Salt for the Weak

You are in love with someone.
In the midst of a passionate discussion your loved one says to you:
"Who am I to you?"

I imagine this to be the situation in today's conversation between Jesus and the disciples. "Who do you say I am?" or "Who am I to you?"—either one asks for a blunt assessment of the relationship.

How would you respond to Jesus? How do you even go about answering that question?

One clear way is detailed in our second reading from the Book of James (James 2:14-18):

What good is it, brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works?"

In other words, having faith is not just a warm fuzzy or a mental construct or merely ascribing to a certain set of doctrines or beliefs. Faith is alive. Faith is a lived reality. Faith is LIFE.

If someone sees us (you know, good card-carrying, go-to-church people) can they tell by our speech and actions that we have faith? Are we more genuine, more forgiving, more kind, more caring, more helpful, more willing to make sacrifices for others, in a word- more loving?

If not, what good is our "faith"?

Let us "Go forth, glorifying the Lord with our lives."

The New Serenity Prayer

God, grant me the serenity
to accept the people I cannot change,
which is pretty much everyone,
since I'm clearly not you, God.
At least not the last time I checked.
And while you're at it, God,
please give me the courage to change what I need to change
about myself,
which is frankly a lot, since, once again,
I'm not you, which means I'm not perfect.
It's better for me to focus on changing myself
than to worry about changing
other people,
who, as you'll no doubt remember
me saying,
I can't change anyway.
Finally, give me the wisdom to just shut up whenever I think that I'm clearly smarter than everyone else in the room, that no one knows what they're talking about except me,
or that I alone have all the answers.
Basically, God,
grant me the wisdom
to remember that I'm not you.
Amen.

ARE YOUR CHILDREN SIGNED UP TO PARTICIPATE IN 2021-2022 FAITH FORMATION? WE NEED YOU!

Year of St. Joseph—On Sunday, August 29, we completed our Pilgrimage to all the Emmaus Pastorate Churches. Many thanks to all who welcomed us. It was a special day of prayer and discussion.

We spent time on the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. We were more familiar with the Spiritual Works but felt we needed the Corporal Works of Mercy for today's world.

Do you remember them? Teach the ignorant, pray for the living and the dead, correct sinners, counsel those in doubt, console the sorrowful, bear wrongs patiently and forgive wrongs willingly.

Maybe all of us should reflect on these more often. They are listed in the Pilgrimage Prayer Sheet.

We prayed the Rosary for the victims of the ominous flood, for those who helped move church basement items to safety and for all community members monitoring and preparing for a possible flood.

A special note to Lori Keppler and Savanah, her bus with a mission. We visited and prayed throughout the trip. Thanks Lori!!!

We are already planning Pilgrimage #2. Details in bulletin soon.
