From Father Simon

I have often wondered why the last Sunday in Ordinary Time came to be celebrated as the Feast of Christ the King. A title that, too often, speaks to power and control.

In Jesus' time, the people looked to Him in hope that He would be their King: that He would fulfill the promises of the Old Testament; that He would save them from the ways in which they suffered under their masters; that He would save them from the perils of life's journeys. That did not happen. He did not become the King they looked for. They had to grow into a new understanding.

In 1925 Pius XI proclaimed that this Sunday would be celebrated as the feast of Christ the King. It was a time of great upheaval in the world as totalitarian governments were on the rise and the threat of abusive control by secular leaders was growing. And so, in the wisdom of the Church, the people of God were called to remember that Jesus is our King, who rules with truth, service, love.

We have been invited into the story of a leader who lived with humility and suffered humiliation. We have learned the values He taught. He showed us how to serve rather than to be served, how to forgive rather than seek vengeance or retribution. He showed us how to be concerned for and respect the poor, not to cause them pain. He did not rebuke those who taunted Him. This 'King' of ours suffered at the hands of those who did not know compassion, and yet, He challenges us to be compassionate.

We have a King like no other. We celebrate Jesus as our true king, a king who shepherds us to treat our neighbors with mercy and love. Jesus is our true king and judge, despite the leaders all around us. Jesus' style of leadership calls us outside of ourselves to lead with compassion. Today's Gospel tells us that Jesus judges us based on our acts of mercy. Jesus invites us to identify with the stranger and poor. Whether we are hungry, thirsty, or homeless, we must act with mercy towards others. Jesus identifies with the least among us. Do we find Christ in those who are in need? Do we follow Jesus' example of service? The heart of Jesus' message is that as we show mercy to others, we show mercy to Him. Jesus is our shepherd, our king, and our judge. We know He will judge and lead us with compassion and love.

During this week we celebrate Thanksgiving. It is the time of year when we gather with family and friends, feasting on food and football, with a simple yet profound appreciation of the many gifts we have received. Let us remember the blessings we have received from God, so that we can be a more thankful people every day. We have a long litany of reasons to have grateful hearts, including the gift of life itself and the gift of faith in a God who loves us and is very near to us.

In the spirit of gratitude, I thank Fr. Charles Rodrigues, SJ for his service to our community. Fr. Charles has been coming to us from Loyola University for over a year. As he is now the Provincial's Assistant for Formation for the Jesuits for the entire country, Fr. Charles will be only able to celebrate Mass with us when his schedule permits. Please thank him when you see him this weekend.

For the past few weeks you have heard about our new Church Management software and new online giving platform – PUSHPAY. We invite all those who give electronically to move from over from GiveCentral to PUSHPAY. You will find information on PUSHPAY and the QR code in the Stewardship section on page 16. Please note that this is a new sign-up. Your information from GiveCentral cannot be migrated since they are confidential records. I also ask those who give via envelopes to please consider electronic giving. As you make this transition, please also consider increasing you weekly giving by 3 to 5 percent, especially if you have not done so in the recent past. Thank you for your support of the parish.

Blessings!!!
- Fr. Simon

Today's Readings

First Reading: As for you, my sheep, says the Lord God, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

Psalm: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Second Reading: When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all. (1 Cor 15:28)

Gospel: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." (Mt 25:31-32)

Reflection Questions

First Reading: Ezekiel reveals God's plan to personally examine and shepherd those sheep in his flock who are scattered, lost, or sick. Do you have any family members or friends who could use your help in the coming days?

Second Reading: Paul teaches that Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead is actually the beginning of God's plan to subject everything to Himself and "be all in all." How do you think we ought to be living into the future God is building?

Gospel: Jesus speaks to his disciples about the final judgment of all nations at the end of time before the Parousia, the return of Jesus. How are you serving those on the margins of society?

6:45 p.m. Program Begins

7:00 p.m. Candle Lighting

The Elizabeth Ministry at Queen of All Saints parish is honored to host the local gathering of the Compassionate Friends Worldwide Candle Lighting service this year.

Everyone is welcome to attend and participate in this annual ecumenical, non-denominational Christian service.

The service will also be livestreamed on qasparish.org for those who wish to join us from home.

Every year, on the second Sunday in December, The Compassionate Friends Worldwide Candle Lighting unites family and friends around the globe in lighting candles for one hour to honor the memories of the sons, daughters, brothers, sisters, and grandchildren who left too soon, for any reason, at any time.

As candles are lit at 7:00 p.m. local time, hundreds of thousands of persons commemorate and honor the memory of all children gone too soon. What started in the United States in 1997 as a small internet observance, has since swelled in numbers as word has spread throughout the world of the remembrance of children who have died, but will never be forgotten.

The Compassionate Friends
Supporting Family After a Child Dies

The Compassionate Friends provides highly personal comfort, hope, and support to every family experiencing the death of a child, and helps others better assist the grieving family.

Today's Readings

"...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me."
Matthew 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. However, real generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient to us, when it's not on our schedule but on the other person's timeline.

Welcome to Pushpay

Your generosity of time, talent and treasure enables us to help share the Good News of Jesus Christ and expand our mission in the community around us, which is why I want to make sure everyone at Queen of All Saints is aware of our new mobile/online giving platform called Pushpay.

Pushpay better connects with our other parish technology systems so that you can make quick, easy and secure contributions to our parish family. Using this new tool also means lower transactional costs for the parish, allowing more of your gift to further support our mission.

Please note that this is a new sign-up. If you already give electronically through GiveCentral, know that your information cannot be migrated since they contain confidential records.
