Swim Across America - Swimming for a Cure Sat., Aug. 8, 2026 - 2 miles at Ohio Street Beach, Lake Michigan

2 Miles

Dear Parishioners,

I joined Swim Across America because I believe in their mission and want to help give more families hope. Like many of you, I know so many people who are suffering from cancer. Last year I swam for a fellow swimming buddy, Andy, who was diagnosed with Leukemia and was under treatment for months as a patient at Rush. Unfortunately, he died last year after a long journey.

This year I am swimming and praying for my relative, Kathleen, a young wife and mother of three, dealing with colon cancer. A friend of mine, John, a 45-year old father of three, has prostate cancer stage four and has been out of work for 9 months and forced to travel outside his home and family on the east coast to Chicago for specialized treatment at Rush Hospital, Chicago.

If you are able, please support me by making a donation to help me reach my fundraising goal. I hope to swim 2 miles, depending on the weather and lake conditions.

Founded in 1987, Swim Across America has hosted charity swims with one goal: to raise money for innovative cancer research that would lead to breakthrough treatments and therapies. Since then, Swim Across America has raised over $100M to fund the next generation of pioneers in oncology and cancer-support care.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JUNE 21, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

As you can imagine, I have been busy packing my things and reducing the number of books in my personal library as I prepare to move to Holy Name Cathedral ("HNC"), where I will have a very small two-room associate pastor suite—like what Fr. Chris now enjoys! This will be my last weekend at St. Patricia. I need to take a break before I start at HNC July 1st.

One book I will not let go of is a scriptural reflection on St. Paul's letters by Jerome Murphy-O'Connor, OP entitled, "Becoming Human Together, The Pastoral Anthology of St. Paul." In the inside front cover, I wrote that I received it when taking classes for my Masters in Applied Spirituality at the University of San Francisco in July of 1987. Fr. Murphy-O'Connor taught the class and used his own book. Incidentally, I met him several ensuing years both at the famous Ecole Biblique in Jerusalem where he was a Professor of New Testament when my brother Fr. John, OP lived there for three years. I also took his class at the Catholic Theological Union, in Chicago and had dinner with him and was at a lecture that he gave at a parish in Chicago's north suburbs. So, I have a personal connection to him and his writings.

I have found that St. Paul's letters animated my pastoral style and Fr. Murphy-O'Connor helped make them come alive in my imagination. He writes in the forward of this book, "Despite the prevailing mood of pessimism, people always crowd to the window of promise. They continue to dream of better things, because only such withdrawal from reality makes life bearable." His oversized Irish personality made him a dynamic professor that kept your attention, which also drew me to his perspective on St. Paul, Christ and the world. And yes, like some other Irish folks I know, sometimes he was too much! He has now has returned to the Lord. May He Rest in Peace.

My thoughts are from his book and from my years reflecting on St. Paul's letters. I write this as a farewell letter to you who have been loyal parishioners, trusted colleagues and, yes, my friends.

St. Paul wrote his letter to a particular community; and, therefore, his writings are practical and are dealing with situations that he was fully aware of. He is not writing a thesis in the abstract, but is trying to be a cheerleader while also being a problem solver. He did not need Christ's gospel to be aware that human situation was distorted and twisted. This awareness was communicated to him by two cultures with which he came in contact, and by the conditions in the port cities in which he worked. His first-hand experiences told him that they were hardly conducive to a favorable view of human nature. Therefore, his conviction that humanity had fallen had nothing to do with Christ. However, his belief in the humanity of Christ helped him to understand the conditions and factors that contributed to this state of affairs and more importantly a way out.

Thus, St. Paul was very aware of the stresses and strains of a fallen human existence. He writes that on one hand we have the desire for authenticity, to be what God intended us to be, that is to be directed towards "life." This instinct, however, is overridden by a stronger orientation which leads to a "doing things that lead to 'death.'" "I do not do the good I want, but the evil that I do not want is what I do. Now, if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it but Sin which dwells within me." (Rom 7:19-20.) St. Paul zeros in on the fact that humanity loses its true identity despite all the striving. He believed that humanity has the sensation of being no longer in control of its own destiny.

In our time, Pope Leo XIV in his new encyclical on AI: "Magnifica Humanitas: On the Protection of the Human Person in the Age of Artificial Intelligence" offers a decisively important vision for our human future, not only for people of faith but for all people of good will. Like St. Paul who always starts his letters in a hopeful tone, Pope Leo XIV recognizes the promises of humanity and the better life that we can enjoy through AI; but, again, like St. Paul, he warns of the possibility of the downward spiral for the human family. Everything depends on our response and the path forward that we pursue together. I encourage you to read the encyclical.

We can learn a lot from St. Paul's letters as we face a new moment in history. He accurately sensed the malaise affecting humanity which is relevant for our day. The nameless anxiety that permeates our world is rooted in the hopeless feeling that things have gone too far to ever be brought back under control. There is no need to list the behaviors that have risen as a result of this frustrated restlessness.

My friends, we need to understand our situation in order to get out of it and St. Paul helps us to get a handle on the human condition. St. Paul believes we cannot blame anyone but ourselves for our moral collapse which leads him to believe that we can also bring about transformation of ourselves and the world. Christ, in all His humanity shows us a better way and like a good friend Jesus gives us the strength and vision to find this path to greater integrity. Remember, He calls us "friends." Christ broke the bonds of sin which bound humanity. Christ's death brought "life" where there had been only "death." We have a new understanding of our situation, "It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me, and the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith."

Returning back to AI: We all see the news that clearly makes us aware of how fragile human dignity is and how often it is violated. Those who have power - in any of its forms - can build up or alternatively tear down human dignity. AI is a form of power. It can be exercised in a constructive way, especially when people are in respectful dialogue that recognizes the inherent goodness of a human being like St. Paul did. When individuals willfully exercise that power, for example for their profit, that damages human dignity by marginalizing, excluding and even domination of others. Obviously, the stakes are high.

Friends, the tensions between the powerful and the weak that were present in St. Paul's day are still there today, but it is not hopeless - we have a path out. This grace we receive at Confirmation, we now have an "Advocate" — "The Spirit of Truth." "Come Holy Spirit, renew the face of the earth."

THANK YOU FOR ALL YOUR LOVE AND SUPPORT! FAREWELL!! → Fr. Mike Meany

Dear Parishioners,

As I end my term as your pastor, I want you to know that I am filled with tremendous gratitude for all your love and support over the past five years.

First of all, I am grateful to Fr. Chris Kituli and our whole pastoral staff who have been there for me and more importantly for you, the parishioners. I do not know how I would have survived the past several years without them.

Staff, thank you for the laughs, the venting sessions, and for always having my back.

Secondly, I am grateful to you the parishioners.

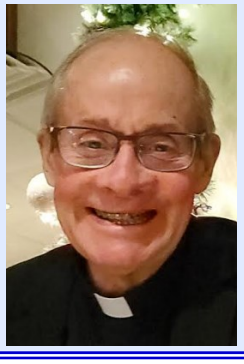
When I was appointed your pastor, I heard over and over again from other priests and from the leadership of the Archdiocese that the parishioners of St. Patricia are good people and that I would be blessed to be their pastor.

Yes, I have come to appreciate your sincere goodness as I say farewell.

I have had a variety of assignments over my 46 years of priestly service — each were unique and challenging for me in their own way. But at St. Patricia, I found a willingness and enthusiasm right from the start to get things moving ahead. Perhaps it was the desire to re-ignite the parish after COVID-19, but I would like to think it was the Holy Spirit stirring in the hearts of all of you.

I feel blessed for having the privilege of coming to know and pray with you. Yes, we have had our challenges and at times disagreements, but I have come to understand that it was always rooted in a deep love for this community of faith.



May God Bless You and Yours in The Years Ahead.

FAREWELL! Fr. Mike Meany

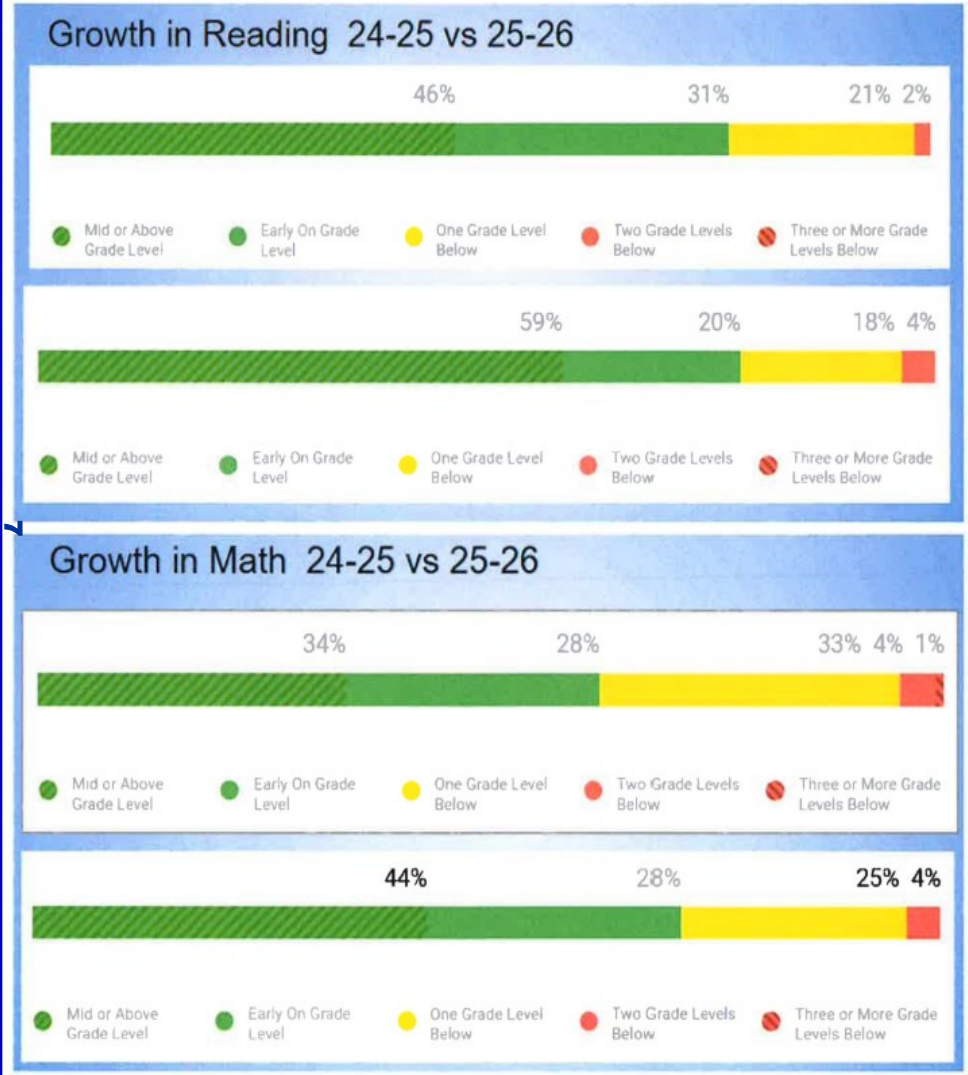
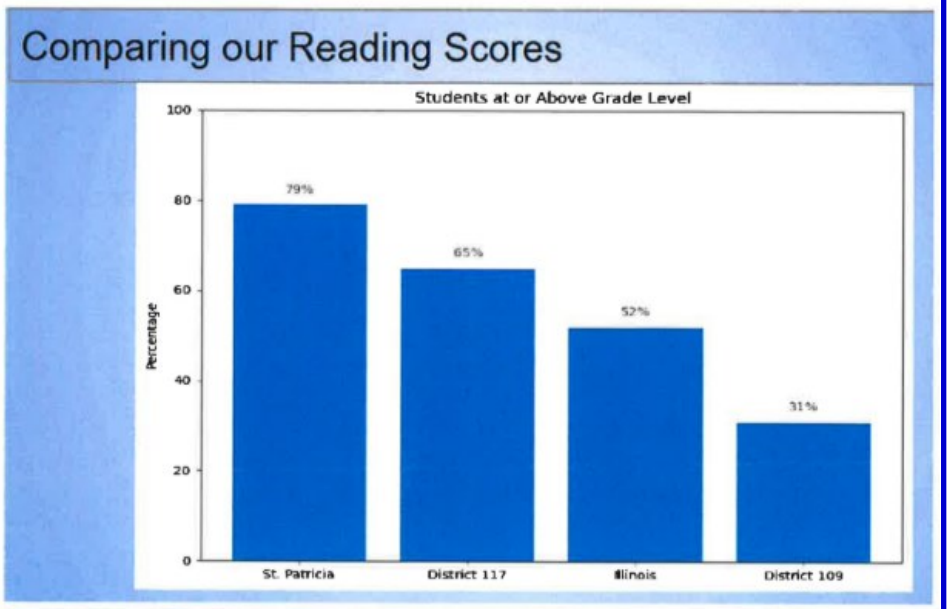
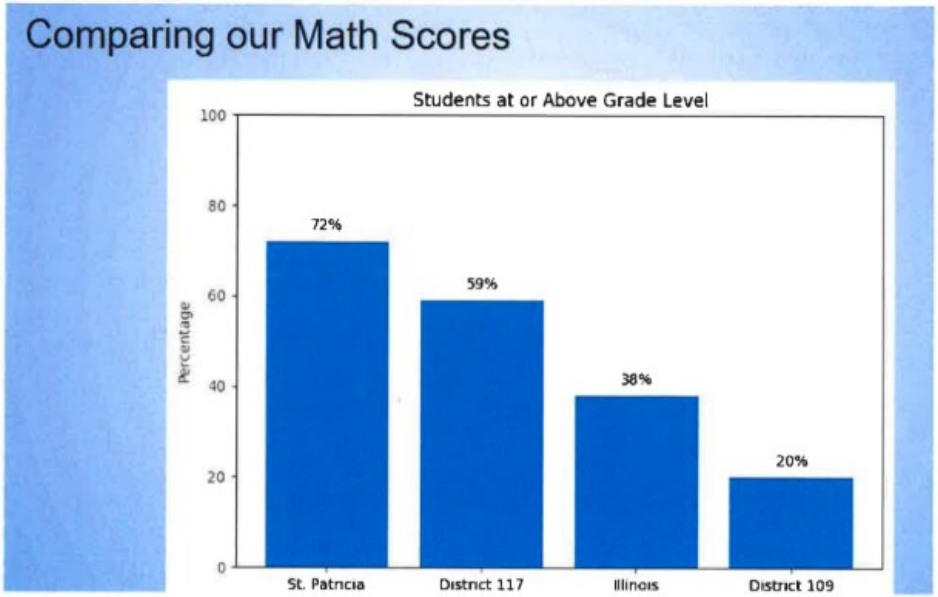
STATE OF THE SCHOOL

On June 3rd, the school hosted a "State of the School" address to update parents on accomplishments of the past year, and goals for the year ahead. Below are some of the highlights.



Over the past school year, our Reading scores have increased by 13% and our Math scores have increased by 10%.





St. Patricia has a higher percentage of students on or above grade level than our local school district, North Palos 117, and a significantly higher percentage than our neighboring district, Indian Springs 109 and the state of Illinois average.

RESULTS = Our Graduates ■ For the past 4 years, St. Patricia has had an 8th grader score in the top 95th percentile on their high school entrance exam, earning them a half scholarship or better for their entire high school career. ■ Both this year and last year, our 8th graders received a total of over $30,000 in merit-based scholarships. ■ Both years, only 6 students were attending tuition-based high schools — the remainder were attending public schools, and did not pursue scholarships.

May God Bless All Our Fathers, Living and Deceased!

Would you or someone you know have a broken or old rosary that you do not know what to do with?

Look no further.

There will be a box in the back of the church for the next 2 weekends in the gathering space where you can donate them.

The rosaries will be repaired and donated to the Missions.

HOLY NAME MEETING June 10, 2026

The St. Patricia Holy Name Society "Honored" Fr. Michael Meany by hosting his final meeting and retirement from our St. Patricia Parish. ■ Thank You Fr. Meany for serving our Parish & supporting our Holy Name Society during your stay with us. ■ Fr. Meany was greeted with a "Great Retirement and Congratulations" cake wishing him best wishes on his retirement. ■ It was also our honor to welcome our new Pastor, Fr. Andrzej Bartosz, and thank him for joining our meeting and wishing Fr. Meany a healthy and happy retirement. ■ Fr. Meany installed and gave his blessing to our new Holy Name Board for the upcoming season 2026/2027 to Joe Mancuso/President, Chris Tanis/Vice President, Hal Budach/Treasurer, and Hank Oszakiewski/Secretary. ■ As has been a tradition, a check from the Holy Name Society was presented to Fr. Meany and Fr. Bartosz to help support our Parish and School. ■ Member, Mike Stepien, was presented with the "Man of the Year Award." ■ We are thankful to all those Members of the Holy Name Society who honored Fr. Meany and Fr. Bartosz, AND who weathered a "literal" storm with one of the largest membership attendances ever! ■ Despite the 85°F temperature and high humidity at the Prime Time Restaurant, we all had great fun sharing our last time together with our thank you's and well wishes to Fr. Mike Meany. ■ Thank you to Member Maged who provided the great photos.
