Incarnate Word Catholic Church

The Mission of Incarnate Word Catholic Church

Endowed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit,
We, the members of the Incarnate Word Faith community,
dedicate ourselves in a spirit of mutual respect,
to live and proclaim the gospel message of Jesus Christ.

We are called to do this by reaching in to our parish family and reaching out to the universal Church and to the global community, by ministering to their spiritual, educational, social and material needs.
We will do this by using our God-given gifts of time, talents, and treasures in an environment of collaborative ministry, in full harmony with the teachings and traditions of our Catholic faith.

WEST COUNTY SENIOR SINGLE CATHOLICS

We are all in this group for the same reason, we've all lost someone. We are a great group that is here for men and women that would just like to get out and have fun, while dining or a show, play cards, attend Specialty Masses, etc.

We are not a grief group but a very needed group for folks to enjoy others at our meetings, or any of our activities. Our organization welcomes widowed, divorced, and single persons of all faiths. Come join us at our monthly meetings, the second Tuesday of the month, at 6:30pm at Incarnate Word in the Bollinger Hall (lower church hall).

The next meeting is October 14.

To know more about our group, please contact Jane Wibbenmeyer at 314-640-9528 or at janewibby10@sbcglobal.net

Appointments can be made by American Red Cross donor phone application, via the American Red Cross web site or emailing iw.blooddrive@gmail.com with name and your donation time.

Did you know this about the Knights of Columbus?

Over the next several weeks we will publish information from some of the events and announcements from the recent annual Knights of Columbus Supreme Convention.

"Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly addressed the Knights membership during the Order's 139th Supreme Convention, held virtually due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

In his first annual report to the Order, Supreme Knight Kelly urged his brother Knights to find creative solutions to adapt to the challenges of the pandemic and other cultural challenges facing Catholics today.

'On every front, the end of the pandemic is an invitation to action,' the supreme knight said. 'Charity is our highest calling, and it demands our renewed focus. Where there's pain, let us heal. Where there's grief, let us comfort. Where there's need, let us meet it, in new and creative ways.'

Supreme Knight Kelly committed his tenure to strengthening the faith of men and their families. 'Our growth depends on empowering men to be the husbands and fathers that God wants us to be,' he said. 'It is harder than ever, and for that reason, we must push forward as never before. It will require creative courage.'

'Bold in Faith'

When Supreme Knight Kelly, who took office March 1, was officially installed as supreme knight June 11, his first act was to consecrate his administration to St. Joseph.

In remarks at that time and also in his annual report, he called St. Joseph the 'Guardian of the Family' and 'Guardian of the Truth.' He said Knights, too, must be guardians of the family against a hostile culture, and must defend the truth during a time in which 'key truths — about life, marriage, the nature of the family, and the meaning of freedom — are increasingly denied and even vilified.'

A K of C-produced documentary about the life of St. Joseph, titled St. Joseph: Our Spiritual Father, will air on ABC affiliates starting Oct. 10.

Supreme Knight Kelly also announced the Order's support for the National Eucharistic Revival, an initiative to be organized by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

'Working with our bishops and priests, we will strive to renew belief in the Eucharist and build up the Church,' he said. 'We are a force for unity, and we will prove it by pointing to the source of unity. As 'Knights of the Eucharist,' we proudly proclaim this truth.'"
