Top Reasons to Oppose Assisted Suicide

Assisted suicide fosters discrimination.

Some polls indicate that the public is receptive to assisted suicide. But the same polls show that people's views shift when they learn about its dangers—especially the dangers for those who are poor, elderly, disabled, or without access to good medical care. Consider that, in Oregon and California, some patients' health insurance offered to pay for assisted suicide, but not treatment. And in states where assisted suicide is legal, often no psychiatric evaluation or treatment is required. Additionally, assisted suicide fosters discrimination by creating two classes of people: those whose suicides we spend millions of dollars to prevent and those whose suicides we assist and treat as a positive good.

Bishop Lynch initiated the annual St. Jude the Apostle Medal in 1999 to honor individuals who have consistently given of themselves to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ by their generosity and service. Individuals are chosen, but those honored also represent numerous others who, like them, labor and serve generously in similar parish ministries.

Message from Fr. Pecchie

JMJ

My Dear Friends in Christ,

The beatification of Archbishop Fulton Sheen on September 24 reminded us of the importance of the missions. While many know him best for his TV presence, books, and charismatic eloquence, he repeatedly said, "My greatest love has always been for the missions of the Church." For 16 years, as National Director of the Pontifical Mission Societies in the United States, he poured his talents into World Mission Sunday and distributed the proceeds diligently to the missions.

He is the greatest National Director of the Pontifical Mission Societies in the history of the Church, helping to raise $200 million (in today's money, $2.1 billion) for the growth of the Church. Under his leadership, World Mission Sunday became a defining moment in the life of the Church in the United States. He said,

> "Whenever money is needed, or a new hospital, or a new jeep, it is always to the Church of the United States that the missionaries look. […] For the Lord has blessed the United States as no other country in the world has been blessed. The superfluities of the United States are the necessities of the poor." – Blessed Fulton Sheen

On World Mission Sunday, praying for the men and women who engage in missionary work around the world is essential. We are all part of the Body of Christ, and these men and women are doing a work that most of us cannot do ourselves. These missionaries have a tremendous task that can be accomplished only at great personal cost.

They need to be accompanied by our prayers. They also benefit from the recognition and esteem we can give to them within our communities. How often we forget to invite young people to consider if God is calling them to the missions!

We are also called to pray for our brothers and sisters around the world who have never heard the Gospel. One way to pray for the missions is through the World Mission Rosary. The World Mission Rosary was introduced in 1951 by Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen. He envisioned a rosary that would reflect the universality of the Church, with each decade representing a different region of the world where the Gospel is proclaimed and lived. By praying the World Mission Rosary, we are reminded that we are one Church, united in Christ, and that the mission entrusted to us belongs to all the baptized.

Oremus pro Invicem

Fr. Pecchie

PS Tomorrow I accompany 30 pilgrims from here, Incarnation in Tampa, and St Stephen in Riverview. Please know I take all of your intentions with me as I celebrate Mass at the Holy Shrines. I leave you in the good hands of Fr. Mike, and Fr. Galek while I am away please pray for our journey.
