. Last week, possessions…this week, power. This 29th Sunday in Ordinary time, St Mark has Jesus in a conversation with His disciples about power and position, and about what they mean in His kingdom. When we reflect with Jesus this week, we should be reviewing our use of power and position…issues like control of others, nagging, parental authority, boss on the job, leadership and influence among friends, our good use of power, and, yes, even the power over myself…or the lack of it. Remember, possessions and power and pleasure are good in themselves…it is our use or abuse of them that is the problem.

Our Isaiah reading is from one of the Suffering Servant passages, emphasis here on Servant. St Mark's gospel…James and John approach Jesus with a request, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left (positions of power)." Then, Jesus asks them if they can drink the cup that He drinks (the cup of a suffering servant!), of course they say yes. Now the other ten are upset with James and John. Here comes the response to it all, the teaching from Jesus. Leaders in the world make their authority felt, Jesus says and continues, "But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant"… just like Jesus did for us. He came to serve us with His Father's love. Do I have that servant heart that so marked the heart of Jesus? That is what power and position mean in the Kingdom of Jesus…what it means for a disciple.

Get those Bishop's Appeal gifts/pledges in, please and thank you. Your kindness and generosity are appreciated. St Joseph, pray for us to have the servant heart you showed to Jesus and Mary.

Fr Jim

What do Catholics believe: Q & A

What do Catholics believe about Mary?

Mary is honored as first among the saints because she is the mother of God and the mother of the Church. We believe Mary was conceived without sin (meaning, she didn't have the stain of original sin), and that God preserved her from sin so that she could be a perfect vessel to bring his son into the world. Being human, however, she still had free will, which means she had the power to say "yes" or "no" to God when his messenger, the angel, came to her. The fact that she willingly said "yes" is an example for us of love and submission to the will of God. As with the saints, we ask Mary to pray for us to her son and to the Father and the Holy Spirit.
