FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

PENTECOST SUNDAY — MAY 24, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

"And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit." Acts of the Apostles.

Father Ronald Rolheiser reminds us that Pentecost is part of the cycle of life that has five moments. "Good Friday, Easter, The Forty Days, Ascension and Pentecost. We understand Pentecost only when it is seen as the culmination of the other four moments—Death, New Life, Adjusting to the new reality and then receiving the new spirit for the new reality."

These four moments are a constant in our life – accepting our deaths, the new life that is given us, taking time to grieve and let go of the old and then receiving a new spirit for our new life. It is not just a physical experience, but it also involved leaving a school, a job, a way of life. It could be leaving a friendship or adjusting to a new health concern. All of these experiences come to us and not always in a predictable manner.

The Feast of Pentecost reminds us that the Spirit of God brings harmony and binds us together both within ourselves and with all humanity.

The Spirit of Pentecost calls us to unity. While we all are at different points and different times in our lives, we all walk the same path. Christianity is all about entering this ongoing mystery and helping others along the way. In these challenging times when we have widely divergent voices, what about learning to live with - and love such wildly divergent voices, truly believing that each voice has a piece of truth that binds us together?

My friends, it is providential that we celebrate Pentecost on this Memorial Day weekend, a time when we are united in prayer, and remembering those who died for our country in the name of justice and peace. With this in mind, let us pray for the miracle of unity that only the Spirit can provide, and for the gift of a listening heart, avoiding getting stuck on the journey and find ourselves out of sorts.

Come Holy Spirit! Renew the Face of the Earth!

STAY SAFE!

Fr. Mike Meany

THANK YOU AND FUTURE PLANS – MAY 20, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for your prayers and support as I approach, in a little over a month, the end of my time as your pastor. Our time together has been a short five years, but it has been a blessed period in my 46 years of ministry. St. Patricia Parish is the fourth parish that I have ministered to as pastor, my first being at St. Clotilde Parish, 8400 So. Calumet, in Chicago's Chatham neighborhood. I was 39 years old. Ever since, I have tried to lead various parishes across the Archdiocese, all of them having schools.

It has been challenging but very rewarding as I worked with my associate pastors, like Fr. Chris Kituli, lay staff and parishioners. I have been inspired by these dedicated individuals who have served faithfully, making personal sacrifices to build up Christ's Church. I have tried to build a spirit of unity among staff and parishioners alike and believed there are more things that we share in common than what our differences are.

I have a practical side to my personality, most likely coming from my father, who was a pipefitter, which has helped me to deal with the many aspects of being responsible for a large parish plant and diverse congregations.

While I enjoy the day-to-day management responsibilities, it is never ending. There is always something to attend to in addition to the obligations of ministering to the pastoral needs of parishioners. For example, over the years, I have been involved in fundraising efforts to replace roofs and to provide the resources for major renovation projects. During my time as pastor, I have been a part of three major Archdiocesan Capital Fundraising Efforts — "The Millennium Campaign" at St. Damian in Oak Forest, "To Teach Who Christ Is" at St. John Brebeuf in Niles, and now "Generation to Generation" here. Each campaign had its challenges, but, each because of their success left the parish in a better place to serve the parishioners.

When people asked me about my future plans, I have been telling them that I will be retiring from being a pastor and will no longer be responsible for the roofs, fundraising, HR and the daily tasks of running a parish. As many of you know, you are a priest forever, and like Fr. Marc Pasciak, I have always intended to continue to be a priest by celebrating the sacraments and ministering to the good people of faith. My intention was to live in my one-bedroom condo and go out to parishes as Fr. Marc has done.

A couple of months ago, I was at the quarterly Priest's Day at St. Julie's. It is a time when we meet with priests across the Archdiocese to build fraternity and get updates from the Cardinal about current trends in the church and how best to respond to them. At lunch, I was telling various pastors that I was retiring and that I would be available to help out saying mass if they needed me.

Fr. Greg Sakowicz, the Rector of Holy Name Cathedral, approached me and asked for my phone number saying he was interested in having me help out. He is a year older than me and I have known him since our college days at Niles College of Loyola University. Sometime later, we talked by phone and then got together to discuss what he was seeking. He thought I would be a good fit at the Cathedral as the third associate pastor. Father Greg assured me I would have no responsibility for any administration but just say mass and celebrate the sacraments. This would only be a one-year commitment.

At first, I was hesitant to accept his offer to live at Holy Name Cathedral and take up ministry there. However, after more prayer, I decided to seriously consider this new assignment. I discussed the possibility with my spiritual director and my family who all encouraged me to say "yes" — their reasoning being that I am in good health and have lots of energy. I came to see that this would be a good transition from being very busy to a slower pace and still remain active. I met with Fr. Greg and we discussed more of the details.

I learned that the Cathedral rectory has several priests who live there but who work in Archdiocesan offices in addition to the four priests who are responsible to the parishioners of the Cathedral. Fr. Greg went on to explain that while priests are all busy with their various responsibilities, there is a good sense of community.

The more I reflected on this type of future assignment, I thought it would be good for me to live with a group of priests and do ministry at one place instead of running around saying mass here and there. Besides, they have a full-time cook. So I will be getting healthy meals. Therefore, I decided to tell Fr. Greg that I was interested.

While Fr. Greg and I were in agreement, this possible assignment had to then be submitted to the Archdiocesan Priest Placement Board and to Cardinal Cupich for both of their approvals. In the meantime, I was asked to keep it a secret because the Placement Board prefers that all the assignments are announced at the same time and yes, things do and have changed at times at the last minute for various reasons. On Tuesday, May 19th it became official.

One wise retired priest told me that it is important to retire to something rather than to retire without anything planned, especially in the first years of retirement.

On Saturday, June 20th, I will celebrate the 4:00pm mass and the parish is organizing a farewell party for me. It is important we celebrate this milestone together. After the masses on Sunday, June 21st, I will be around to greet and thank you all for your support.

May God Bless You and Yours!

Fr. Mike Meany

GENERATION TO GENERATION CAMPAIGN UPDATE!

Thank you to those who have made commitments to the Generation to Generation campaign at St. Patricia. We are proud to share our campaign has raised over $700,000 from 145 families, putting us at 82% of our goal of $855,000! Thank you to those who participated in our campaign last weekend. Your generosity helped us raise an additional $75,000!

To reach our goal, we need just 26 more families to participate at $100/month, or $6,000 over five years.

Our share of the funds will help us to accomplish our important parish priorities:

- Upgrade security cameras
- Replace worn church carpet
- Improve Parish Center Lighting
- New projection and sound system
- Roof replacement
- Repairs to the aftercare room
- Painting of Birmingham Hall bathrooms
- Repairs to the parish truck

When every household participates in sacrificial giving, we honor the past, strengthen our present, and ensure a brighter future for our faith community. Imagine what we can accomplish if every family participates!

WAYS TO GIVE TO THE GENERATION TO GENERATION CAMPAIGN

Our parish community is blessed to have such generous and faithful parishioners. Your contributions to the campaign will support important parish initiatives and support broader Church initiatives such as spiritually renewing our parishes, supporting our priests, and assisting vulnerable communities.

When considering a gift right for your family, know there are several ways you can give to the campaign. Donors who pledge may determine payment schedules to meet their own charitable or tax needs over five years.

- Stock and Securities
- Qualified Charitable Distribution from IRA

Swim Across America - Swimming for a Cure Sat., Aug. 8, 2026 - 2 miles at Ohio Street Beach, Lake Michigan

Dear Parishioners,

I joined Swim Across America because I believe in their mission and want to help give more families hope. Like many of you, I know so many people who are suffering from cancer. Last year I swam for a fellow swimming buddy, Andy, who was diagnosed with Leukemia and was under treatment for months as a patient at Rush. Unfortunately, he died last year after a long journey.

This year I am swimming and praying for my relative, Kathleen, a young wife and mother of three, dealing with colon cancer. A friend of mine, John, a 45-year old father of three, has prostate cancer stage four and has been out of work for 9 months and forced to travel outside his home and family on the east coast to Chicago for specialized treatment at Rush Hospital, Chicago.

If you are able, please support me by making a donation to help me reach my fundraising goal. I hope to swim 2 miles, depending on the weather and lake conditions.

Founded in 1987, Swim Across America has hosted charity swims with one goal: to raise money for innovative cancer research that would lead to breakthrough treatments and therapies. Since then, Swim Across America has raised over $100M to fund the next generation of pioneers in oncology and cancer-support care.
