LITTLE FLOWER'S CHILDREN'S ADORATION

Holy Hour of Reparation
Thursdays from 3 to 4pm
In the Church

We sing, we pray, we praise, and we adore.
Stay as long as you can - 5 minutes, 15 minutes or for the entire hour - but please come! Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

REVERENCE- The beauty and truth of the Sacrament is not lost. We can bring children to this without watering it down.

PROXIMITY- Kids are able to draw close to the Monstrance and even pray on the floor in front of the Tabernacle or are invited to sit in the very front seats.

BREAKING UP THE SILENCE- Kids make noise, and that noise is ok. They also are not trained contemplatives, so expecting mental prayer for an hour isn't an option. We DO have silence, but we also have appropriate prayers, songs, the Rosary, etc. often led by the children.

MOVEMENT - While we respect the church space, movement is a natural occurrence with children, which we embrace.

MUSIC- We use songs with which kids can sing along. Singing is a powerful form of prayer.

TEACHING- The children learn prayers, songs, and most importantly to love, and to adore Our Lord as well as to come to Him in their need.

Eucharistic Adoration for Children

In 1996 Pope John Paul II said, "I urge priests, religious and lay people to continue and redouble their efforts to teach the younger generations the meaning and value of Eucharistic adoration and devotion. How will young people be able to know the Lord if they are not introduced to the mystery of His presence?"...

Eucharistic adoration with children is worth the effort. Father Antoine Thomas, whose ministry, "Children of Hope," has brought children's Holy Hours to parishes worldwide, writes:

"After many years of leading Holy Hours for children, I can tell you the benefits are numerous for both children and their families:

Children who previously had only the weekly experience of Mass discover that the host is actually the person of Jesus, mysteriously hidden.

They develop a greater interest in the mysteries of our faith and the liturgy of the Mass.

They understand - more than other children of their age who have not experienced Eucharistic adoration - the relationship between the gift of the Eucharistic presence of Jesus and His sacrifice on the cross out of love for mankind.

They become much more aware of the various degrees of sin and seem very eager to receive the sacrament of confession often.

Families accompanying their children witness a growing desire for peace and forgiveness within the family."

Those are pretty substantial returns on your investment of an hour (or even less than a half hour for very young children)...don't avoid the Adoration Chapel. (From the article Eucharistic Adoration for Children by Elizabeth Foss)

FIRST FRIDAY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION FOR JANUARY:

January 8th
8am-5pm

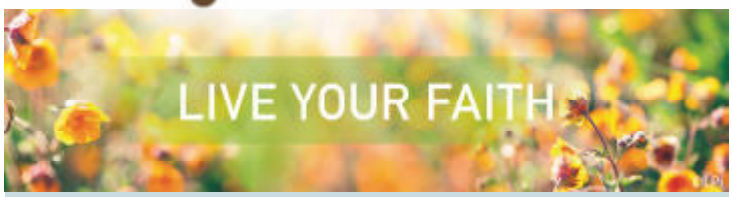
Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 5pm.

Copartners in the Promise.

The readings and this solemnity are filled with competing images and persons. Darkness and light. Christians of Jewish heritage and Gentiles. Chosen people and coheirs, copartners. Herod and the Magi. Epiphany teaches us this: all are members of the same body, all are coheirs of God's goodness, all are copartners in the promise of Christ Jesus.

- Like the Magi, how will I give homage to Christ today?
- Whom do I look down upon that I must see as a copartner with me?
- What treasure will I give away, will I offer to another?

Caring for God's Creation



"All of us can cooperate as instruments of God for the care of creation"

Pope Francis

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS:

- The Pope's encyclical, Laudato Si', is a text of landmark significance in Catholic Social Teaching. He challenges us to rethink our relationship with nature.
- Pope Francis reframes the environmental dialogue from a political discussion into language of faith. Creation, the natural world around us, is recognized as a precious gift from God to be reverenced by all.
- The Holy Father invites us to become aware and reflect deeply on the unsustainable environmental degradation around us and its consequences.
- Francis extends an "urgent challenge to protect our common home… to bring the whole human family together to seek a sustainable and integral development, for we know that things can change."
- The Pope asks us to examine our lifestyles through sound ecological virtues, strive for greater simplicity and to focus less on material things.
- Through active stewardship and reducing excessive consumption/waste we demonstrate our care for Creation and gratitude for this great gift from God.

Congratulations!

Recycling is an important part of caring for God's creation. Besides the items we commonly recycle like paper, plastic and cans we can also recycle textiles.

Helping Hands will work with St. Jude by collecting used clothing and shoes. Please place in the large blue recycling box located south of Franciscan Hall. These items will not go into landfills and will be given to underprivileged families or used to produce new products. Money provided by Helping Hands for our donations will be given to St. Jude School.

Please take part in this new opportunity to
