A MESSAGE FROM FR. JOHN M. THOMAS

My Dear Parishioners:
Fish are funny creatures. They are always so busy and yet seem so pointlessly busy. Ever on the move, they flit about, dashing and darting hither and thither, full of agitation and enthusiasm. How easily they are alarmed by every ripple, every shadow on the water! Always keyed-up, on the alert, so ready for the unexpected, and yet so easily duped. So quick to react to the first rumours of danger and yet so easily caught.

Dare I say, there is a certain "fishiness" about us, in the spiritual sense. We are among the fish Christ sent Peter out to catch. Like fish, we are immersed in a sea of troubles and distractions, easily alarmed and agitated by every ripple of excitement, every shadow of doubt that crosses our paths. We expend so much energy on what are, in the end of the day, trivialities. We can dangerously dally with temptation, and let ourselves be hooked by unhealthy lures, from cigarettes to status symbols. It is little wonder that Christ showed a marked preference for fishermen when he chose his first apostles.
Today's story reflects the miracle of our own lives. Through his church, Christ has thrown his net over us, a net of grace. He says: "The kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind." And like a fisherman's net it remains unseen beneath the surface. And we are drawn into it, if we allow it to happen. Even in spite of our struggling may we be caught in God's net.

Today's miraculous catch of fish recalls that other big catch to which Christ compared the kingdom of heaven. We may be sharp in our estimates of the world and its ways. We might be accurate in our judgement of individuals. We may be keen critics of those whose behaviour falls short of the demands of the gospel. But we cannot limit the infinite sufficiency of God's grace. There is no telling what size the catch will be until the net is finally drawn in at the end of time. Like today's catch, it may well astonish even the most seasoned of fishermen. Who knows what unique fish will be caught there spluttering and gasping at the breadth of God's mercy? The "big catch" is Christ's answer to those prophets of gloom who would put so many outside his reach.

Blessings, Fr. John

DEVOTIONS, EXPLAINED! - The Rosary

Christians have used beads to mark the recitation of prayers since ancient times. In the 12th century, the Rosary emerged as a meditative devotion centering on significant moments in the lives of Jesus and Mary. In the words of St. Leo XIII, "there is no more excellent way of praying."

The Rosary is traditionally attributed to a Marian vision received by St. Dominic de Guzman (1170-1221). Though scholarship on this point is uncertain, the Dominican Order was undoubtedly crucial in establishing and evangelizing the Rosary as a devotional prayer.

Over the centuries, the formula of the devotion eventually took the shape of 50 Hail Marys divided into five "decades," with each decade focused on a different mystery. The Church has defined the Joyful Mysteries (to be recited on Saturdays and Mondays), the Glorious Mysteries (Sundays and Wednesdays), the Sorrowful Mysteries (Tuesdays and Fridays), and most recently the Luminous Mysteries (to be recited on Thursdays).

Prayer of Belief

Lord,
Help me to see You and to recognize what I see.
Help me to hear Your invitation and to respond.
Help me to join You where and when You call.
Amen

Today, we celebrate "Good Shepherd Sunday" where we reflect on the care and love of Jesus for us.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show that you are indeed the disciple of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, as it will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

STEWARDSHIP & MINISTRIES

Third Sunday of Easter: Stewardship on the Shore

This week's Gospel takes us to the Sea of Tiberias, where the risen Jesus appears once again to His disciples. After a long night of catching nothing, Jesus tells them to cast their nets on the other side. They obey—and suddenly, the nets are overflowing. It's in that abundance that they recognize Him. Then comes one of the most beautiful scenes in Scripture: Jesus, risen and glorious, humbly cooks breakfast for His friends. He feeds them and then turns to Peter and asks, "Do you love me?"—not once, but three times. And with each answer, Jesus gives Peter a mission: "Feed my sheep."

It's a moment of redemption, but also of calling. Jesus is not just forgiving Peter—He's entrusting him with the care of His people. And that's what Stewardship is all about: taking what we've been given and using it to care for others in Christ's name. It's about recognizing that faith isn't just something we believe—it's something we live.

This message feels especially meaningful as we mourn the death of Pope Francis, who passed away just last week. Like Peter, Pope Francis answered the call to "feed my sheep" with his whole heart. His papacy was a model of Stewardship—marked by humility, compassion, and a fierce commitment to the poor and the forgotten. Whether through his call to protect the environment or his insistence that the Church be a "field hospital," Pope Francis reminded us that to love Christ is to serve others.

As we reflect on this Gospel and the life of Pope Francis, we're reminded that Stewardship isn't about status—it's about service. It's about saying yes to Jesus' call, right where we are, and using what we have—our time, our gifts, our presence—to bring Christ's love to the world. At Saint Stephen Cathedral, may we follow his example and carry forward the mission of the Risen Lord: to love deeply, serve humbly, and always be ready to "feed His sheep."

LIVE THE LITURGY: INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus bids the disciples to bring their bounty of fish to the fire, to gather around it, to be warmed and fed. God's invitation is for all of us: come to the fire of His love. Be warmed. Be fed. Then, go forth, and feed the sheep.

GOSPEL QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

The resurrected Jesus reveals to Peter that the cost of following him and leading the disciples will be his own martyrdom. How are you sometimes challenged in following Jesus?

SACRAMENTS

Baptism: Baptisms are usually celebrated during one of the regularly scheduled Masses. Parents are encouraged to call the parish office before the birth of their child for Baptism Preparation information.
