Quiet time before the Blessed Sacrament is an important and necessary part of a healthy prayer life and a critical part of our faith journeys as Catholics. To be in the same room with the True Presence of our Lord and be humbled by His love and grace is an indescribable feeling - you have to experience it for yourself to truly understand. Our parish is blessed with First Friday of the Month Eucharistic Adoration, and I encourage everyone take full advantage, if available, of this incredible access to Christ and humbly seek Him out at every opportunity for worship, prayer and to unburden ourselves to Him. NEXT Holy Hour is FRIDAY, May 1st—5:30 p.m.

Join us at St. Patricia Church every 1st Saturday of the month. Our next gathering is May 2nd @ 8:00 a.m.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

— April 5, 2026 —

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter!

The evening prayer for Holy Saturday has the hymn of St Paul.

Philippians 2:6-11

Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage;

rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death—even death on a cross!

Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Christ's self-emptying for love of the world is our ultimate model as Christians. And His acceptance of death shows us there is no aspect of the human experience and existence the Lord has not touched, renewed and redeemed.

At Easter, we rejoice because on the other side of feelings of shame, discomfort, fear, or anxiety is a tremendous grace – the grace of experiencing being loved as we are, and then being able to sit at table of the Lord in our messiness, in our full truth, unafraid and fully open to God's love.

So today, perhaps we can reflect of how Jesus may be inviting us to let Him love us as we are and, in doing so, deepen our communion with Him and one another.

May the Risen Lord bless you and yours!

Father Mike Meany

Lifetime Restoration Inc., the roofers are seen here patching the roof over the church's narthex due to the hooks that were placed some time ago to hold the Christmas tree on the point of the roof.

Lifetime has done other patches to the church roof which is 30 years old as are the other roofs throughout the campus. The convent roof needs to be replaced. It is even older and is failing.

Roof repair and replacement is part of the case statement of the Generation to Generation.

Easter 2026

Dear Friends in Christ,

Before the proclamation of the gospel at the Easter Vigil liturgy, there is a deeply powerful and moving moment. It is the joyous triple Alleluia. It not only signals the end of our penitential observances but it expresses our passage with the Lord through his passion, death, and burial. Alleluia is our joyful shout of triumph for as Christ rises from the dead, so do we.

Yet, we may find that our Easter joy has been dampened this year in the face of the daunting challenges of war, the upheavals experienced by migrant families, the great turbulence and polarization in our political life, and the myriad uncertainties about our future and the future of our children. Can we sing Alleluia and mean it?

Experiencing those sentiments myself I am drawn to Saint Paul's words to the Thessalonians. In a moment of suffering loss, confusion and grief he wrote: "But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died." (1Thessalonians 4:13-14)

Listen carefully to Paul's words. He tells the Thessalonians that they can grieve and that they can experience struggle and loss. But they must not grieve or suffer as those who have no hope, as those who do not believe that Jesus died and rose and will take us to himself. Like the Thessalonians, we do not ignore or deny the suffering and grief we are experiencing, but we are not held captive to this moment nor to this world. We hold fast to Christ our hope who draws us into a future defined and shaped by his Resurrection.

So, sisters and brothers, let's not hold back our shouts of joy. Let us sing with gusto our Alleluia for it bears witness to our enduring hope in Christ's Resurrection. It inspires us to do what we can to allow his risen life to take hold of and shape our lives and to empower us to reach out to our wounded world. A blessed Easter to all of you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

ANSWER THE CALL TO SPIRITUALLY RENEW OUR PARISHES THROUGH THE GENERATION TO GENERATION CAMPAIGN

A relationship with Jesus Christ is the most relevant relationship we have in finding meaning to life. These days, however, a majority of our younger generations did not grow up with active faith practice. We can no longer wait for them to come to us. We must seek them out.

Our renewal efforts will focus on walking with people across a path of Christian discipleship and will develop in two ways: Renewal support and formation for parishes and outreach for people exploring faith. Key areas of parish focus include building up parish leaders, offering Christ-centered entry points, building capacity for individual faith accompaniment, establishing small faith communities within the parish, fostering opportunities for spiritual encounter, and enabling faith witness. Additionally, the archdiocese will create tailored online workshops and curated content, hosted on a digital platform, that will invite those that are spiritually hungry.

OUR PROGRESS

- Parish Goal: $855,000
- Total Raised: $382,600
- Percentage Raised: 47%
- Number of Gifts: 42
- Last Updated: 3/31/26

OUR PRIORITIES

- Upgrade security cameras
- Replace worn church carpet
- Improve Parish Center Lighting
- New projection and sound system
- Roof replacement
- Repairs to the aftercare room
- Painting of Birmingham Hall bathrooms
