Dear Parishioners:

Have you noticed the back-to-school items filling up the shelves in the stores? You can purchase back-to-school supplies and clothing and earn money for our parish at the same time by purchasing gift cards from the Parish. We keep several of the popular stores' gift cards on hand, such as Penney's, Kohl's, Dillard's, Wal-Mart/Sam's, Amazon, etc., but I can also order cards for hundreds of other stores. It does take a week or so to get the cards ordered. So, please let me know in advance if you would like gift cards that we do not ordinarily have on hand. Each dollar's worth of gift cards you purchase earns between 2.5% and 10% for our parish. Gift cards are available after the 10:30 Mass at Assumption and are available at the parish office through the week. Happy Shopping.

~Kathy Liechti

Estimados feligreses:

¿Has notado que los artículos de regreso a la escuela llenan los estantes de las tiendas? Puedes comprar el regreso a la escuela suministros y ropa y ganar dinero para nuestra parroquia al mismo tiempo comprando tarjetas de regalo de la parroquia. Tenemos a mano varias de las tarjetas de regalo de las tiendas populares, como Penney's, Kohl's, Dillard's, Wal-Mart / Sam's, Amazon, etc., pero también puedo pedir tarjetas para cientos de otras tiendas. Se tarda una semana más o menos en ordenar las tarjetas. Por lo tanto, hágamelo saber con anticipación si desea tarjetas de regalo que normalmente no tenemos a mano. Cada dólar en tarjetas de regalo que compre gana entre 2.5% y 10% para nuestra parroquia. Las tarjetas de regalo están disponibles después de la Misa de las 10:30 en Assumption y están disponibles en la oficina parroquial durante toda la semana. Felices compras.

Meister Eckhart asks, “Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?” He answers, “God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: ‘You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!’ Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God.” We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God’s will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. “Thy will be done” is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call “Father.” We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That’s what makes the Lord’s Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one’s darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus’ conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God’s most perfect gifts and all we really need.

A lo largo de servir en el ministerio de la catequesis, muchas personas me han preguntado: ¿Cuál es la mejor manera de hacer oración? Cuando los discípulos le preguntan a Jesús lo mismo, él les participa su propia experiencia de oración: hablar con el Padre del cielo que nos ama y nos conoce y sabe perfectamente lo que nos hace falta. El Padrenuestro, oración que nos lleva a saber dónde está Dios, que Él es Santo, que nos perdona siempre, que nos da el pan de cada día, y que nos libra de todo mal.

“Pidan y se les dará, busquen y hallarán, llamen a la puerta y les abrirá. Porque todo el que pide recibe, el que busca halla y al que llame a la puerta se le abrirá” (Lucas 11,9-10). ¿Qué le pides a Dios hoy? ¿De qué le quieres hablar? El Papa Francisco nos da su catequesis sobre la oración y nos dice que: “La oración es el primer y principal instrumento de trabajo que tenemos en nuestras manos. Insistir a Dios no sirve para convencerle, sino para reforzar nuestra fe y nuestra paciencia, es decir, nuestra capacidad de luchar junto a Dios por las cosas realmente importantes y necesarias. En la oración somos dos: Dios y yo luchando juntos por las cosas importantes”. Por esa razón, Abraham, insistió tanto en su oración para salvar a Sodoma. Fue un diálogo de petición y una respuesta de amor.

Journey of Faith Prayer:

Lord and Giver of Life, we ask for your guidance as we journey to discover your plan for our parishes and schools. Change can bring about great excitement; it can also be the source of anxiety and fear. Help us to move forward with faith, courage and confidence. Give us open minds and clarity as we discern your will for a promising future. May Jesus, the constant companion of the Church since Pentecost, help us to accept the challenges of loving service in new and invigorating ways. May Mary, Mother of the Church, encourage our efforts to listen and learn. In the beginning, you hovered over the waters, giving birth to your plan for creation. You were present to the People of Israel, speaking to them, teaching them, and guiding them. Be present with us now, and give us your light to see the way. Amen.

Camino de Oración por la Fe:

Señor y Dador de Vida, le pedimos su guía mientras viajamos para descubrir su plan para nuestras parroquias y escuelas. El cambio puede provocar una gran emoción; también puede ser la fuente de ansiedad y miedo. Ayúdanos a avanzar con fe, coraje y confianza. Danos mentes abiertas y claridad mientras discernimos tu voluntad para un futuro prometedor. Que Jesús, compañero constante de la Iglesia desde Pentecostés, nos ayude a aceptar los desafíos del servicio amoroso de maneras nuevas y vigorizantes. Que María, Madre de la Iglesia, aliente nuestros esfuerzos para escuchar y aprender. Al principio, flotabas sobre las aguas, dando a luz a tu plan para la creación. Estuviste presente al pueblo de Israel, hablándoles, enseñándoles y guiándolos. Esté presente con nosotros ahora, y danos tu luz para ver el camino. Amén.

St. James the Apostle | July 25

Saint James the Apostle is also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater to distinguish him from the other James in Jesus' group of twelve. Most of what we know about Saint James is recorded in the New Testament. He and his brother John were collected by Jesus along the sea of Galilee. Matthew 4:18-22 tells the story of Jesus calling first Simon Peter and his brother Andrew and then the sons of Zebedee. In Mark 3:17 the brothers receive a nickname from Jesus who calls them "sons of thunder" because of their many extreme reactions, like that in Luke 9:54 when they offer to call down fire on a Samaritan village. Saint James was part of Jesus' intimate circle, a witness to the Transfiguration, the resurrection of Jarius' daughter, and the agony in the garden of Gethsemane. In A.D. 44 Herod Agrippa had "James, the brother of John, killed by the sword." (Acts 12:2) He is the only apostle whose martyrdom is written of in the New Testament.

According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela, Spain where his relics were rediscovered in 9th century. This tradition has sometimes been attributed to a passage in the Song of Roland which tells of St. James appearing to Charlemagne in a dream, prophesying that Charlemagne would conquer the Moors in Spain. This was followed by a vision of stars which if followed would lead to the saint's lost tomb. In the Middle Ages Compostela was a hugely popular pilgrimage site. The saint's relics continue to rest in the cathedral there and one can still undertake the pilgrimage.
