The Meaning of Easter

What Easter means is that Jesus of Nazareth, who claimed throughout his public life to be speaking and acting in the very person of God, and who was brutally put to death by Roman executioners, rose bodily from the dead. That's what it's all about. Jesus is ALIVE in heaven, and in the Blessed Sacrament. Come adore our Risen Lord!

View the schedule and sign up at conway.weadorehim.com. The code to the door is 4231*. You can sign up for any hour that Adoration is open, or sign up to be a substitute. All are welcome!

You can also sign up/get information by calling/texting Karen Oxner at (501) 269-1327 or emailing her at koxner@uca.edu.

The following hours currently have no adorer. Please consider signing up for these hours!

Saturday	2 – 3 AM
Sunday	3 – 4 AM

Other hour in need:

Friday	2 – 3 AM
Friday	8 – 9 AM

Please sign up today: Jesus waits and longs for YOU.

PRAY FOR THE SICK

Contact the Parish office 327-6568 to have names added to the prayer list.

Prayer Chain Callers: If you have a prayer request and would like to know that others are praying with you or if you think you might be interested in serving on the prayer chain, please call one of the following lead callers: Nancy Moix 327-4960; Patty Moix 329-5851

Also please keep in your prayers all among us who are dealing with long-term illness

RCIA NEWS

Our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) program has been re-worked! Just like God meets us where we are, we are doing the same by providing a more individualized program. If you, or someone you know, are considering becoming Catholic, please have them contact Andrea Ziminsky at the parish office: 501-327-6568 x 110 or aziminsky@sjparish.org.

Become a Mentor

The RCIA program is looking for mentors to walk with individuals coming into the faith. What does it mean to be a mentor?

The mentor is a guide and example to an individual seeking to become Catholic either thru baptism or for those from another Christian religious tradition, making a profession of faith. The mentor helps the individual understand how we live and practice our faith.
You will work one-on-one with someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic at our Parish. Be a guide to the faith, share your knowledge of the sacraments, prayer, devotions, help them find ways to become involved in our parish community and how to live like a Catholic. Kind of like providing on the job training!

Time Commitment: Varies – with some contact weekly (phone call, text, visit, coffee break to attending some meetings together)

Understanding of the Catholic Faith: Average
For more information about being a mentor, or if interested in serving as a mentor, please contact:

EASTER: THE PERFECT TIME FOR HOMECOMING

By Kathy Kordsmeier

Bishop Taylor's announcement on March 25th, easing many of the restrictions on the celebration of Mass. gives me reason for hope in these waning days of what seems like a never-ending pandemic. Certainly, the joyful season of Easter is our greatest reason for hope in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. During the 50 days of Easter we can also look forward to Divine Mercy Sunday, The Ascension of the Lord, Pentecost Sunday, The Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity, and The Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. It is the perfect time to come all the way home to the Body of Christ at St. Joseph parish, no matter how long you have been away.

Before I knew of the Bishop's announcement, I watched a webinar produced by The Veil Removed called The Church and the Mass Today: How to Navigate 2021. The speaker, Fr. John Riccardo, took several questions from the viewers, many of them relating to the Eucharist. Here are two that seem particularly relevant to our circumstances today as we joyfully anticipate the homecoming of all our brothers and sisters.

"Is it possible to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ in a Spiritual Communion?" Father responded that Spiritual Communion is a sacramental which expresses our desire to receive Jesus. However, the Eucharist is a Sacrament where we physically and spiritually encounter Jesus, entering into every cell of our body. Although there will continue to be those who are unable to attend Mass at this time due to serious health concerns, the Bishop has given permission for Ministers of Communion who have been fully vaccinated to resume taking Communion to the sick in their homes. Call the office if you are still in this category of sick and homebound.

In response to "How do we encourage people to go back to Mass?", Father spoke of a need for us to examine reasons other than legitimate health risk factors that are keeping us from Mass. He suggested if we are still going out to eat or to shop but not going to Mass, we may need to reorder our thinking.

Let's all spread the word and open wide our arms and hearts to our friends and family members whom we have missed at the Eucharistic Banquet Table. We are "ONE BODY IN CHRIST".

El significado de la Pascua

Lo que la Pascua significa es que Jesús de Nazaret, que durante toda su vida pública afirmó estar hablando y actuando en la misma persona de Dios, y que fue brutalmente ejecutado por los verdugos romanos, resucitó corporalmente de entre los muertos. Eso es todo lo que es. Jesús está VIVO en el cielo y en el Santísimo Sacramento. ¡Venid a adorar a nuestro Señor Resucitado!

Puede ir en línea para ver el horario e inscribirse en www.conway.weadorehim.com.

También puede inscribirse llamando o enviando un mensaje de texto a Karen Oxner al (501) 269-1327 o enviándola por correo electrónico a koxner@uca.edu. El código de la puerta de la capilla es 4231 *. ¡Todos son bienvenidos!

La siguiente hora no tiene un adorador. Por favor considere registrarse para esta hora:
