Pope Francis's Intention for March: Sacrament of Reconciliation

Let us pray that we may experience the Sacrament of Reconciliation with renewed depth, to taste the infinite mercy of God.

Students' Gift Adds Regal Touch to St. Brendan Fireside Room

St. Brendan's Fireside Room will soon feature a beautiful handcrafted Regnum Christi shield above its namesake fireplace.

The shield was crafted by Pinecrest Academy 2020 graduate David Ansley and current students Sofia Alvarez Del Pino, Liza DiMaro, and Sophie DiMarco. David researched different shield designs and selected the one he thought would be the best fit for the design. He also primed the shield and painted the red, white, black border, and brown cross.

This year studio art students, Sofia Alvarez Del Pino, Liza DiMaro, and Sophie DiMarco continued the process by painting the sacred heart, the fire, the crown of thorns and the letters.

Fr. Matthew visited Pinecrest Academy earlier this month to receive the finished shield and thank the student artists for their creation.

This monthly retreat series, "Prayer: The Gift Exchange," is for all women - parishioners and friends. Beginning with a meditation at 7:30 a.m. in the Church followed by Mass at 8:30 and a practical talk. The retreat ends at 10:30 a.m. Confession is available. Remaining Saturdays are: April 10, May 8, June 12. If you have questions, please contact Tina Binkley at tbink@charter.net.

EMHC (Eucharistic Ministers of Holy Communion) to the home bound ministry is calling you because you are needed. What better way to serve God than to bring the "true presence" of our Lord to those who are unable to attend Mass here at St. Brendan's. Please contact Steve/Robi: (678) 906-9561, or richeysteve@yahoo.com to inquire about becoming part of the team!

"The harvest is rich but the workers are few; therefore ask the harvest-master to send workers to his harvest." (Luke 10:2)

The St. Brendan's Vocations Ministry announces the roll-out of the Elijah cup program to pray for Vocations.

This is a great opportunity for family prayer.

The Elijah Cup is a blessed vessel used during prayer as a tool to remind us of what we are praying for: vocations to the religious life.

At the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass and the 7:00 p.m. Saturday Spanish Mass , an Elijah Cup will be given to a household to pray for religious vocations during the following week. The cup is then returned by the household to the sacristy before the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass /7:00 p.m. Saturday Mass.

To sign up online, please visit St. Brendan's website www.StBrendansATL.com or http://bit.ly/elijahcup. You may also stop by the Welcome Desk during regular Parish Office hours to sign up.

Outdoor Parish Event Space Nears Completion

Work is nearing completion on a recreational field located adjacent to the gravel lot! The field will provide a flat area for our parish community to gather outside for parish life events such as food and craft festivals or youth faith formation activities such as camps. Thanks as always to parish business Verde Verde Landscaping for providing the labor and materials on very "church-budget friendly" terms.

Finding the Way

Many struggle with Jesus. Some who consider themselves faithful hail him in their churches but still struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. The message is somehow more palatable when it echoes pious renderings and sentiments and involves singing hosannas during worship. It becomes a bit trickier when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct the business of our lives, becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor, and marginalized, and living as servants of our Loving Creator. Ultimately, it is a struggle between wanting to be God ourselves and letting God be God as God is. That's why it's so easy to become hypocritical. We, like those who hailed Christ as he arrived in Jerusalem and sent Christ to the cross to die, also talk out of both sides of our mouths. We entertain what suits us at the time and walk away from the rest.

Many neglect God's beautiful creation because they prefer what humans have made instead. Progress isn't seen in preserving and enhancing what God has made but replacing it with something we believe is better and more useful. The earth, flowers, and animals are all expendable if they stand in the way of the "more" we want to achieve. We seek to remove as many obstacles and hurdles as possible in search of the easiest, quickest, and most efficient path we can find. We have created drugs and laws that preserve our free choice, even though it may mean setting aside God's vision and example. Why suffer when we can easily be put to rest? Why endure insult or injury when we can retaliate, eliminate or subdue? Why accept life when it is acceptable to choose otherwise? We want to be God and resist accepting the fact that our real Creator has already given us the blueprints for the life we need to live in the Beatitudes and in the example of his Passion. We don't like being stewards and managers and really want the power to do as we wish and desire. We want to create our own way.

Where has the true, effective Christian voice been through all of the wars and violence, prejudice and unjust conquests, abuse of human beings and attempted extinctions of nationalities, the establishments of procedures and protocols that serve only a few and not the many and all of the injustices and exploitations that are a part of our human history? A few courageous prophets have stood up and out throughout all of the comings and goings of our human journey with many receiving the same fate as the Crucified One we hail this week. Some still walk among us as shining stars showing us how it really can be. How would Jesus' journey have ended if he lived life as we do? Unless we encounter the good with the bad, the just with the unjust, the grace with the sin, the glory with the cross, the death with the life we most certainly risk rendering God obsolete. After all, haven't we already convinced ourselves that we can do better?

Fasting & Abstinence

Good Friday is an obligatory day of abstinence and fasting.

The norms concerning ABSTINENCE from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onward; the norms on FASTING are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.

Cáliz de Elías

"La cosecha es abundante, pero los obreros son pocos. Rueguen, pues, al dueño de la cosecha que envíe obreros a su cosecha" (Lucas 10:2)

El Ministerio de Vocaciones de San Brendan anuncia el lanzamiento del Program del Cáliz de Elías para Orar por las Vocaciones.

Esta es una gran oportunidad para rezar en familia.

El Cáliz de Elías es un Cáliz bendecido que se usa durante la oración como una herramienta para recordarnos el motivo por el cual estamos rezando: Las Vocaciones para la Vida Religiosa.

En la Misa Dominical de las 11:00 a.m. y en la Misa del Sábado a las 7:00 p.m. se entregará el Cáliz de Elías a una familia para que recen durante la semana entrante. El Cáliz debe ser devuelto a la sacristía por la familia que lo tuvo en su hogar antes de la Misa de las 7:00 p.m. del sábado o antes de las 11:00 a.m. del domingo.

Para inscribirse, visite nuestro sitio web, www.StBrendansATL.com ó http://bit.ly/elijahcup.

También puede pasar por la oficina parroquial durante horas de oficina para inscribirse.

Communion I:
The Cross of Jesus
Come, O God, renew your people,
We who long to see your face.
Strengthen hearts that have grown feeble;
Fill our lives with truth and grace.
Only you can win our freedom;
Only you can bring us peace.
Only in the cross of Jesus
Will the captives find release.

Deep within create a new heart;
Melt away the winter chill.
Help us now to make a new start,
Help us now to know your will.
Washed in water of forgiveness,
Cleansed in waters of new birth,
Lead us to the cross of Jesus,
Bringing life to all the earth.

In the darkness that surrounds us
We have lost you from our sight.
Even though your love has found us,
We embrace the powers of night.
Scatter now our deepest darkness,
Guide our hearts into the light.
Join us to the cross of Jesus.
Help us set our living right.

O Sacred Head,
surrounded by crown of piercing thorn!
O bleeding Head, so wounded,
reviled and put to scorn!

No comeliness or beauty
your wounded face betrays.
Yet angel hosts adore you

My sister rendered voiceless,
demeaned and still in chains,
my brother still exploited,
images of your pain.

to walk upon this guilty sod,
and to become the Lamb of God.

R/* O Lamb of God, sweet Lamb of God;
I love the holy Lamb of God.
O wash me in his precious blood.
My Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God.

Your gift of love they crucified,
they laughed and scorned him as he died;
the humble King they named a fraud,
and sacrificed the Lamb of God. R/

I was so lost I should have died,
but you have brought me to your side
to be led by your staff and rod,
and to be called a Lamb of God. R/

Recessional:
Jerusalem, My Destiny
R/* I have fixed my eyes on your hills,
Jerusalem, my destiny!
Though I cannot see the end for me,
I cannot turn away.
We have set our hearts for the way;
this journey is our destiny.
Let no one walk alone.
The journey makes us one.

Other spirits, lesser gods,
have courted me with lies.
Here among you I have found
A truth which bids me rise. R/

See, I leave the past behind;
a new land calls to me.
Here among you now I find a glimpse of what might be. R/

In my thirst, you let me drink
the waters of your life.
Here among you I have met
the savior, Jesus Christ. R/

All the worlds I have not seen
you open to my view.
Here among you I have found a vision, bright and new. R/

To the tombs I went to mourn
the hope I thought was gone.
Here among you
I awoke to unexpected dawn. R/
