REFLECTIONS FROM DEACON RICK

Some years ago there was a commercial for a fairly common condiment, ketchup, which featured Carly Simon singing one of her hit songs, Anticipation. "Anticipation is making me wait . . . it's keeping me waiting." Anticipation is what this season of Advent is all about. Of course, culturally it's mostly about the anticipation to Christmas morning and getting to the presents under the tree. We're being driven, herded even, toward the secular celebration, which is focused on separating us from our money in exchange for a short-term feel good.

If you ask folks who've been around, you'll likely hear that the anticipation is often better than the gift. All the preparation, all the anxiety, all the waiting, and in a brief moment, its over. As Christians, our anticipation is important but the final result of our anticipation is truly worth the waiting. And while we all know that Jesus came historically almost 2000 years ago, what we anticipate now is the coming again into our hearts and minds. This year anticipation takes on an added edge, as we pare back plans for big family celebrations due to the rampant virus. At the same time, we're looking forward to a vaccine and the promise of finally fending off this darkness we call COVID-19. Until then, as in this Advent season, we wait, "in joyful hope."

This year our Faith Formation families will be lighting the Advent Wreath each weekend Mass during Advent. The idea is both to give our young people and families a chance to be a part of the season in a very hands on way, as well as help all of us to understand a bit more why we light this wreath.
If your family would like to take part please contact Jen Metzger 715-490-4362.
