Do not let your mind be troubled over anything that shall happen in this world. Nothing can come but what God wills. And I am very sure that whatever that be, however bad it may seem, it shall indeed be the best (St. Thomas More)

A Feast of Mercy

In the evening, when I was in my cell, I saw the Lord Jesus clothed in a white garment. One hand [was] raised in the gesture of blessing, the other was touching the garment at the breast. From beneath the garment, slightly drawn aside at the breast, there were emanating two large rays, one red, the other pale. In silence I kept my gaze fixed on the Lord; my soul was struck with awe, but also with great joy. After a while, Jesus said to me, "Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in you. I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel, and [then] throughout the world. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over [its] enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I myself will defend it as my own glory."

When I told this to my confessor, I received this for a reply: "That refers to your soul." He told me, "Certainly, paint God's image in your soul." When I came out of the confessional, I again heard words such as these: "My image already is in your soul. I desire that there be a Feast of Mercy. I want this image, which you will paint with a brush, to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter; that Sunday is to be the Feast of Mercy. I desire that priests proclaim this great mercy of mine towards souls of sinners. Let the sinner not be afraid to approach me. The flames of mercy are burning me—clamoring to be spent: I want to pour them out upon these souls." (Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska)

Where do we see most clearly this great mercy of God but in the sacrament of confession. Who wouldn't want to hear your sins are forgiven. Go in peace. Yes we may never make a perfect confession; our blindness, our forgetfulness, our pride or our fear of what others may think. Yes, some abuse the sacrament as a get out of jail free card, some misuse the sacrament, by making excuses for their sins, telling how good they are or confessing the sins of others, but hopefully practice makes perfect. Go often to confession. Be perfect as our Heavenly Father is Perfect.

Una Fiesta de Misericordia

Una noche, cuando estaba en mi celda, vi al Señor Jesús vestido con una prenda blanca. Una mano [estaba] levantada en gesto de bendición, la otra estaba tocando la túnica en el pecho. Debajo de la ropa, ligeramente apartada del pecho, emanaban dos grandes rayos, uno rojo y el otro pálido. En silencio mantuve mi mirada fija en el Señor; mi alma estaba asombrada, y también con gran alegría. Después de un rato, Jesús me dijo: "Pinta una imagen del patrón que ves, con la inscripción: Jesús, en ti confío. Deseo que esta imagen sea venerada, primero en tu capilla, y [luego] en todo el mundo. Prometo que el alma que venere esta imagen no perecerá. También prometo la victoria sobre [sus] enemigos que están aquí en la tierra, especialmente a la hora de la muerte. Yo mismo lo defenderé como mi propia gloria ".

Cuando le dije esto a mi confesor, recibí esta respuesta: "Eso se refiere a tu alma". Él me dijo: "Ciertamente, pinta la imagen de Dios en tu alma". Cuando salí del confesionario, nuevamente escuché palabras como estas: "Mi imagen ya está en tu alma. Deseo que haya una Fiesta de la Misericordia. Quiero que esta imagen, que pintarás con un pincel, sea bendecida solemnemente el primer domingo después de la Pascua; ese domingo será la Fiesta de la Misericordia. Deseo que los sacerdotes proclamen mi gran misericordia para las almas de los pecadores. Que el pecador no tenga miedo de acercarse a mí. Las llamas de la misericordia me están quemando, clamando por ser utilizadas: quiero derramarlas sobre estas almas ". (Santa María Faustina Kowalska)

*¿Dónde vemos más claramente esta gran misericordia de Dios sino en el sacramento de la confesión? ¿Quien no querría escuchar que sus pecados están perdonados? Ve en paz. Sí, quizás nunca hagamos una confesión perfecta; nuestra ceguera, nuestro olvido, nuestro orgullo o nuestros miedos a lo que puedan pensar los otros. Sí, algunos abusan del sacramento como una tarjeta para salir libres de la cárcel; otros abusan del sacramento, excusándose por sus pecados, diciendo cuán buenos son, o confesando los pecados de otros, sin embargo con suerte, la práctica hace la perfección.*Ir a menudo a la confesión Sean perfectos como nuestro Padre Celestial es perfecto.
