4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." - Mt 5:10-12a

BLESSING OF THROATS

Jan. 31st & Feb. 1st
At ALL Masses

(Feast of St. Blaise — Feb. 3, 2025)

St. Blaise | February 3

You may be familiar with the annual "blessing of throats" that many parishes in the United States use to commemorate the beloved bishop and martyr. St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life.

History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions, and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived.

Today we remember the saint on his feast day by taking two candles, crossing them against the throat, and saying the following prayer:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—FEBRUARY 1, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

I recently returned from a 10-day Maryknoll Pilgrimage Retreat to Central America. Our travels started in San Salvador and then to Guatemala.

We visited the Shrines of Central American Martyrs. These are the highlights:

- ◊ We visited the tomb of Saint Archbishop Oscar Romero and celebrated mass at the altar where he was assassinated. Archbishop Oscar Romero was targeted and murdered by right-wing death squads in El Salvador in 1980. His outspoken advocacy for the poor and his criticism of military violence led the government to deem him a "communist subversive."

- ◊ We visited the site in El Salvador where martyred religious women, including two Maryknoll Sisters who were raped and murdered in 1980 by the military after picking up their companions from the airport on a rural road.

- ◊ We visited the University of Central America in El Salvador where six Jesuits and their companions were killed by the same military forces. They were rounded out of their bedrooms at night.

- ◊ In Guatemala, we visited beautiful Santiago Atitlan where Father Stan Rother of Oklahoma City gave his life for his Mayan Indian parishioners. Fr. Rother was beatified in Oklahoma City on September 23, 2017.

- ◊ The Guatemalan Civil War was fought from 1960 to 1996 between the government of Guatemala and various leftist rebel groups. The Guatemalan government forces committed genocide against the Mayan population of Guatemala during the civil war and there were widespread human rights violations against civilians.

- ◊ The context of the struggle was based on longstanding issues over land distribution. Wealthy Guatemalans, mainly of European descent, and foreign companies like the American United Fruit Company had control over much of the land leading to conflicts with the rural, disproportionately indigenous peasants who worked the land.

- ◊ It has been documented that 150,000 people died, 50,000 "disappeared," one million became refugees, 200,000 children were orphaned, and 40,000 women became widows.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

- ◊ We learned why these wonderful men and women of faith and many others—caught in a situation of civil war and persecution—were able to give their lives as witnesses of Jesus Christ.

- ◊ It was a profoundly intense and prayerful experience as we heard from eye witnesses of these "witnesses of hope," personal friends, some of whom were present when their friends were assassinated.

* ■ * ■ * ■ *

In our own community, Missy Keegan, on February 1st, marks the 25th Anniversary of her service to St. Patricia Parish. Along with Deacon Charley who will celebrate 49 years of service since May 21, 1977 (the 5th Class of Deacons), Missy and Deacon Charley have been "agents of hope for those in need."

Recently, Pope Leo XIV spoke about the call to be "agents of hope." Through Missy's leadership and our support, we show what Pope Francis referred to as God's "style" of closeness, compassion, and tenderness.

The Pope also urged us today to recognize that even though many we serve in our own communities throughout the year are materially poor, they possess an abundance of trust and resilience. They, too, are witnesses to hope.

WE WELCOME YOU to join us on Saturday, March 7th, at the 4:00 p.m. Mass where we will celebrate this milestone along with her father, Deacon Charley. A St. Patrick's Day themed dinner will follow in the Bishop Birmingham Hall. Please contact the Rectory office to make your dinner reservation (1.708.598.5222 — Mon-Fri - 9am-4pm) for this celebratory event. Cost is $20.00 per person.

Once again, Missy and Deacon Charley, I wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to both of you for all that you and those who work with you each day and put into practice the Lord's admonition to see and serve Him in the poor, hungry, homeless, and other people who are in any kind of need.

May God Bless BOTH of YOU for answering the call to serve in God's vineyard!

Fr. Mike Meany

Presentation of the Lord—Feb. 2, 2026

Question:
Luke's Gospel is the only one to mention the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple. What is Luke trying to communicate here and what connection does it have with Mary?

Answer:
February 2 is exactly forty days after December 25, the nativity of Jesus. Jewish law (Ex 13:2, 12) dictated that Jesus, as the firstborn, be consecrated to God. This was done by the parents as they presented their Son in the Temple.

Jewish law further specified (Lv 12:2-8) that a mother was ritually impure after giving birth, and that she had to wait a set period of time (forty days for a boy) before she was to offer a sacrifice to the Lord for purification.

The convergence of these two Jewish regulations occasions Luke's account of both the Presentation of the Lord and the Purification of Mary. These days the liturgical emphasis is more on the Presentation of Jesus. Luke highlights the role of Simeon and Anna, two righteous Jews who recognized Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah and praised God for being able to see and experience such a marvel in their lifetimes.

Simeon's prayer concerning the special role of Jesus states that Jesus is "a light for revelation to the Gentiles." This phrase eventually originated the custom of blessing candles on this day which were to be used in the ceremonies, rituals, and processions throughout the church year. Thus February 2 is also known as Candlemas Day. This day is indeed a rich feast to be savored.
