The Story of the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Pope Pius XII established this feast in 1954. But the Blessed Virgin Mary's queenship has roots in scripture. At the Annunciation, Gabriel announced that Mary's Son would receive the throne of David and rule forever. At the Visitation, Elizabeth calls Mary "mother of my Lord." As in all the mysteries of Mary's life, she is closely associated with Jesus: Her queenship is a share in Jesus' kingship. We can also recall that in the Old Testament the mother of the king has great influence in court. (Franciscanmedia.org)

Quiet time before the Blessed Sacrament is an important and necessary part of a healthy prayer life and a critical part of our faith journeys as Catholics. To be in the same room with the True Presence of our Lord and be humbled by His love and grace is an indescribable feeling - you have to experience it for yourself to truly understand. Our parish is blessed with First Friday of the Month Eucharistic Adoration, and I encourage everyone take full advantage, if available, of this incredible access to Christ and humbly seek Him out at every opportunity for worship, prayer and to unburden ourselves to Him. NEXT Holy Hour is FRIDAY, September 4th—5:30 p.m.

Join us at St. Patricia Church every 1st Saturday of the month.
Our next gathering is September 5th @ 8:00 a.m.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

TWENTIENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
— AUGUST 16, 2026 —

Dear Sisters & Brothers in Christ,

Today we celebrate Summer Mission Sunday at our parish with the visit of Father Louis Golamari. When we look on liturgical readings, we could have an impression that the readings are selected exactly to the theme of mission. Gospel reading could take some more time to digest it and see God's will to save all mankind; when we look at the reading from Isaiah, we can see it instantly, especially with the last verse of today's first reading.

"My house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples."

In Isaiah 56, God speaks of a future time of salvation and inclusion. Foreigners (Gentiles) and eunuchs—people previously restricted or excluded from full participation in temple worship—who join themselves to the Lord, keep the Sabbath, and hold to His covenant will be welcomed:

> "These I will bring to my holy mountain,
> and make them joyful in my house of prayer;
> their burnt offerings and their sacrifices
> will be accepted on my altar;
> for my house shall be called a house of prayer > for all peoples." (Isaiah 56:7)

The vision is expansive: God's house is not limited to ethnic Israel but is open to people from every nation who turn to Him.

During the cleansing of the temple, Jesus drives out the merchants and money changers and cites this prophecy:

> "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it a den of robbers." (Mark 11:17; see also Matthew 21:13 and Luke 19:46)

He contrasts the temple's intended purpose—a place of prayer and worship open to the nations—with its corruption into a commercial space that hindered true access to God.

In the Old Testament, the temple was the designated place of God's presence where prayer, sacrifice, and worship occurred.

The phrase "house of prayer for all people" points forward to a more inclusive reality fulfilled in Christ: through His death the dividing barriers are removed, and people from every background can approach God directly.

Youth carrying the cross and icon at World Youth Day in Sydney— Photo by Fr. Andrzej

In the New Testament and Christian understanding, the "house of prayer" extends beyond a physical building to the community of believers (the church) and ultimately to the presence of God among His people from every tribe, tongue, and nation.

The phrase remains a powerful biblical vision of God's heart for inclusive worship, prayer, and welcome for all who seek Him.

May God Bless You!

MISSIONARY COOPERATION APPEAL 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Peace in the name of Jesus, the Good Shepherd. I am Fr. Louis Golamari, originally a priest of the Archdiocese of Hyderabad, India, and now serving in the Diocese of Green Bay as Administrator of St. Peter the Fisherman Parish in Two Rivers, WI. I am glad to share with you the missionary work in my Archdiocese ahead of my visit to you on the weekend of August 15-16.

The Archdiocese of Hyderabad was erected on September 1, 1886, in southern India. It has an area of 30,814 square kilometers and a population of 14 million, while Catholics comprise only 0.8% of the population. The literacy rate in this area is approximately 55%. Approximately 80% of people living in rural areas work as daily agricultural laborers for meager wages. About 45% of these people live below the poverty line. This year, the delayed rains have already caused considerable anxiety and worry. The following are our needs and priorities for this year in our Missionary Journey:

- Direct Evangelization among the rural Mission Stations
- Faith Formation of Youth & Adults
- Care of the Elderly and the Widows
- Education for poor children

The Archdiocese of Hyderabad operates several mission stations that address the spiritual, economic, and social needs of the poor and underprivileged by providing essential life needs. We manage orphanages for disadvantaged children, educational institutions, dispensaries, and other charitable initiatives. While we engage in numerous social work programs aimed at assisting the poor and needy and empowering women, we also prioritize evangelization and the training of the laity in the path of discipleship within the Catholic communities.

Assuring you of my prayers and looking forward to seeing you,

Fr. Louis Golamari

Ciao Bella: Thank You for Your Generosity! A heartfelt grazie mille to everyone who brought a non-perishable food item to our Ciao Bella event! Your generosity was truly amazing. We collected so many boxes of food that we were able to support two local food pantries in our community. Thank you for helping make Ciao Bella not only a wonderful evening of fellowship and fun, but also an opportunity to share our blessings with those in need. Your kindness and generosity truly made a difference!

Grazie mille for helping us spread a little love beyond our parish walls!
