SCRIP

Hi Parishioners;
 Fall is the time for those many Do-It-Yourself projects that we all have around the house. Did you know that you can purchase gift cards from the parish to use when buying those necessary items on your fix-it list? We have cards for the DIY stores like Menards, Lowes, Home Depot and Walmart. We also have cards for many restaurants to get lunch or dinner after a hard day's work.

With every gift card you purchase, a percentage of the purchase goes back to the parish. These funds are then available to the parish to pay for its own projects. Gift cards can be bought at the parish office. We also sell gift cards after the 10:30 Mass at Assumption.

Happy Fall!

Kathy Liechti, Scrip Coordinator

TARJETAS DE REGALO

Hola feligreses,

El otoño es tiempo para hacer proyectos en casa. Sabias que puedes comprar tarjetas de regalo y utilizarlas para comprar lo necesario para tu proyecto? Tenemos tarjetas como de Menards, Lowes, Home Depot and Walmart. También tenemos de varios restaurantes para la compra de comida ya preparada después de un día largo de trabajo.

Con la compra de cada tarjeta de regalo, hay un porcentaje que va para la parroquia. Y estos fondos son para utilizarse para los propios proyectos de nuestra parroquia, usted puede comprar las tarjetas en la oficina parroquial. También vendemos después de la misa de las 10:30 en la iglesia de Asunción. Celebremos el otoño!

Kathy Liechti,

Coordinadora de las tarjetas de regalo

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.” Regardless of how the message of faith is received, a total conversion of mind and heart is needed for it to take root and have meaning. It is easy to become complacent and comfortable with all that life can afford us. Life can become “all about me,” preserving my livelihood and protecting my securities. Often, this drive can become so strong that we eagerly strive to protect our self-interests at the expense of others. Other people are necessary only to the extent that they are “useful” to us and profitable.

Merriam-Webster defines entitlement as “the belief that one is deserving of or entitled to certain privileges.” In a world that pretends to offer us so many necessities, this is perhaps the greatest contemporary sin. When we feel “entitled” to something, even if it is perceived necessary, our relationships can get skewed. Unless we adopt a global vision of entitlement wherein everyone is entitled to the same things, we risk becoming extremely self-focused and selfish. All we care about is defending our rights and protecting our turf. This impulse can be so strong that we pursue it even at the expense of another. Is this what God intends for his children?

Holding on to this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no real concern to us. Relying on our own merits and becoming resilient to life’s challenges, we replace the true and real God with the one we created ourselves. Jesus and the prophets before him have consistently reminded us of the dangers of wealth, ignoring the poor and the needy, and becoming too fiercely independent and arrogant. Yet, we conduct our lives as if that message has never been preached. We give our faith a nod and never consider for a moment that we may be wrong in terms of what we see as important. “The things that we love tell us what we are (attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas).” Ponder those words a bit and remember that when we leave this world and go to the next one, what we loved here is what we will look for there. What we sought here may not be there.

26° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Jesús fue muy valiente de echar en cara la hipocresía de algunos fariseos y de gente rica y usurera de su tiempo. Les gustaba aparentar lo que no hacían en cuestión de caridad y justicia con los más pobres. Vivían muy despreocupados, ensimismados en sus cosas triviales, sin importancia. Decían conocer a Dios, pero en realidad no reflexionaban ni vivían su palabra. Cuando asistimos a Misa y escuchamos la Palabra de Dios, o cuando leemos la Biblia en casa o en algún grupo, estamos comprometidos a escuchar e interiorizar lo que se lee en ella, para tener fruto por la gracia del Espíritu Santo y así hacer el bien.

“Si queremos ser hombres y mujeres de Dios, como le pide san Pablo a Timoteo, debemos guardar el mandamiento sin mancha ni reproche hasta la manifestación de nuestro Señor Jesucristo (1 Timoteo 6,14). Y el mandamiento es amar a Dios y amar al prójimo. No podemos separarlos (Papa Francisco). Dicho de otra manera, es el compromiso de cada persona con la otra. De construir en vez de destruir, de cuidar el mundo, de ayudar a la sociedad a construir para el beneficio de todos. Se llama el bien común. La oración colecta de hoy nos invita a orar y confiar en Dios para llevar a cabo lo que Dios nos pide: “Señor, Dios, que manifiestas tu poder de una manera admirable sobre todo cuando perdonas y ejerces tu misericordia, multiplica tu gracia sobre nosotros... Para que seamos fieles cristianos atentos para hacer justicia a los que lo necesiten. ¡Amen!

Today we are celebrating Priesthood Sunday. It is our opportunity to thank our priests for all they do for us, and to encourage them in their ministry.

Hoy celebramos el Domingo del Sacerdocio. Es nuestra oportunidad de agradecer a nuestros sacerdotes por todo lo que hacen por nosotros, y de animarlos en su ministerio.

Please take some time to thank our priests!

Some ideas that you may choose to use might be:

- Create a Spiritual Bouquet, where you say prayers for your priests, and let them know the prayers that you've prayed, or promise to pray for them. Example: "Father, we offered (or will offer) 2 Masses, 3 Rosaries, and 5 Our Fathers, Hail Marys, and Glory Bes for your intentions, in thanksgiving for your ministry."
- Make a lovely thank-you card for our priests (or buy one).
- If you have a son or sons, have them dress as priests for Priesthood Sunday, and take a picture with Father.
- Take a family photo with Father, put it up at home, and pray for him regularly.

¡Por favor tómesese un tiempo para agradecer a nuestros sacerdotes!

Algunas ideas que puede usar podrían ser:

- Cree un Ramo Espiritual de Flores, donde dice oraciones por sus sacerdotes, y hágalos saber las oraciones que ha orado, o prometa orar por ellos. Ejemplo: "Padre, ofrecemos (u ofreceremos) 2 Misas, 3 Rosarios y 5 Padrenuestros, Avemarías y Glorias por sus intenciones, en acción de gracias por su ministerio".
- Haz una hermosa tarjeta de agradecimiento para nuestros sacerdotes (o compra una)
- Si tiene un hijo o hijos, pídale que se vistan como sacerdotes para el Domingo del Sacerdocio y tómesese una foto con el Padre.
- Tome una foto familiar con el Padre, colóquela en casa y ore por él regularmente.

The Pastoral Planning Team met on Thursday, September 15, to further discuss and make recommendations to Archbishop Lucas, to help plan for our Family of Parishes for the next ten years. Following are topics we discussed.

Last year St. Mary and Saints Peter & Paul Parishes had to spend approximately $80,000 in savings to pay their bills, and while Assumption-Guadalupe finished the year in the black, the deficit there would have been about the same if all of the school assessment would have been paid.

Our biggest challenge over the next ten years is financial stability. While we would like to keep every church and campus open until 2033, we are looking at what we have and what we truly need. This discussion is still in the early stages and no conclusions have been reached.

Please consider attending the Pastoral Conference '22 on Saturday, October 1, from 9 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. at El Centro Tepeyac (St. Mary's School). Archbishop Lucas will help us all to understand the challenges we face, and our hope for the future of God's people in our Archdiocese. Please continue to pray the Journey of Faith prayer, below.

Journey of Faith Prayer:

Lord and Giver of Life, we ask for your guidance as we journey to discover your plan for our parishes and schools. Change can bring about great excitement; it can also be the source of anxiety and fear. Help us to move forward with faith, courage and confidence. Give us open minds and clarity as we discern your will for a promising future. May Jesus, the constant companion of the Church since Pentecost, help us to accept the challenges of loving service in new and invigorating ways. May Mary, Mother of the Church, encourage our efforts to listen and learn. In the beginning, you hovered over the waters, giving birth to your plan for creation. You were present to the People of Israel, speaking to them, teaching them, and guiding them. Be present with us now, and give us your light to see the way. Amen.
