Women's Club News

GA Women's Club Welcomes You!

Please join us for our next meeting on Monday, October 11 at 6:30 pm in Peter O'Neill Hall (or via zoom). We will be discussing our Cookies and Crumbs (November 6/7) and Turkey Bingo events (November 7) as well as the upcoming Pie Sales scheduled for November, 20/21. All women of the parish are encouraged to attend. Email womensclub@guardian-angels.org with any questions or for the zoom link if you can't make it in person. We would love to see you!

Crafters Corner

If you missed the Craft Sale at Fall Festival, you do not have to wait for the Christmas Boutique! We can gladly fulfill your order online through the GA Website or come visit the Crafters on Wednesdays between 10:00-2:00 in Room M6. You can also leave your name and phone number with the office and we will quickly get back to you! Happy shopping and hope to hear from you soon!

NEW! Faith Formation & Youth

- Trunk-or-Treat Saturday, October 23, 10:00-11:30 a.m. in the GA north parking lot. Children and families welcome to join us for fun and Halloween treats. This is event is free and sponsored by our Youth Council and Family Ministry Program.
- CONNECT meets Sunday, October 24, 12:30 to 1:30 pm in Peter O'Neill Hall to discuss adjusting to COVID this fall. All high school youth are welcome.
- Youth Council meets Sunday, November 7, at 10 am in the Youth Center downstairs. High School youth and supportive adults are welcome for community building, prayer, and planning our Youth Ministry programs.

Retirees, adults, young adults, & high school youth are encouraged to volunteer in our new Growing In Faith Together programs starting in October. Programs serve children, teens, and families. You don't need to be an expert in the Catholic Faith, you only need to care about youth and be open to building positive relationships. For more information contact Deb McMahon, dmcmahon@guardian-angels.org for ages 3,4,5, or Sarah Gibson, sgibson@guardian-angels.org for grades 1-6, or Paul Deziel, pdeziel@guardian-angels.org for grades 7-12.

Early Childhood Faith Formation Volunteers: Adults and teens

We are excited to be able to begin Sunday Faith Formation classes again this fall for our Kindergarten, and 3-5 year old children. Our classes meet during the 8:30 Mass two to three times per month. If you enjoy sharing your talents in any of the areas below PLEASE JOIN US! Your commitment can be as casual or as often as you would like.

- Storytelling, Children's music, Games, Arts and crafts, Session leader or assistant

Please contact Deb McMahon at dmcmahon@guardian-angels.org or 651-789-3174 for more details.

Library Help

We would like to organize our children's books in the library. If anyone could spare some time to help us do that, we would appreciate it very much. Please contact Deb McMahon at dmcmahon@guardian-angels.com if you would be interested in helping with this project. We will not need to organize by the Dewey Decimal or Library of Congress Classification systems, just by categories and/or topics! ☺ Thanks!

Caring & Support Ministries

Please let us know what's going on in your life - Share your joys, struggles, illnesses, hospitalizations, challenges … Our Pastoral Team can find the best way to walk with you on your journey so you know you are never alone.

Are you or someone you know Homebound? Would you like Eucharist brought to you where you live? Contact Mary Pat Potts to help arrange this for you.

Pastoral Pearls

Each of us is called by our Baptism to BE the Love of God to those around us – anyone we encounter. And since those around us will at times have a need for more tender care, I thought I would pass on some brief, concise "Pearls" or "Tools" to help us be that Love of God.

TODAY'S PEARL:

Well this pretty much says it all, doesn't it? That bright yellow flower just makes me smile and fills me with optimism and hope! The words are pretty demanding, though. I really have to concentrate on making the words that come out of my mouth be truly kind and life-giving. I do ok much of the time, but where I feel myself slipping is with those closest to me, with whom I am so comfortable – maybe too comfortable, like my wonderful husband. I am working on being less reactive and more intentional about using my voice for kindness. "Compassionate ears" is actually the basis for our incredible BeFrienders that I talk so much about, but you don't have to be a BeFriender to listen with compassion and care. I find it to be such an honor to listen to the sacred story of people who want to share it with me, and try to understand their perspective. I feel God's Holy Spirit with me when I listen with compassion, guiding me to know when not to speak and how to receive with grace and without judgment whatever is being shared. Using my hands for charity is a bit easier, because it is more concrete and measurable, and often seems more immediately rewarding. So that's when I have to check my motives for doing loving actions – ease? Comfort? Need? Being the "Have" to the "Have-not's. ?" Showing God's Love to anyone in need? As for my mind, it seems it's always searching for the Truth. The problem seems to be recognizing it when God presents it, so all I can do is ask for God's help and trust that the Holy Spirit will help me see the Truths that I need to see and understand. I also am surprised that often the Truth that matters may not be MY Truth, but the Truth as someone else sees it. Back to the Holy Spirit, to ask for help to keep an open mind for the important Truths, that may be hard to hear. And finally, "using my Heart for Love" appears to be the most obvious no-brainer. Therefore I reach out again to the Holy Spirit, to always show me the loving words to say, actions to do, thoughts to think. It makes perfect sense to me that life is this mysterious adventure that challenges me in so many intriguing ways to BE God's love to the world in whatever ways I can. It is for me as exhilarating as it is challenging, and this is what forms me every day of my life.

Loving God, thank you for this incredible adventure with so many opportunities for growth and for loving others. Guide me, Holy Spirit, to use all my senses to love my neighbors. Stretch me to find more and more ways to love. Thank you for being with me in my voice, my ears, my hands, my mind and my heart. Amen.

Healing Hearts GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

Healing Hearts Grief Support Group begins its next 8-week session

Monday, October 11, 12:30 – 2:00 p.m.

If you are someone who still is struggling or feeling off-balance since the death of a loved one, or are experiencing any kind of great Loss, please consider trying this out. We will meet In-Person, but also offer an option for ZOOM if you are unable to attend in person. All are welcome. Contact MaryPat Potts for more info mpotts@guardian-angels.org 651-789-3178

Everyone – we are now in Influenza / Flu season. Getting the flu shot is the best way to protect yourself and others from this respiratory illness. The shot is free through most health plans and is safe for most people. Check with your health care provider if you've questions.

A "Thank You!" from Hope for the Journey Home (HJH)
Every volunteer makes a difference, and we appreciate the time spent serving a meal, assisting with household chores, and serving as an overnight host. If you have volunteered in the past, we welcome you back. If you've never been with us, getting on board is easy and we continue to welcome all to jump in to help. You can find the volunteer links for the remainder of October on our website and below:

JRLC Housing Webinar Series
Are you concerned about those impacted by homelessness, the high cost of rent, and the scarcity of affordable or supportive housing? Do you want to understand these issues from a variety of perspectives – and make a difference? Then join us for one or more of the monthly Housing Webinar Series offered by the Joint Religious Legislative Coalition. Register now for the one hour program, 6:30 – 7:30 PM, followed by 30 minutes of small group discussion, the first Thursday of October 2021 through February 2022. To register, click the zoom registration link https://tinyurl.com/29dcez6t.
Questions/more information or to RSVP by email, contact Joan Miltenberger, JRLC Organizer at jmiltenberger@jrlc.org, 612-230-3232.

A Food Shelf Garden "Thank You!"
Our garden produced 10,065 pounds of healthy food for our neighbors this season. Thank you to our leaders, our planters, our administrative helpers, our fence-putter-uppers, our weeders, our harvesters, our delivery folks, our tillers, our maintenance folks . . . and everyone who supported this work financially and with your prayers. Great work, everyone!

Changing Lives with Outreach Grants
Each year, our parish gives small grants to non-profits doing works of justice and mercy locally, across the country and around the world. In this space, you can learn more about the work supported by your generosity.
Ujamaa Place
On University Ave in St. Paul, a thriving non-profit is providing support and resources for African American men 18-30 years old who have had a run-in with the criminal justice system. More than 300 men are currently enrolled at Ujamaa Place – a transformational journey toward healing and hope. Working through an innovative curriculum called Theory of Transformation, these men are mentored, challenged, and supported as they work toward greater self-sufficiency. In 2020, the organization conducted a return on investment report that validated that every dollar invested in these men resulted in a $6.00 savings in community services. On behalf of the men of Ujamaa Place, thank you for your support. Would you like to learn more? Go to ujamaaplace.org.

Circle of Welcome
Later this week, our parish Refugee Resettlement leadership team will hold their first organizational meeting in a long while – in preparation for welcoming a family from Afghanistan in the near future. Stay tuned as we learn more about the timeline and other details of this new phase of resettlement at GA. Many hands will be needed to prepare a welcome and there will be a variety of ways you can participate. More soon! For now, please join the team in prayer for the family that will come to us. May this parish and the wider community find a home in our hearts for those in need of a fresh start.

Love Builds Bridges, Not Walls

We invite you to pray for a person caught in our broken immigration system. Each week, we offer a name of someone detained, deported or waiting for justice.

Stewardship Message: Our Gospel today conveys how we are called to imitate Jesus through humility and service. We are reminded that the Son of God became man and surrendered His life into the hands of men so that we might be saved. The life of Jesus was centered around His Father's mission and the service of mankind. And this is how we ought to live — in imitation of Christ. James and John wanted to ensure they had a spot in heaven with Jesus. They were concerned about themselves in that moment — "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus quickly reminded them, "whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all."Our culture constantly encourages us to do what we can to get ahead in this world, to do what feels good, no matter the effects — that power, authority, and wealth should be our goals in life. Our faith offers us something different and fulfilling — a life of humility and service. As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in service of God and neighbor, just as Jesus did. Our life is not about us. It is about fulfilling God's glorious plan for each one of us. So, we must ask ourselves, are we living out God's plan for our lives? Is my life centered on Christ and those around me or is it centered on me? It can be difficult to know God's plan for our entire life. He sees the whole picture — we only see the now. All we can do is seek Him daily. If each day is centered on Him, then our entire lives will become the work of Jesus. The Catholic Steward

2022 Stewardship Campaign: This weekend we will be featuring Time and Talent as we continue to kick off our 2022 Stewardship Campaign. For those that picked up their pledge cards last weekend, please mail in the cards, place the completed cards in the collection basket or bring them to the office. Please return the pledge card even if you are not making a pledge. This will save time and expense of future mailings. Cards are available in the pews, or on the counter outside the office.

Archdiocesan Synod: This coming Monday, October 11 at 6:00 pm and Wednesday, October 13 at 9:00 am we will continue with the Synod discussions. Session 3 will cover the following topics: Welcoming Parishes and Collaboration in Parish Ministry on both days, so you only have to attend one of the sessions. Participants are not required but encouraged to attend one of the sessions each week. There will be a total of six sessions with new topics each week. If you have any questions, please contact me.

Pavers: Last call if you want to purchase a memorial paver to be placed in the Prayer Garden before winter. If you place your order by October 22, your paver will be placed by November 12. Memorial pavers are still only $90, and you can order online on our website or there are order forms on the counter just outside the office. Net proceeds from the sale of pavers are used to maintain the Prayer Garden and purchase new plants and flowers.

Thank you: It is that time of the year to thank our church grounds volunteer mowers. The Angel Mower team is led by Tom Hermanson and the following participated this past year in keeping our cemetery and grounds looking beautiful. They are John Adrian, Virgil Beckman, Tom Gibbons. Tom Huebsch, Paul Kinsella, Tom Kub, Mike Loos, Leighton Neault, Richard Smith, Mark Subic, and Ken Weisenberger. Some of these folks mowed, some weed whipped, and some did both. We also want to thank John Rys for his special ministry the last couple of years, he has been sprucing up the area around our many in-ground markers and sometimes lifting up to ground level. We cannot thank these volunteers enough for their work and the fact that they are saving the parish thousands of dollars each year.

Thank You: With winter on our doorstep, we would like to thank these parishioners who have been keeping up our flower gardens this past year. First, we would like to thank Ed and Mary Lenth who led a team of volunteers that plant and maintain our front gardens. Thank you to Christine Hermanson who planted flowers in the two large pots outside the front entrance and maintained them throughout the year. She also cares for the plants in the parking lot "island". Jim Kortz has been taking care of the flowers and shrubs along the east of HJH, for several years and occasionally helps Ed and Mary with the front gardens. Christine Hermanson, Bruce and Sue Labno, Nancy Kub, Ann and Bill Parish, and Judy Rys plant and maintain the Prayer Garden plants and flowers Thanks again to all these volunteers for keeping our grounds so beautiful.

Keep smiling,

Denny

PS: In today's Gospel Jesus teaches his disciples that whoever wishes to be great among them must be a servant, just as he came to be a servant. Good stewards know that their "greatness" is found in God, and is affirmed by a serving heart, a Spirit-filled life, a humble walk and a commitment to acting in ways that glorify God. The "greatness" we feel about ourselves is rooted in a proper view of God in our lives and a proper view of our place in creation. It is from here that we derive our sense of identity and our belief that human life is particularly valuable. Not to be a servant of the Gospel and others would be poor stewardship. In what ways do we serve the Gospel in our daily lives?

Thought of the Week: Gratitude is a characteristic trait of the heart visited by the Holy Spirit; to obey God we must first remember his benefits. Whoever does not let those benefits fall into oblivion, is oriented towards good virtue and to every work of justice, he said, quoting St. Basil. Pope Francis
