The Temptation of Jesus in Scripture

Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. After fasting forty days and forty nights, He was hungry. The tempter came to Him and said, "If You are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread." Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

Then the devil took Him to the holy city and had Him stand on the highest point of the temple. "If You are the Son of God," he said, "throw Yourself down. For it is written: " 'He will command His angels concerning You, and they will lift You up in their hands, so that You will not strike Your foot against a stone.' " Jesus answered him, "It is also written: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

Again, the devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. "All this I will give You," he said, "if You will bow down and worship me." Jesus said to him, "Away from Me, Satan! For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve Him only.'" Then the devil left Him, and angels came and attended Him.
Matthew 4:1-11

UPDATE FROM SVDP

The Year of 2020

We received $34,159.37 in donations.

We spent$28,943.89 on rent, food, mortgage, utilities, auto repairs, beds, and clothing for our neighbors in need.

We helped 79 families consisting of 263 individuals. We helped 17 families with a thanksgiving meal through the No Hunger Holiday program, and provided 18 families with food and Christmas gifts through the Giving Tree program.

None of this would have been possible without the generosity of the parishioners here at St. Barnabas.

Thank you for all of your support.

TEMPTATION

The Bible is filled with stories of people fighting temptations in their day to day lives. In the book of Genesis, we read about the serpent tempting Eve to partake of the forbidden fruit. Even Jesus was tempted and put to the test during His forty day fast in the desert.

In Matthew 4, the devil taunted Jesus by telling Him to change the rocks into bread if He was hungry. Jesus told the devil that man does not live by bread alone. The devil continued to by taking Jesus on top of the pinnacle of the temple and gloating Him to jump off so He could prove He was the Son of God because surely the angels would rescue Him. Jesus told Him not to tempt the Lord God. The devil was insistent and showed Jesus that he could offer Him all the riches and power the world had to offer and all Jesus had to do was to bow down and worship him. Jesus again rebuked the devil and sent him away.

Temptation is something that entices us to act against reason and the commandments of God.
Temptations come in different forms and lead to different kinds of sin, some as small and seemingly harmless as gossiping or something as grave and atrocious as murder. All of these situations begin with us being confronted with a choice of either succumbing to temptation or resisting it. Fighting temptations is all part of our lives as Christians. Every day there is an ongoing battle between our spiritual nature, the part that unites us with God, and our human nature which is weak and vulnerable to sin. Unfortunately, it is not always easy to stand fast in our faith and overcome temptation.

The Gift of Free Will and the Armor of God
For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Ephesians 6:12
God gave us the gift of free will and it is through this gift that we are able to make choices that will either bring us lasting peace or destruction. We must remember that as Christians we are caught in the middle of a spiritual battle for our souls. By choosing the righteous path, we grow in wisdom and build our faith leading us to our home in heaven. On the other hand, when we let go of our better judgment and give in to temptation, we isolate ourselves from God and with each sin, we create a deeper wedge between ourselves and our Creator.

Our lives are filled with temptations that can be hostile and opposed to God. Here are some examples:
Money and Greed-Corrupt Power-Lust (sexual immorality)-Gossip and Lies-To do another harm-Pride-Envy-Anger-Gluttony (i.e. eating too much, overuse of your phone / internet)-Sloth (procrastination, laziness)

Practical Steps for Resisting Temptation

No trial has come to you but what is human. God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial he will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it. 1 Corinthians 10:13

Recognize your tendency to sin
Make a list of the bad habits and negative behavioral patterns in your life with which you find yourself constantly struggling to overcome and acknowledge that they are wrong. Identify your trigger areas (things, situations, or people) that cause you to fall into temptation and sin and find ways to avoid these triggers.

Equip yourself with God's Word.
God's Word is our beacon of light for navigating through today's world. Attend Holy Mass and listen and reflect on God's Words in the Mass Readings. Read the Bible and find practical applications for what you learn. There are also many devotional and spiritual books that can help supplement our Bible readings.

Grow close r to the Blessed Mother .
Satan recoils at the sight of the Blessed Mother. Pray the rosary daily. Ask the Blessed Mother to help you succumbing to temptation. Pray "Jesus, Mary, and Joseph help me!"

Repent Immediately.
Fighting temptations is a daily struggle and there will be times when you will fall. Do not beat yourself up, immediately repent. Pray a fervent Act of Contrition and make plans to get to the Sacrament of Reconciliation as soon as possible. Be sincere when you confess your sins and ask your parish priest for help in avoiding sin in the future.

We are living in a world that has increasingly blurred the lines between what is right and what is wrong. Evil is presented as good and true while the good and right is ridiculed as bigoted, intolerant, and old-fashioned. God never changes. God has not moved-man has moved away from God. We were created in His image and to know Him, love Him, and serve Him. Our eternal home is in heaven. Let us do everything we can do to get there!!
