From the Desk of Father Jorge

Festival - Our summer festival is this weekend! I hope to see as many of you as possible. A reminder that all the Masses this weekend are at Marshall due to the Festival.
"Do You Also Want to Leave?" Many people leave the parish and parishes, even the church because they are not focused on Jesus. They are focused on everything but Jesus present in the Tabernacle. They do not come to Adoration or Confession or don't even want to listen to the pastor. In today's Gospel, we see the culmination and the aftermath of Jesus' Bread of Life discourse. His teaching about the Eucharist presents the moment of decision for those who follow him because it requires faith, not just understanding. As a result, "many" disciples of Jesus return to their former way of life. Sound familiar?

Today's readings provide a great way to take a spiritual inventory of how we're living our lives when faced with adversity and difficulty in matters of faith, when our faith is challenged.

The teaching on the Eucharist was too much, and many disciples abandoned the life Jesus had taught them. Their faith when challenged was anemic, and Our Lord already knew who had welcomed grace into their hearts and who hadn't. Those who did persevere in faith and in living as Christ taught were blessed in abundance. Today's individualism often tempts us to try and work out spiritual matters on our own, a la carte, on our terms, and without anyone else's interference, even to the point of changing our focus to the choir, the celebrant, or even other people attending Mass, but the Church has been established and sanctified by Our Lord so that believers can help believers.

Let's examine our lives today and see whether we've drifted from what Our Lord has taught, or doubted that his teaching now continues through his Church.

Often this results from teaching being difficult to accept. Like Peter in today's Gospel, let's believe first, in order to then be convinced through grace that Jesus is the Holy One of God.

Father Jorge

MASS INTENTIONS

Mass Intentions are now being accepted through the end of 2021. All Mass Intentions must be scheduled through the office. Envelopes are located in the entrance to both churches, please fill out and include payment when making your request. There is a limit of five Masses per intention, which includes two weekend Masses per intention.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen
