"He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." MARK 6:31

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some "alone" time with God.

Bulletin Submissions forms are required for bulletin requests so please pick one up at the office or go to www.blccnorth.org click on Contact/Info, complete and send.

THERE ARE A LOT OF WAYS TO BRING UP THE TOPIC OF RELIGION* [to others]*, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what their thoughts are about religion, or what their experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns. –Excerpt from Sharing Your Faith, ©LPi

From Father Michael Garry

About thirteen years ago I was still a seminarian studying to be a priest. During the summer months I was assigned to help out at our diocesan summer camp as an adult leader. I was given a small group of 8th graders for activities and discussion. One of the 8th graders in that small group was Matt Miller. Most of us camp leaders knew the name Matt Miller. He was a very talkative, energetic, bright-eyed young man that couldn't help but make an impression. He's always had a memory for names and for certain details others might not remember (he might even quibble with my account of these facts, and I would humbly defer to his recollection). Since that time Matt Miller graduated from Hinckley-Finlayson High School, joined the seminary, was ordained a deacon in Rome (I was in attendance), and was ordained a priest last year at the cathedral in Duluth. This weekend I am happy to welcome Fr. Matt Miller as our new parochial vicar. Fr. Matt is a hard working, (still) energetic, and very devoted priest of Jesus Christ. I am looking forward to laboring alongside him in God's vineyard.

In other news, this week is Fr. Daniel's first weekend at his new assignment in Hibbing. Fr. Gabriel Waweru, who was a parochial vicar in Brainerd from 2007 to 2009, will be replacing Fr. Daniel as pastor of St. Andrews & St. Mathias. However, last week we received the following announcement from the diocese:

"Recently, Fr. Gabriel has acknowledged being under a lot of stress with the many challenges that come with a transition to a new parish. At this time, he has sought out medical help to assist him in managing his stress and health. Currently, Fr. Gabriel is resting in Duluth and receiving the proper medical attention that is necessary for him at this time. Presently, there is no change to Fr. Gabriel coming to pastor St. Andrew and St. Mathias parishes. However, the timetable of his arrival will most likely be adjusted to provide him the necessary time he may need in-between assignments."

As of the time of my writing this column, we still don't know when Fr. Gabriel will be arriving in Brainerd. I take this opportunity to request your prayers, not only for Fr. Gabriel, but all priests in our diocese, especially those in transition.
