CONGRATULATIONS TO:
ADDISON MAE JENSEN

Addison Mae was welcomed into the Catholic Faith through the Sacrament of Baptism on Sunday July 25th.

From the Shared Pastor's Desk

1.) This Weekend's Readings – Like last weekend's, Involve something we all enjoy and need – food! We are told about Moses quieting the grumbling spirits and stomachs of God's people, telling them God promised not to allow them to die in the desert on the way to the Promised Land and would provide them bread from heaven six days a week; they were to gather only one day's portion at a time, except on the sixth day when a double portion was to be gathered so they could keep the Sabbath rest. God also supplied flocks of quail so that they would have meat each evening while on their journey. When Jesus multiplied five loaves and two fish to feed thousands, the people thought He would be a new Moses, supplying them with abundant, free food, but Jesus performed this miracle to help them understand what He truly wanted to give them as food; Himself, His Body and His Blood in that Most Holy Eucharist that He was about to offer for the first time in Holy Thursday's upper room! It's tempting to see food as an end in itself and make of it an obsession – "What are we to eat, what are we to drink; etc., etc., etc." During the pandemic a food obsession manifested itself in several ways-concern about prices & shortages, frustration with not being able to dine in where we used to go out, and putting on extra pounds as many found "comfort" in food, harming health while fearing for their lives. We might benefit from a reemphasis on the virtue of "temperance." Usually associated with problems of overindulgence in alcoholic spirits, it is actually the virtue which encourages moderation in all things and helps us to manage our appetites with right reason; it's put into practice through fasting! That Jesus fasted regularly is well known; that saints have nearly all incorporated it into their spiritual lives is well-attested. While no one may like to consider gluttony a problem, the fact that a large percentage of our population is considered by experts to be obese and that over 50% put on weight during the pandemic (while some were blessed with weight loss) speaks volumes about excessive indulgence and overeating problems we may be having as a culture. What does healthy physical, spiritual fasting look like? St. Thomas Aquinas (who struggled with weight problems all his life) said gluttony can be manifest in fussiness with tastes and fine food, eating between meals without good reason, eating too expensively, too quickly or greedily. In our time many diet programs have little to do with self-control: artificial sweeteners allow us to think we can eat more desserts and drink more soft drinks without paying the price for our sweet tooth; we think we can have pleasures without consequences!
A priest in Denver offers these ideas for fasting to strengthen temperance whenever food or drink are considered: stop grazing between meals and eating unnecessarily; don't put snacks or candy where you can eat without thinking; on occasion, forego salt, pepper and condiments on your food – we don't live to eat, we eat to live; don't give in to satisfying your thirst right away - sip rather than gulp; limit caffeine intake, try for one or more caffeine-free days a week; when out to eat, don't always order your favorite food – go with your second choice once and a while (money saved can be part of a more generous tip or given to charity); stop complaining about food you may be served (Jesus said good manners involve "eating what is set before you …") and, if not exactly to your particular liking, offer it up and pray for your cook, wait staff, and those who die of hunger each day; maintain holy abstinence from meat on all Fridays (highly recommended practice that, if forgotten or neglected, no longer carries eternal penalty); be sure to fast at least one hour prior to receiving Holy Communion. Remember, we don't live by bread alone but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God. A soul that is well-fed and nourished by regular prayer and weekly reception of Jesus in Holy Communion, the Bread of Life, will never hunger or thirst; the earthen vessels holding such souls, satisfied with less, are then more readily, truly nourished by what God the Father has sent down for us from heaven; Jesus, His Son, the Bread of Life.

'Homework' from Fr. Jonathon

If you were at a Mass that I celebrated last Sunday, I gave you the homework of finding and dusting off your family's Bible (or call us if you need one). This week's homework, if you don't see me, is to find last Sunday's Gospel and re-read it. Last Sunday's Gospel was from John 6:1-15. If you need help finding that passage, let me know.

A BIBLE STUDY ON THE LUMINOUS MYSTERIES: THE TRANSFIGURATION

This week we celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration, the mountaintop manifestation of Christ's glory that we read about in the Gospel. As we recall this wondrous event, however, many questions might come to mind. Why did Moses and Elijah appear? Why did Jesus only bring Peter, James, and John? Hear the answers to these questions and more in this episode of FORMED Now.

MERCY MATS PROJECT

For the summer, Mercy Mats will only be meeting the first Wednesday of the month from 10AM - Noon - Church Hall.
See you next on August 4th

Everyone can help with this Tri-Parish Service Project; whether you are 4 or 104 yrs old, there is a task for you.

1. Collect and flatten clean plastic bags
2. Cut the bags into strips creating loops
3. Tie the loops into long strings creating plastic yarn "plarn"
4. Crochet the plarn into 3'x6' sleeping mat
5. Deliver the Mats to homeless shelter

Join us on Wednesdays to learn the process, stay and enjoy fellowship while you work or take it home and return it when completed. Mercy Mats provide a cushioned barrier from the cold, wet ground and from the bugs – bugs don't like plastic – allowing blankets and sleeping bags to stay clean and dry. AND it keeps plastic bags out of the landfills and oceans. Thank you for your support of this Merciful Service Project.
