Fr. Patrick Update

Cancer and the difficulty of the resulting treatment has touched so many lives. Fr. Patrick was able to tolerate his first four chemo treatments fairly well. With his fifth and sixth treatments he has experienced more severe side effects.

With two treatments remaining Father decided to place himself on sick leave, and is unavailable, until he is done with treatments or feeling better.

Please continue to pray for Father's good health and healing.

A Prayer to St. Peregrine for Sick Relatives and Friends

O great St. Peregrine,
you have been called The Mighty",
"The Wonder Worker" because of the numerous miracles which you obtained from God
for those who have turned to you in their need.
For so many years, you bore in your own flesh this cancerous disease that destroys the very fiber of our being.
You turned to God when the power of human beings could do no more,
and you were favored with the vision of Jesus
coming down from His cross to heal your affliction.
I now ask God to heal these sick persons whom I entrust to you:
(here mention their names)
Aided by your powerful intercession,
I shall sing with Mary a hymn of gratitude to God for His great goodness and mercy.
Amen.

Prayer to Saint Agnes

St. Agnes, although you were only a child,
you believed that Jesus was always with you;
help us to remember that he is also with us,
and to remain true to his presence.

St. Agnes, you refused to give up your faith;
help us to be proud of our faith,
to love it, to be strong in it,
and to give witness to it daily.

St. Agnes, patron saint of children,
watch over the children of the world;
keep them safe from harm;
be with them in their hour of need;
and always pray for them. Amen.

An Invitation from Jesus
Adapted from https://catholicdioceseofwichita.org/steward-reflections/january-17-2021second-sunday-in-ordinary-time/

"He said to them, 'Come, and you will see'" (John 1:39). In this weekend's readings, Jesus invites us into His space.

In the first reading (1 Sm 3:3b-10, 19) Samuel, who is unfamiliar with the LORD, hears a voice calling to him in his sleep. Is this how Jesus reaches out to you — with quiet and persistent subtlety – to come and see? In the Gospel (Jn 1:35-42), Jesus looks directly at the disciples and invites them to follow Him. Maybe Jesus has been this blatant in His call to you to come and see.

Discipleship does not happen from afar. Relationship with Jesus, as with others, often begins from afar, but Jesus acknowledges–even anticipates– our curiosity and draws us in. Regardless of how He reaches out to you, your FIAT (your yes) begins when you respond to Jesus' invitation to come and see. How will you respond when Jesus invites you to "come and see?"

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children
January 22

God our Creator,
We give thanks to you,
Who alone have the power to impart the breath of life as you form each of us in our mother's womb; grant, we pray, that we whom you have made stewards of creation, may remain faithful to this sacred trust and constant in safeguarding the dignity of every human life.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Kid's Corner

Sharing the Gospel

Mexican families share a special treat called a Kings' Cake on January 6th. Hidden inside the cake is one tiny little doll shaped like the baby Jesus. If you find Jesus in your piece of cake, you tell everyone. In today's Gospel, Andrew met Jesus for the first time. Andrew was so excited to find the Savior, he ran to tell his brother he had found Jesus.

Prayer

Jesus, help me tell my family and friends about you.

Puzzle

Fit the Gospel message into the empty squares.
We have found the Messiah.
