From Fr. Von's Desk

I thought I would share some statistics on the Catholic Church in the United States from a recent Knights of Columbus leadership training webinar:

Infant Baptisms are down 41.5% since 2000

One out of five of those Baptized (20%) do not receive First Communion

Two out of five of those Baptized (40%) do not receive Confirmation

Catholic marriages are down 55% since 1990

85% of Confirmed Catholics stop practicing their faith by age 21

We are called to ask God for the grace we need to strengthen our own faith. Then, we are called to share that faith with our children, families, grandchildren, and relatives. We are called to reach out beyond our parishes to our wider communities with the good news of eternal life offered by Jesus, beginning now in a relationship with him.

One way of asking God to help us is, in this Year of Saint Joseph, to consecrate ourselves to Saint Joseph. Fr. Donald Calloway has developed a 33-day preparation for consecration to Saint Joseph in his book Consecration to St. Joseph. We can prepare ourselves, individually or meeting together in groups, beginning in late September, to consecrate ourselves on November 1st, All Saints Day. As Fr. Calloway writes, "[W]hat does it mean for a person to be consecrated to St. Joseph? Well, it basically means that you acknowledge that he is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely to his paternal care so that he can lovingly help you acquire his virtues and become holy." I will have more articles in future bulletins to help us decide if we would like to participate, individually or in groups, in this consecration to Saint Joseph.

Let us ask Saint Joseph to intercede for our parishes and our Church in these challenging times.

Fr. Von Deeke

Respect Life Ministry

Respect Life

"What can we do to accomplish the works of God?"
This week's Gospel from John 6:24-35, continues last Sunday's story of the miracle of the loaves and fishes. The crowds begin to "seek and to find" Jesus for their next meal, but Jesus tells them to work for the food that leads to eternal life, salvation. Believe in Him, the one God has sent, who is the life of the world, the bread of life. It is the message that we must take out to our brothers and sisters in Christ-everywhere.

Learn, Act, Connect, and Pray

As missionary disciples, we are called to encounter Christ in the members of our human family most in need and to share the Good News with others, advocating for justice and common good. This year, the COVID pandemic is estimated to have pushed an 88 million to 115 million more people into extreme poverty around the world. Pope Francis urges us," This is not a time for indifference, because the whole world is suffering and needs to be united in the pandemic." Please continue to welcome and pray for those who live on the fringe of society. Ask your representatives to ensure the proper funding to help reduce poverty here and around the world. It is most necessary that the Helms Amendment be in place to prohibit the use of U.S--funded foreign assistance for abortion. Life is a gift to be cherished in all circumstances.

Bible Study

The readings of today continues the focus of "food". The 1st reading, from Exodus has the Israel people complaining about having no food. That's probably only a few weeks into their journey after their initial provisions are consumed. Remember what is happening. GOD is beginning the long and laborious process of taking Egypt out of the Hebrews. How does He get their attention? Through their base needs. Food. GOD feeds His people but wants them to follow instructions, not gorge themselves and be greedy. He tells them to take only what they need for the day. The lesson is for them to first know in their hearts that the LORD is their GOD and to fully trust in HIM in all things and HE will provide for their needs. The Psalm, written hundreds of years later, demonstrates they still remember. "GOD gave them food from Heaven" and that they will continue to pass on the story to each generation. These readings points to JESUS being the bread of life as taught in the Gospel reading for this week. The 2nd reading of Paul to the Ephesians does not seem to fit but there are subtle ties. Can you find them? A closing question. Where do you stand in your trust and reliance on GOD to provide all your needs and in following HIS instructions? God bless, open your eyes and heart, and keep you safe.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Times

More Than Manna, More Than Bread and Fish. During the Exodus, the Lord rained down bread (manna) each day to feed those in flight. Last Sunday, after being filled with bread and fish, the crowd pursued Jesus for more food. Rightly exasperated, Jesus patiently shifts the conversation from bread from heaven to true bread. He ends by saying: "I Am the bread of life." What looks like bread is more than bread. More than we can imagine!

- What do I believe Communion to be?
- Why do I believe this?
- Why do I come in procession each Sunday to eat this bread, this Communion, this Christ?

Vocation Corner

"As the son of Polish immigrants, I grew up in a good Catholic home. But it wasn't until I began participating in our parish youth group that I embraced the faith as my own and fell in love with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. A girl I was dating went to daily Mass, and I began going with her. It didn't take long for my focus to shift from her to what took place in the sanctuary - God coming down to be with his people. I found myself with thoughts like, 'how would I preach on that Gospel". I wrestled with the idea of becoming a priest often…. Following high school graduation, I entered seminary and eight years later I was ordained a priest. If God calls you to the priesthood, nothing on earth will give you greater joy."

Stewardship Gardens by Gene Racho

Saga of Team Chicken continues but hopefully concluded. In recent weeks they turned from hunters of invading bugs and pests to foragers among the tomatoes, beans, cucumbers and greens... eating their way through the low ripe and ripening tomatoes, pulling up greens, eating the replanted cucumber and bean seeds as well as munching on the tender bean leaves. Their habitat was reinforced to contain them and the round up began. So comical to watch the Australian Sheep Dog find them in their hiding places in the wood piles, in stacks of building materials and other places of supposed sanctuary. Yes, chickens can fly and were in some cases like a frisbee for the the pup. Question is: is their reinforced habitat capable of containing these adventurous members of Team Chicken which includes ducks and a turkey. Only time will tell. Fortunately, with timely contributions from both Rich S' and Alicia C's gardens and what Team Chicken missed there was enough to make a delivery to the Mascoutah Food Bank. Thank you both but more importantly we thank our LORD for providing once again. Can envision HIS laughter as HE watched the herding of Team Chicken. In a way so similar to the humans HE created. If you or someone you know has a bountiful garden harvest that exceeds needs and would like to donate, or would like to become part of the Team, let us know. Questions or to contact us for any reason: Email: gr617@aol.com or call the parish office and we will get back to you as soon as possible.

You've read and heard the admonition to "Die to self" and to "Fully trust in GOD for all things with our whole heart, mind and soul." As a Steward of our LORD, GOD and FATHER, what do each of these mean to you? Give this serious thought. Are we fearful of really "dying to self" or totally putting all our trust in GOD for everything? How does this conflict with our understanding of "self reliance" that is considered to be a hallmark of a good citizen of this country. Another thought is: what lessons and guidance do you want to pass on to your next generation? Recall what we have been taught: Put GOD first; be Catholic. Reflect the light of our Lord to all those you encounter. We pray God bless you and prosper all you do in His name.
