Gospel Meditation

We need to get our bearings straight and properly lay life's cornerstone. Otherwise, the rest of our journey will be skewed, and our judgment clouded. We can recall Jesus' famous rebuke of Peter, "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Even he, as one of Jesus' closest friends struggles with understanding things and grasping the big picture. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1881-1955) a renowned and learned French Jesuit priest often has these words attributed to him: "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience." Whether they were actually from his lips, they certainly mimic his thought. These wise words orient us and capture the essence of who we really are.

Many people consider spirituality an option. It is no wonder that they come to this conclusion when they predominantly define themselves using human terms and concepts. Immersed in this world view, they struggle finding any semblance of God because God does not work according to human expectations! This is especially true when suffering and death enter life's picture. If we are only human beings having a spiritual experience, then we wrongly expect our spirituality to serve us as we desire. The human expectation is that my spiritual life is something that is useful in avoiding pain, hardship, and death, not something that gives the courage to live through it!

So, when we protest and get upset with God because our journey is becoming difficult, painful, treacherous, disappointing, and even pointing us toward death, Jesus rebukes us as he did Peter and gently reminds us how to see. It is God who inspires and opens hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, the true meaning of things is understood, and we receive a depth of insight and understanding that is not found following purely human paths. It is not our task to understand God, as God is beyond human understanding. Ours is the joyful privilege of simply resting in God's presence simply because God is God and we are who we are. As spiritual beings having an exciting and adventurous human experience, it is in our DNA to do so. Through prayer we can let go and let be. This is how we lose our lives but then save them. ©LPi

Spiritual Bouquet

A "SURPRISE" GIFT TO DEACON BERNARD BUCKMAN

Deacon Bernie has announced his retirement from active ministry at St. Patrick Parish. Out of sincere appreciation for the gift of his many years of service to our parish family, we are inviting all St. Patrick parishioners to participate in our Spiritual Bouquet.

For those unfamiliar with the practice of Spiritual Bouquets, these are prayers or devotional acts that someone (the giver) has or will offer for someone else (the recipient). The idea is that each prayer is like a flower and that the group is like a bouquet mystically offered as a gift to God for a particular intention. Offerings can be the number of Masses attended, Holy Communions offered, rosaries, time in Adoration, and/or other prayers said, or even good deeds performed. It should include the sender's name and the number of times each offering was or will be done, and it may also include the dates. This is a special way for us to join together in prayer--spiritually supporting our deacon.

To participate, return the card on this page (parish office, collection basket, dropbox) or email the information to parishoffice@stpatsch.org. Deadline is September 26.

Shhhh...don't tell. This is a surprise gift for Deacon Bernie!

Grieving with Great Hope

THURSDAYS AT 6:30 PM - STARTING SEPTEMBER 16

Are you grieving or know someone who has suffered the loss of a loved one?

Grief is a natural, necessary, and highly personal experience unique to everyone. While grief does not follow a timetable, it does ease over time. Facing grief and working through it can result in newfound peace, strength, and purpose.

St. Patrick Parish offers "Grieving with Great Hope", a five-week grief support workshop, presented in DVD format. Presenters will include Fr. John Riccardo, as well as John and Sandy O'Shaughnessy from Good Mourning Ministry, a Catholic bereavement apostolate. They are grief educators, but in this series, you will learn they have experienced profound grief themselves.

This workshop is a prayerful, practical, and personal approach for anyone who is mourning the loss of a loved one. If you have lost a spouse, a child (including pregnancy loss), a grandchild, a parent, a family member, or a friend, you are encouraged to attend.

For more information or to register, please contact Sally at 636-236-2573.

Our Grief Support Group will follow current safety guidelines provided by the Archdiocese and the local health department. For guidelines, visit www.stpatrickwentzville.org/covid19.

VOLUNTEER COMPANIONS NEEDED

We are also looking for companions to journey along with those who are grieving and mourning to help them realize they are not alone. If you feel called to minister in this way, please contact Sally at 636-236-2573.

GRIEF SUPPORT MINISTRY

In times of death and life adjustment to loss, our parish goal is to make sure that every parish family member receives as much love, comfort, and assistance as we can provide. Our Grief Support Ministry at St. Patrick Parish has many wonderful resources to offer adults who have suffered the loss of a loved one.

LEARNING TOGETHER

Sign the Petition

TO SAVE THE HYDE AMENDMENT

The Hyde Amendment, contained in the federal government's annual appropriations legislation, prohibits federal funding of domestic abortions, except in cases of rape, incest, or to save the life of the mother. It is a bipartisan provision that has been part of federal appropriations for 45 years (since 1976). In addition to being widely supported by Americans, it saves lives and respects the consciences of Americans. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops supports this effort to stop Congress from removing the Hyde Amendment. Stop your tax dollars from going to abortion. Visit NoTaxpayerAbortion.com to sign the petition to take action and receive more information.

Inspiration

Live the Liturgy

Rest in the presence of God simply because God is God and you are you. This is all that is necessary. Out of this relationship will come inspiration, understanding, courage, constancy, truth, and virtues of all kind. We will find ourselves knowing the true meaning of things and developing a depth of insight that is not found following purely human venues. It is God who inspires and opens human hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, we understand all of our relationships with a richer appreciation and come to know who Jesus, who speaks of God's kingdom, really is. The trust that is fostered from resting with the Divine One allows us to see that God's ways are not our ways. There is something bigger going on in this picture of life. It is something mystical and magical that seeks to surprise us at every turn. It is not for us to cling to this world and its limitations. Our adventure is to dream bigger and brighter, realizing that it is even in suffering that the radiant light of the dawn will come. God's ways allow for our paths to be rocky, challenging, difficult, and even crippling at times. Purely human eyes cannot understand the 'why' of such experiences. The eyes and mind of God, however, reveal and detail a journey that ends in glorious resurrection joy. When we lose our axis and become too human in our thinking, Jesus rebukes us and gently reminds us how to see. ©LPi
