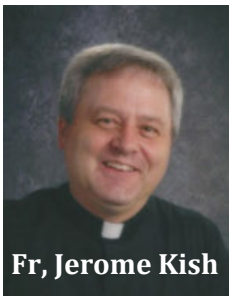
Saint Petronille Catholic Parish

We Remember: Memorial Days



Fr, Jerome Kish

If you've ever been to a funeral with military honors, maybe it struck you that 'respectful remembering' isn't for an anonymous crowd. No, it's for real-life, flesh and blood people whom we know. Our military personnel are those who have committed a portion of their life at the service of protecting the rest of us. Some of them have given the full gift of their life in battle, an actual sacrifice during time of war. Memorial Day gives us an opportunity not only to remember them with gratitude, but to pray for them. May we all find time to remember them this Monday, whether through our personal prayer or our communal prayer at Mass that day. Also noble are the practice of visiting a cemetery or taking part in our civic celebrations of the day. May God bless our military service members, cleanse them of their sins, and reward them with eternal life.

Here we see the limits of military victories. Soldiers can protect us; but they can only postpone our death and they can't forgive our sins. The death of our beloved military reminds us of their burial in earthen graves. Yet those who remembered the death of Jesus found an empty grave! The Risen Lord appeared to them, proclaiming his ultimate victory over sin and death. Then he promised to share that victory with them as he remained with them in the Holy Eucharist.

This wasn't just some nice story: the early Christians lived on it—even after Our Lord's Ascension into heaven. We mark this out at our parish of St. Petronille. Our outdoor shrine contains a beautiful piece of artwork, depicting St. Petronille leading Veneranda into heaven. While the Roman persecutors could take their lives, they couldn't take away the eternal life Jeus had given to them. This, too, even more, needs to be remembered. Especially during this centennial year of our parish. So, on May 31 we are celebrating once again the Feast Day of St. Petronille, but this year with all the solemnity we can muster, by inviting our Bishop Ronald Hicks to celebrate the Mass. The Feast occurs during the vigil of Our Lord's Ascension into heaven, another reminder to us that Jesus has truly opened the gated of heaven. If we remember and honor St. Petronille well on this day, she will continue to remember us well before our Lord in the days ahead.

> St. Petronille, our patroness and friend,
> God made your brave and faithful to the end.
> Now pray for us, and heaven's blessings send.
> Alleluia! Alleluia!

While we're remembering, let's first of all remember how Jesus said, "There is no great love than to lay down your life for your friends." These aren't only inspiring words of Jesus—he lived them in their fullness. At the Last Supper he said, "This is my Body, given up for you. This is my Blood shed for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in memory of me." Then he actually lived these words, giving his life for us on the cross on the very next day. In a sense, every Mass is a 'Memorial Day,' when we remember this saving sacrifice of Jesus.

These words of Jesus aren't just an instruction from Jesus for us to go to Mass. They are also meant as a plan of life. The Mass and my life are meant to be united. "Remember me: Do this in memory of me. Make an offering of your life in love." While not everyone is called to be a soldier or a martyr, each one of us is called to give our life to God for others. The best way to remember and honor those who have gone before us is to make our sacrifice. The battle between good and evil still rages on in the world. God calls us to fight to be good and holy each day. St. Petronille, pray for us, that each and everyone one of our parishioners may imitate the life of Christ. First cleansed by his mercy, then may our lives be a sacrifice of love pleasing to our heavenly Father.

With my prayers,

Fr. Jerome
