JUNE 29, 2025

Today the Church celebrates two famous icons of faith: Saints Peter and Paul. What we celebrate today is faithfulness, courage, humility, and missionary zeal. These are the qualities that characterized these two iconic figures.

The first reading of this Sunday narrates the story of how God himself mysteriously delivered Peter from prison. This is in line with Jesus' promise to Peter that: "the kingdom of heaven shall not prevail against you." Having chosen Peter as the rock, God never abandoned him. Once Peter made a heartfelt confession, the Lord ordained him the chief pastor of His whole Church. Christ also endowed him with authority. Peter remained faithful till his death.

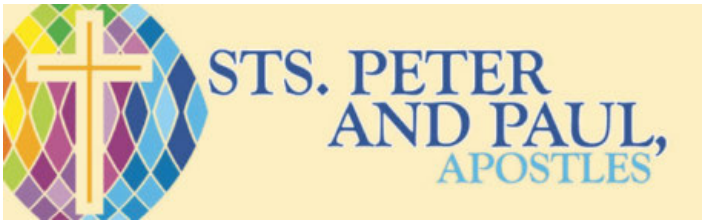
In the second reading, we hear Paul's testimony, "I have fought the good fight of faith to the end, I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now, is the crown of righteousness" Of course, he received that crown. Paul persecuted the church. However, after his encounter with Christ, he became an essential instrument in God's hand. His greatest weakness automatically became his greatest strength. True repentance, like Peter and Paul's, restores hope.

In today's gospel, after Peter professed the Lordship of Jesus Christ, Christ, in return, made him the head of the church. It was from this moment that Peter became the first bishop of Rome and Pope. Although Peter was made the first among equals, he remained humble, faithful, and courageously died as others did. So, as we consider and celebrate the outcome of the lives of these two pillars of our faith, let us imitate their good examples.

Through their exemplary lives, they teach us that conversion through repentance is a significant Christian step. Through their lives, they also teach us that unless we lay hold of salvation through continuous repentance, we have no hope of it from any other source!

This year we are celebrating the jubilee year of Hope. The Jubilee Year is a significant event in the Catholic faith. It's a time for Catholics to experience spiritual renewal, forgiveness, and reconciliation. Among the practices we are encouraged to embrace is going on a pilgrimage. In line with this we have planned a pilgrimage to Italy later this year. Part of this journey will help us to follow in the footsteps of these two great saints by visiting their tombs. You are welcome to attend the information sessions on Wednesday July 2 and Thursday July 3 at 6.30 pm at St. Hubert and St. Mathew respectively. Feel free to ask questions regarding this pilgrimage.

We would like also to thank all those who actively participated in the Corpus Christi celebration last Sunday.



Despite the extreme heat that limited our Eucharistic procession outside as earlier planned, it still was a beautiful opportunity to gather as a parish community in a more intimate setting, honoring and adoring the true presence of our Eucharistic Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Though it is not easy to achieve all the two apostles achieved, let us ask God the same grace which Paul tells us "is sufficient for us" (1 Cor 12:9). This grace will enable us to do our best because we "can do all things through Christ who strengthens us" (Phil 4, 13). May we all attain to this by the grace of the only begotten Son of God, to whom belongs all glory and honor. Peace be with you all!

In Christ,

Father Oswald Nkyanungi

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Today throughout the United States, we celebrate our freedom. Our rights are protected and opportunities abound. We recognize that freedom has a cost, one we celebrate and honor on days such as this. It's good to honor those who fight for our country, who may well pay the ultimate price for the liberties we're afforded. As faithful Catholics, we recognize that there is more to freedom than simply being at liberty to make our lives what we want them to be. St. John Paul II reminds us: "Freedom is not just doing what we can, it is doing what we ought." We become freer within ourselves and within our relationships when we choose what is right and good. When we choose sin, we become trapped in egoism - less free, not more. This Independence Day, let's continue to pursue virtue and good character and encourage others to do this same. ©LPI

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE

Starting with the first disciples of Jesus and his Apostles and continuing today, Christians have given of their resources to support the Church's mission of preaching the Gospel and providing for the needs of the poor. As the Church has grown and spread across the world, Christians have long expressed their unity with the Holy Father and their commitment to his mission of mercy through an annual contribution called Peter's Pence.

Today, Catholics who contribute to the Peter's Pence Collection continue this legacy of church unity and care for the poor. Their gifts to the Holy Father are "concrete signs of hope" to Pope Francis and fulfill the two aims of Peter's Pence as set by the Holy See: "(1) To support the Holy Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education, peace, and brotherhood among peoples: thanks also to the many activities of service carried out by the dicasteries, bodies and organs of the Holy See that assist him every day; and (2) To support the numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development."

For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website: www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html (English) or www.obolodisanpietro.va/es.html (español).
