To be in the same room with the True Presence of our Lord and be humbled by His love and grace is an indescribable feeling - you have to experience it for yourself to truly understand. Our parish is blessed with First Friday of the Month Eucharistic Adoration, and I encourage everyone take full advantage, if available, of this incredible access to Christ and humbly seek Him out at every opportunity for worship, prayer and to unburden ourselves to Him. NEXT Holy Hour is FRIDAY, JUNE 5TH—5:30 p.m.

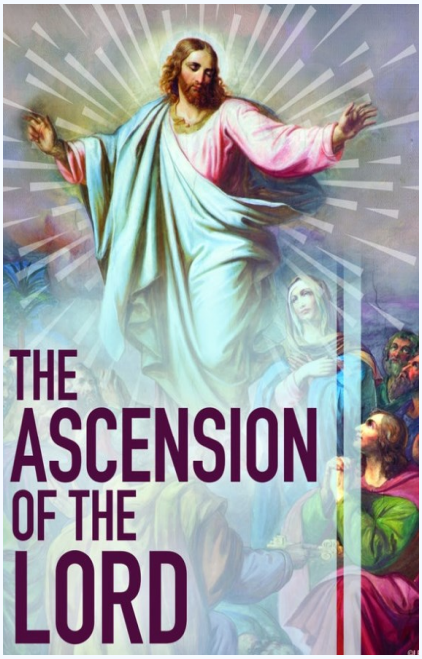
FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER — MAY 17, 2026

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Dear Parishioners,



Over my 46 years of priestly service, I have witnessed people from across the Archdiocese come together to build and enrich people in the faith. In a very special way and throughout my short five years of ministry here, I have had the privilege of witnessing the Holy Spirit at work in the lives of people in this parish. From overcoming the COVID-19 pandemic to navigating the hard work of building up our school, I have remained hearted by the inspired collaboration of individuals from all aspects of parish life.

It is time for us to dream about the next decade and beyond under Father Andrzej Bartosz' leadership as we look forward with hope of leaving a legacy of faith to future generations. Now is a time to return to our roots and once again take up the mission of passing on the faith to others, especially to those who are spiritually hungry.

I remember watching part of a college graduation address where the speaker said, "With this degree you are commissioned to go into the world and make a difference." The imagery conjured up in my mind by the use of the word "commissioned" was pretty powerful. I thought of the commissioning of military officers and the responsibility they take on for the lives of not only their subordinates, but also the lives of those they protect. To me, the word meant something very serious and solemn. It meant huge responsibility and expectation.

At His Ascension, Jesus gives what we call the Great Commission. The word "commission" makes this more than a suggestion or a hope. There is an expectation, a responsibility, and a mandate. Sharing the faith is not just something we should do; it is something we must do. By being a part of this Generation to Generation Campaign, you are able to respond to the call and lead others to become a follower of Christ.

Thank you for considering making a pledge!

Fr. Mike Meany

Honorary Signs Recognizing Deacon Charley and Deacon Norb

An honorary street sign designating the driveway just south of the church was named Deacon Charles Keegan and Deacon Norbert Weitendorf Way. A short prayer service commemorating the occasion took place on May 7th with the school children in attendance.

The Parish Pastoral Council thought this would be a befitting way to recognize these two men for their 50-plus years of service to St. Patricia Parish.

A Catholic deacon is one who is ordained to diakonia, that is, a service to God's People in communion with the bishop and his body of priests. "The principal function of the deacon is to collaborate with the bishop and the priests in the exercise of a ministry which is not of their own wisdom but of the Word of God, calling all to conversion and holiness" (National Directory, USCCB, 2005, p. 16-17).

The ordained deacons will assist the bishop and his priests in ministries of the Word, Liturgy and Charity. This includes proclaiming the Gospel, leading intercessions, preaching, preparing the altar, celebrating baptisms, leading the faithful in prayer, distributing holy communion, witnessing marriages and conducting wake and funeral services. Deacons also identify the needs of the poor and underserved, and shepherd the Church's resources to meet those needs.

Please contact Fr. Chris or myself if you are interested in becoming a deacon.

CONGRATULATIONS Deacon Charley and Deacon Norb!
