STEPHEN MINISTRY INFO SESSION
Sat. Dec 11th, 3-4pm, Social Hall

Please join us! We're so excited to help others learn about Stephen Ministry! It is making a significant difference in the lives of people in other local parishes and the community. This session is intended to help parishioners learn about this Christ-centered confidential caring ministry through discussion, watching a video presentation, and handouts. There will be plenty of time for questions as well. Visit the Stephen Ministries site:

www.stephenministries.org or call the Stephen Ministry Leaders for more info: Bill Doucette, 319-541-9814 or Julia Blake, 319-541-1906.

Stroll Through "Little Bethlehem"
Sat, Dec 18—Sun, Jan 2, 2022

Everyone is invited to stroll down the west corridor of our church building to visit a miniature Bethlehem! There you can marvel at the beautiful craftsmanship of several Nativity sets from around the world.

Depending on the country of origin, some are exquisitely detailed while others may be more simple. They are "on loan" from a parishioner for our enjoyment through Epiphany! Please visit the display to appreciate the sets and reflect…

"O, Little Town of Bethlehem."

ST. PATRICK GUILD Tickets

You could win $150!!

Purchase a ticket for just $25!Drawings held the first weekend of each month, beginning Jan 1, 2022. Winner to be contacted by phone and name posted on www.stpatsic.com/150, bulletin, flocknote.

Winter Book Club for JH/HS Youth (and Parents) Begins Sunday, Jan 16th

Beginning in January thru March we'll once again have a monthly Winter Book Club on Zoom, reading Catholic YA/teen fiction, open to both JH/HS youth and their parents. (Last year we had 8 students and 5 parents reading the books and it was a lot of fun!) To see this year's book list and meeting dates, go to the youth group website: www.wearerooted.net/bookclub.

Email sofia@stpatsic.com (or use the Connect page on the youth group website) to sign up for the book club so you can receive the Zoom links. You will need to order your own books and have time to read at least part of the first one by Jan. 16th, so don't wait too long to sign up!

Meetings will be on Zoom, the 3rd Sunday of the month, 5-6 pm.

December Adoration & Games

Thursday, Dec 16th, 6-7:30pm. JH/HS youth are invited to meet in the Zaga for 30 minutes, join Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in the Main Church at 6:30pm, then head back down for fun and games.

Cookie Exchange & Part 2 of Saint Joan of Arc Movie

Sunday, Dec 19th, 5-6:30pm, Zaga Room, lower level.

St. Lucy |Feast Day December 13

A name that means "light," St. Lucy (283 – 304) is the patron saint of those blind or suffering with eye trouble. Not much is known about her life, except that she was determined to remain a virgin and thus refused marriage. History tells the story of a frustrated suitor who eventually accused St. Lucy of being a Christian (at crime at the time), and she was executed in Syracuse, Sicily, in the year 304.

Today, we celebrate a number of traditions that incorporate symbolic meaning of St. Lucy as the "bearer" of light in the darkness of winter. This is particularly seen in Scandinavian countries, with their long dark winters. There, a young girl dressed in a white dress and a red sash (as the symbol of martyrdom) carries palms and wears a crown or wreath of candles on her head. In Denmark, Norway and Sweden, girls dressed as Lucy carry rolls and cookies in procession as songs are sung.

KIDS' KORNER

Sharing the Gospel:
How can you show you love God? Instead of keeping all of your clothes and food, share some with people who don't have any. Be happy and thankful for all God has given you. When you love God more than money, you'll be happy to share.

Something to Draw:
Draw a picture of yourself sharing a snack with a classmate who has none.

Mission:
The next time you go grocery shopping with your parents, ask if you can pick out some foods to share with the poor. As a family, talk about how thankful you are for the many ways God takes care of you.

Prayer:
Dear God, help me to share happily with others.

Everyday Stewardship: Recognize God in Ordinary Moments

"The Well that Never Dries Up"

Depending on how your mood is today, the words of Paul will hit you differently. "Rejoice always," he tells us. Well, if your football team is poised to win this weekend or next, maybe you're really feeling this vibe. But if you've got a long slog at work ahead of you this week and a to-do list that only seems to grow and never shrink, it may make you grumble. "Rejoice always? Always? When I'm tired? Cranky? When I'm sick of doing and giving? Thanks, Paul. I'll be sure to scribble that phrase on a Post-It and stick it to my dashboard for when some entitled punk inevitably cuts me off on tomorrow's morning commute."

When we feel this way, we know it's time to head back to the well. Think of all the places in Scripture where God compares His love, His mercy, His salvation to water. And not just any water — living water, water that moves. God's strength is not a stagnant puddle sure to evaporate and disappear. It's water you can keep coming back to. It's water that never dries up.

Which is good news for us, because we never stop failing to do what we should, never stop failing to feel the joy and the compassion and the selflessness we are called to. We need a source of living water if we are going to 'rejoice always.' To be everyday stewards, we need a well that never empties.

The fountain of salvation never dries up. There is always more there for us to draw from. It's a sign of His commitment — so let us, in turn, be committed to Him.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
