no consumado. Pero realza la obediencia de Abrahan a Dios. En el salmo que esta conectado con la primera lectura resalta la actitud de Abrahán la cual es una actitud de obediencia hacia Dios, y Dios por su parte premia a si siervo Abrahán mostrando en su voluntad que la vida siempre va a triunfar por ensima la muerte. En la segunda lectura que es to mada de la carta a los Romanos, escuchamos un tanto abreviado, el entusiasta himno de Pablo al amor que nos tiene Dios y que se ha manifestado en Cristo Jesús.

Hermanos y hermans, El domingo pasado el evangelio nos llevaba al desierto con Jesús. Hoy la Palabra de Dios nos arrastra hacia un escenario muy diferente: un monte alto, lugar que sugiere luz, manifestación de Dios. Dejemos que el señor nos transforme y cambie nuestras vestuduras sucias en vestiduras de gracia. Que este tiempo de desierto sea tiempo de purificacion para nuestas almas.

Avisos:

"NOCHE DE GlORIA". Sabado 13 de Marzo 7:00 pm. (cupo limitado) ven a adorar al señor y pidele que te perdone.

Recuerden Hermanos:

"Dios te Ama, Dios me ama, Dios nos ama"

Bendecida semana para todos
