To be in the same room with the True Presence of our Lord and be humbled by His love and grace is an indescribable feeling - you have to experience it for yourself to truly understand. Our parish is blessed with First Friday of the Month Eucharistic Adoration, and I encourage everyone take full advantage, if available, of this incredible access to Christ and humbly seek Him out at every opportunity for worship, prayer and to unburden ourselves to Him. NEXT Holy Hour is FRIDAY, August 7th—5:30 p.m.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
— JULY 12, 2026 —

Dear Sisters & Brothers in Christ,

Jesus invites us today to the beautiful Parable of the Sower, which is also called the Parable of the Soils. The parable told by Jesus we can find in Matthew 13:1-23, Mark 4:1-20, and Luke 8:4-15.

A farmer scatters seed. The seed falls on four types of ground, representing different human hearts and responses:

- Path (hard soil): Seed is snatched away immediately (no understanding; Satan steals it).
- Rocky/shallow soil: Sprouts quickly with joy but withers under trials/persecution (no deep roots).
- Thorny/weedy soil: Grows but is choked by worries, riches, and worldly desires (unfruitful).
- Good soil: Produces a bountiful crop—30, 60, or even 100 times what was sown.

This is the positive example. Jesus explains it directly:

> "But the seed falling on good soil refers to someone who hears the word and understands it. This is the one who produces a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown." (Matthew 13:23)
>
> In Mark: "…those who hear the word, accept it, and bear fruit…" (Mark 4:20).
>
> In Luke: "…those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, retain it, and by persevering produce a crop." (Luke 8:15).

Good soil symbolizes a receptive, prepared heart that:

- Hears the gospel attentively.
- Understands it (grasps its meaning and truth).
- Accepts/retains it (believes, holds fast, perseveres).
- Bears fruit (spiritual growth, obedience, character like the fruit of the Spirit in Galatians 5:22-23, sharing the gospel, good works).

The yield varies (30/60/100-fold), showing genuine believers can be fruitful to different degrees, but all true good-soil hearts produce some lasting fruit. This contrasts with the other soils, which ultimately do not.

- ⇒ The same seed (God's powerful word) is sown everywhere—the difference is the soil (the condition of the heart).
- ⇒ Good soil isn't "naturally" good; Scripture emphasizes God's grace in preparing hearts (regeneration, the Holy Spirit softening and enabling faith). It is not self-effort alone.
- ⇒ Jesus ends with: "Whoever has ears, let them hear" — a call to self-examination and responsiveness.
- ⇒ The parable encourages sowers (preachers, witnesses) that while many responses may be negative, good soil will produce a harvest.

Let us be a good soil for the Word of God. I have no doubt God scatters a lot of blessings on us.

Enjoy all of God's blessing!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Gardener and the Soil

I began writing this piece by googling "how do you make soil fertile?" which should tell you everything you need to know about my own abilities as a gardener.

I remember seeing a packet of seeds in the store one summer as a child and convincing my mother to buy them. They were delphiniums, which bloom into a beautiful cone shape if you know what you're doing. Alas, I didn't. I chose for my garden a particularly dry spot of earth right next to my backyard playset, scattered the seeds, congratulated myself, and went on my merry way. I returned occasionally to water the area, but only when I remembered to.

Nothing grew, not even a little sprout. I was more than heartbroken — my faith was shaken. I had planted these seeds! I had watered them! (A little.) There was sunlight! All my childhood books and rhymes said this was all you needed. Was it all a lie?

Of course it wasn't a lie. Seeds need soil, sunlight, water, and oxygen — good soil, adequate sunlight for whatever the plant is, and consistent water.

So what seeds need more than anything is a gardener. (At least, delphiniums do.)

When I hear the parable of the rich soil and the rocky ground in the Gospel of Matthew, I often miss the point. I think Jesus is trying to give me a message about how I should be. "Be better." That's what I think he's telling me.

I forget that I am only the soil. I cannot enrich myself; all my efforts to do so will come to nothing. What he is telling me is to ask the gardener: "Make me what I need to be." ©LPi
