Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 3, 2021

A Message from Fr. Miller/Other

Friends
Peace be with you.

I want to thank the members of the Marquette freshman class (and their parents) for a very fulfilling renewal day on Friday September 24 at St. Donatus. It was the first time I designed a retreat and I thought it would be good to focus on the life of Jacques Marquette so the kids would know a little about the person for whom the school is named. We started off reflecting on two Jesuit prayer practices followed by a great meal at Kalmes' Restaurant before praying the stations of the cross on the outdoor way at St. Donatus and finishing off the day with Mass in the Pieta Chapel overlooking the Tetes des Morts valley. It was one of those days which was as spiritually fulfilling for me as (I hope) it was for the kids. They are a uniquely great bunch of kids that restored my hope for the future. I hope to spend time on a renewal day with the other three grades in the high school before the end of the year and hope each one goes just as well.

Next Sunday, October 10, is going to be a big day for us in our parishes. After the 10:15 Mass, Mary Johnston will be at St. Joe's in Bellevue to talk about the pilgrimage I'm hoping to offer next June to Pennsylvania, New York, and Newfoundland. If you are interested, please plan to come to the basement of St. Joe's church, to Kieffer Hall, to learn more about this pilgrimage that focuses on the events of 9/11 during its 20th Anniversary. And, if we're lucky, we may get to see icebergs along the way!

Then, beginning at 3:00 that afternoon (October 10) at River Ridge Brewery, Fr. Austin Wilker, pastor of the churches in Preston, Maquoketa, and Otter Creek, will present to us a Theology on Tap. He's still working on a topic but, knowing him, I'm sure it will be topical and interesting. Plus, you get to drink beer while it's happening and ask questions of him after. Please come and encourage people who may be struggling in terms of their Mass attendance to come too.

I've had some long columns recently so I'm going to keep this one short but I'll conclude with a story recently told to me by a patron of Kalmes' restaurant. One day, a grandson was talking to his grandfather on his grandfather's 95th birthday. The grandson asked how his grandfather had lived so long and the grandfather responded that, every morning, he woke up and ate a spoonful of gunpowder. The next morning, the grandson was just about ready to choke down a heaping spoonful of gunpowder when his father came running into the room and announced that the grandfather had died. Despondent, the grandson set aside the gunpowder and walked upstairs to pay his respects. He watched as the grandfather's body was wheeled off to be cremated by the local mortician and spend hours with his father, mother, and the local priest preparing for the funeral to happen the next day by request of the grandfather. The grandson had a restless night that night and awoke the next day, too sorrowful to eat anything, let alone a scoop of gunpowder. He went with his family to their church, St. Barbara's, to say goodbye to his best friend. The priest began the homily by saying, "When Charlie died at the ripe old age of 95, he left behind, his son and daughter-in law, a grandchild, and a 25 foot hole in the side of the crematorium." The grandson never thought about eating gunpowder ever again.

St. Catherine Schuster's Pumpkin Patch

We will also be hosting the Lunch Stand at Schuster's Pumpkin Patch on Oct 9 & 10th with our chili cook off and chicken & dressing sandwiches and again on Oct 16 & 17th with our soup bar and brats. Pies and desserts are needed both weekends as well as workers to help in the lunch stand. Chili's and soups are needed each day also, so start working on your favorite recipes. I like to have 10-12 crockpots each day! Any questions call JoAnn Herrig 563-451-6082 or email herrig5@netins.net.

Stewardship Quote ... The phrase in today's psalm, "May you see your children's children, "is really a prayer for a long life. The good steward knows that every day is a gift from God, to be lived with joy and thanksgiving. "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives."

St. Catherine/St. Donatus Parish News

Our Monthly Special Collection designee for October is the Dubuque Rescue Mission, which "has been serving Christ in the poor for 75 years," helping the needy through love and faith by providing shelter for homeless men, hot meals to all who are hungry, vouchers for clothing and household items, and city bus passes for job searches. They also invite all to morning prayer each day at 10:00 a.m. and Sunday worship at 11:30 a.m. They depend on the generosity of local churches and individuals to be able to provide these ministries. Envelopes for donations to our monthly designees can be found at the end of each of our pews and placed in the regular collection basket at either parish any weekend of this month. Thank you for supporting those in need.

We have had several people drop off the list and we are in high need for additional volunteers for the various roles, especially lectors and money counters. In the words of St. James who has spoken to us the past several weeks: "May we be such good stewards of God's gifts to us that we can never be accused of having faith that does nothing in practice." Serving a role at Mass is such an easy way to be a faithful steward of God! Please contact Julie Heitz (call, text) at 563.258.2610 if you or any family member would be willing to fill any role.

A Message from Brother Stephen/Other

Saint Francis of Assisi

Saint Francis of Assisi is among the most well known Saints in the Catholic Church and has left an impressive legacy, including an inspirational example of a dramatic conversion from an unprincipled lifestyle to one totally immersed in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Francis' family was wealthy and highly respected in Assisi, Italy where Francis was born in 1181. As a young man Francis had a reputation for drinking and wild partying. His parents endured great anxiety and embarrassment because of Francis' rebellious behavior.

While fighting in the Assisi and Perugia war, Francis was captured, put in prison, and remained so for several months before his father agreed to pay the demanded ransom. While in prison Francis reportedly experienced a vision from God asking him to reform the Church and inspiring him to turn to God and embrace a life of poverty. Francis zealously patterned his life on faith in God giving up his inheritance and the luxurious life of his youth. Because of his devotion and passion to live a life of poverty and to minister to the poor, Francis became known throughout the world, was canonized a Saint, and left an impressive legacy.

Among the legacy Saint Francis left us are countless Franciscan Churches, shrines, chapels, retreat houses, educational institutions, and hundreds of Franciscan Religious Orders. So many it is said in jest: "Only God knows how many there are." A less theologically correct joke is: "The only thing God does not know is how many Franciscan Orders there are."

Having been named patron Saint of the environment and of animals, Francis' respect for the earth and for animals remain part of his legacy. The tradition of multiple animals as part of nativity scenes is often attributed to Saint Francis. It is customary in many places to have animals blessed to celebrate the feast of Saint Francis on October 4. Francis' intensive efforts to live the gospel precepts inspired the well known Prayer of Saint Francis, an impressive summary of what it means to embrace the Good News of the Gospel.

Make me a channel of Your peace, where there is hatred let me bring Your love; Where there is injury, Your pardon Lord, and where there's doubt true faith in You. Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope; where there is darkness, only light and where there is sadness, ever joy.

Oh Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love with all my soul. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive, and in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Francis, gazing on the walls of a prison cell, heard the voice of God, experienced a dramatic conversion, channeled the negative and destructive energy of his youth to love of God and the poor, and remained disposed to listening to God's voice thereafter. What will it take for you to be attentive to the voice of God?
