PALM SUNDAY

As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. - Lk 19:36, 37b

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, thank you for your continued support of Sapaterre Mission School in Haiti. This year, 245 children are enrolled, and many of them struggle daily with hunger. Because of your generosity, we are able to provide 5 meals a week through our school canteen, ensuring these children receive the nourishment they need to learn, grow, and thrive. Your Lenten almsgiving will help us continue sustaining this vital feeding program and bring hope to children who depend on it. May God bless you for your faithful compassion and support. Thank you for your generosity and your prayers. May God bless you abundantly for your compassion.

In Christ's love, Fr. Rodlin—"Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." Matthew 25:40 — VISIT US at: www.chohaiti.org

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Palm Sunday of The Passion Of The Lord — March 29, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

During this Holy Week, our journey to new hope found in the Resin Christ continues!

Somedays I can identify with the writer of Psalm 10:

> Lord, why do you stand afar off and hide yourself in times of distress?
> The poor man is devoured by the pride of the wicked: he is caught in the schemes that others have made.

In my pastoral experience and in my own life, I have wondered—where is God when you hear the bad news of your best friend diagnosed with cancer, or a young mother and father goes through the agony of a having a stillborn baby? Yes, too, when you see the horror on TV of innocent people cut down by senseless street violence; or, in particular, this past year the world has been stung by the inhumane killings of old people, women and children through wars.

How do we find hope for ourselves and those who seem caught in circumstance beyond their control?

Where is God?

In all this, we ask for grace to enter the paschal mystery; to walk with Christ through death to new life.

In this journey with the Lord, St. John of the Cross reminds us: we will not make it far, he says, unless we can distinguish the absence of God from our feelings of God's absence. We must be able to move ahead, despite the feeling of absence, confident of God's presence.

Please pray for yourself, for those you love and for the stranger, that even when you feel that God has abandoned you and those in your prayers, you and they will believe in His presence and abiding love.

Perhaps you are in need of some pastoral attention to your marriage or a long-term civil marriage and you do not know what to do. I invite you to give Fr. Chris or me a call and let us discuss your situation. Many times we can address the issue and bring a sense of peace and joy to your relationship. Not all situations can be quickly normalized, but despite what many believe many can be pastorally.

With prayers for you and those you love,
Fr. Mike Meany

St. Patricia Parishioners,

I am happy to share that Father Andrzej Bartosz has been appointed as the new pastor of St. Patricia on July 1, 2026. Fr. Bartosz is a gifted priest who has most recently served as Associate Pastor of St. Brigid. As pastor, Fr. Bartosz will oversee the pastoral and administrative governance of our parish.

When I learned of his appointment last Friday, I was told that I could inform the staff on Monday before the general announcement later in the week. So I called to congratulate him and I invited him to our staff lunch last week Monday. It was a relaxed and enjoyable time together. After Easter, he hopes to meet with parish leadership before he officially becomes pastor on July 1st.

As I approach my retirement as pastor, it has been one of my joys of my priesthood to serve St. Patricia and I am confident that Fr. Bartosz will do a wonderful job in continuing all the great work that has been ongoing in this parish over the years.

Fr. Bartosz shares a letter of introduction in today's bulletin (see p. 5). I ask all of you to keep him in your prayers. Coming into a new parish is both exciting and daunting for anyone, whether you are a priest or a parishioner. We must seek God's grace and ask Him to strengthen Fr. Bartosz as he says goodbye to one community and accepts the Lord's call to shepherd ours.

Let us also pray that God fills our hearts with gratitude for Fr. Bartosz and that we may continue to trust in His Providence for the renewal of our local Church.

Fr. Mike Meany

Fr. Andrzej Bartosz

MARCH 18, 2026

Dear Community of Saint Patricia Parish,

I sense a blessing at this appointment by Cardinal Blase Cupich, supported by Bishop Robert Fedek, to name me the new pastor of Saint Patricia in Hickory Hills. I am looking forward to walking together with you on this pilgrimage of faith, as many great priests have done before, especially Father Mike Meany in recent years.

As I wake up in the morning, I ask myself, " Is that true, or is that just a dream. Of course, we have a couple of months for the smooth transition. Father Mike introduced me to the parish staff and has been of great help to be more familiar with the life of St. Patricia Community, with blessings and challenges. I am open to listening to all of you who are concerned about the good of the Church.

I have been a pastor for 10 years at Our Lady, Mother of the Church in Chicago, until it was combined with St. Eugene and Divine Savior Parishes. After that, I thought that it was time for me to take a sabbatical and get new energy and inspiration in my priestly ministry. The main program of my sabbatical took place at Tantur Ecumenical Institute in Jerusalem. That was a great time.

Currently, I am at St. Brigid Parish in Wadsworth, which seems to be far away from Hickory Hills, but not for prayers. So, as I pray for you, please keep me in your prayers as well. July 1, 2026, is the day when I will come, and we will know each other much better. God could save each of us in separate ways, but His will was to make us a people walking together on this journey of faith.

God bless you,
Father Andrew (Andrzej) Bartosz
