From the Pastor

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

"I'll take Potpourri for $200, Katie!" (Katie Couric is guest hosting this week!)

Answer: It started a year ago this weekend and affected all of us

Question: What is COVID-19

It's hard to believe that it was a year ago this weekend that we celebrated the Eucharist together in person. Our spiritual fast lasted for about 3 months. It is my prayer that as we have come back to Mass that our appreciation of the Eucharist has grown stonger.

"Potpourri for $400!"

Answer: It is how we made it through this past year

Question: What is the people?

I realize that sometimes words seem so inadequate. But I want to offer my thanks to all of you for remaining faithful this past year and for your support financially of the Parish. We have had so many people step up to usher and sanitize the Church and tape the Mass and other devotions. We have tried our best to stay connected with you as a Parish, but we couldn't do it without so many people stepping up. THANK YOU!

And a big thank you to my office staff. They have gone above and beyond making sure we are safe here in the office while serving your needs. THANK YOU!

"Let's continue with Potpourri for $600!"

Answer: Rose

Question: What is the proper liturgical color for today?

Today's wearing of the rose comes from the entrance antiphon reflecting on Isaiah 66:10-11: "Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exalt and be satisfied at her consoling breast."

Laetare is the first word — meaning "rejoice" — in the Latin text. On Laetare Sunday (as similarly with the Third Sunday of Advent's Gaudete Sunday) the Church expresses hope and joy in the midst of our Lenten fasts and penances. Call it pink — or, more fittingly, rose — this change in color indicates a glimpse of the joy that awaits us at Easter, just before we enter into the somber days of Passiontide.

"Potpourri for $800!"

Answer: It's celebrated on March 19

Question: What is the Solemnity of St. Joseph?

About 3 months ago, Pope Francis declared a Year of St. Joseph. The Holy Father wrote: "Each of us can discover in Joseph – the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence – an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble. Saint Joseph reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation."

St. Joseph can teach us a lot about faith and fortitude and prayer.

Joseph, of course, is the patron of the universal church, the patron of workers, and the patron of fathers. Since he found a place for Mary and Jesus to live, realtors will tell you he's also the patron for finding or selling a home.

St. Joseph, pray for us

"Let's finish the category – Potpourri for $1,000! – DAILY DOUBLE! How much do you want to risk? I'll risk it all!"

Answer: What other big feast day do we celebrate this week?

Question: What is St. Patrick?

Do you know how St. Patrick drove the snakes out of Ireland? With a 5-iron!

Wishing you a great and blessed 4th week of Lent! Please know of my prayers for you!

Fr Marty

Anyone wishing to sign up for any ministry or to sanitize the church on Palm Sunday or any of the Easter Sunday Masses can do so by calling the office at 752-6733, emailing burldivinem@diodav.org or by accessing Signup Genius on our Divine Mercy Parish Facebook page.

We continue to pray for an end to the COVID-19 pandemic through the intercession of St. Joseph:

To you, O blessed Joseph,
do we come in our tribulation,
and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse,
we confidently invoke your patronage also.
Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance
which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family,
defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ;
O most loving father, ward off from us
every contagion of error and corrupting influence;
O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.
As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril,
so now protect God's Holy Church
from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity;
shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection,
so that, supported by your example and your aid,
we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness,
and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.

Amen.

From the desk of Bill Maupin Principal of Notre Dame Schools

Dear Notre Dame Supporters,

This last week we were able to have Reconciliation for our students in grades 2nd through 12th. Thank you to Fr. Marty and Fr. James for setting this up for our students and staff. We also want to thank our Lent committee for setting up Adoration and Stations of the Cross for our students the last day of each week. This has been especially appreciated this year as we move through this difficult year.

Thank you to Des Moines County Health Department as our staff have received their second COVID-19 vaccinations. We are looking forward to getting back

We are very proud of our Speech Team. This year the team received 26 #1 ratings. They did an excellent job and we thank Mrs. Miller for all of her hard work with our students.

Starting next week our music department will be presenting the musical Clue. The students and Mrs. Brent have spent a lot of time working on the music. This was postponed from earlier in the year. Good luck to our music students.

Thank you for your continued support.

Bill Maupin

Diocese of Davenport

Office of the Bishop

March 11, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend (March 13-14) the Diocese of Davenport will celebrate its second Safe Haven Sunday. Many of you are already familiar with the Safe Haven initiative from last year, during which we provided resources to individuals and families to be used to protect their homes and initiate necessary conversations with children.

Since then, the increase of overall screen time experienced as a consequence of the pandemic has resulted in a significant spike in pornography exposure. COVID has brought the world a contagious and debilitating virus; it has also brought isolation, loneliness, and anxiety to many individuals and families. Given the experience of these additional stressors, it is no wonder that pornography use and addiction are on the rise.

As your bishop, I care deeply about your well-being and desire to do all in my power to guide and equip parents and others in forming children to live safe and virtuous lives. I understand that pornography is not a topic most adults want to talk about, especially with their children or grandchildren. However, given our present circumstances, it is a topic that must be addressed for the health and safety of all.

Pornography use and addiction prevent one from experiencing genuine, intimate and lasting relationships with others and with God. It is a mockery of the true and holy intimacy that is celebrated through the sacramental life of the Church. By engaging in this year's Safe Haven Sunday awareness day, we as a community are affirming our commitment to create holy, healthy and secure environments, free of pornography and other online dangers that deprive the home of its role as a safe haven.

To this end, parishes and schools in the diocese have been encouraged to provide instruction and materials that will support and protect individuals, marriages, and families from the harms of pornography. As a first step, I suggest that you take part in a 7-day Safe Digital Challenge by texting "SECURE" to 66866. This simple action will immediately help you get started in protecting your home from unhealthy online content.

It is my hope that participating in this challenge and utilizing the additional resources offered on the Diocese of Davenport Clean Heart webpage (https://cleanheart.online/diocese-davenport-0) will assist you and your family to successfully address the perils of pornography. I encourage you to take advantage of these resources and ask that you be intentional about taking the steps suggested to keep you, your loved ones, and the greater community safe.

For anyone struggling with pornography use or the effects of this addiction within their household, I want you to know that the Church is here to help and support you. Christ offers mercy, hope and forgiveness to anyone who wants to be free from pornography's harmful effects. Please talk with your parish clergy or contact the diocesan Marriage & Family Office for support.

Gratefully Yours in Christ,

+ Thomas R. Zinkula
